Chain of Evidence said by ex-Officer to Have Been Broken

MacDonald's Old Tale Found to Give Descriptions at Variance with Men

BY FLOYD J. HEALEY
"Times" Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30. (Exclusive)—The second day of the hearing before the California Supreme Court in which John MacDonald, rambling waiter and repudiating witness, seeks to aid Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings to freedom by a confession of perjured testimony at the trials in which they were convicted, was concluded with two major points favoring the two men who have served fourteen years each in prison for the 1916 Preparedness Day bombing outrage—but neither of the points can be attributed directly to MacDonald.

Provided MacDonald can be believed at all, Mooney and Billings were not the men he saw placing the suit case containing the Preparedness Day parade bomb at Steuart and Market streets on July 22, 1916, if he was there and saw anyone at all. The fact, if it can be accepted as fact in the face of the accumulating falsehoods in which MacDonald has been consistently entrapped for two days, was developed for the Supreme Court justices from a statement made to police by MacDonald two days after the bombing, when his mind was fresh and his memory assumedly clear regarding the trend of events.

DESCRIPTIONS VARY

Although MacDonald, in a general statement, has exonerated Mooney and Billings, he has confessed his inability to substantiate his statement at the present time in the form of any physical demonstration of verity. It was not until police dug out the old record that the point became clear, and it was placed in evidence by Edwin V. McKenzie, attorney representing Billings, whose renewed pardon application is the subject of consideration at this hearing.

The statement contains descriptions of the two men MacDonald said he saw. The descriptions then given, two days after the occurrence, are at wide variance with the actual descriptions of Mooney and Billings at that time.

The second development of the day construed by the counsel as of major importance to their respective cases was the assertion from the witness stand by Duncan Matheson that he believes both Mooney and Billings should be freed because "the chain of circumstantial evidence" upon which they were convicted "has been broken as to time and place." Matheson, now City and County Treasurer, formerly was captain of detectives in the police de-

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, July 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Oklahoma and Texas have an original primary system. They have so many seeking office that the first primary is only to find out how many are desirous of living off the State. The second primary is to eliminate 50 per cent of these. The third is to get rid of half of what is left. The fourth is to eliminate any good man that might have crept in by mistake, and so you have just politicians. The fifth one is to leave in the two worst ones, and they run it off.

WAGE CUTS OPPOSED

Industry Chiefs Give Views

Pay Reductions No Cure for Depression, Says Manufacturer

Purchasing Power Must be Maintained, New Stand of Economists

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—The proposition that the best way to restore prosperity is to maintain wage scales is upheld in expressions from a dozen leaders of American industry to Roy Dickinson, associate editor of Printers' Ink.

Dickinson recently telegraphed to twenty-five business leaders, picked at random, asking their opinion on wage cuts. Here are some of the replies, made public by him today:

George F. Johnson, shoe manufacturer, Endicott, N. Y.: "Wage cutting or reducing income of labor is not a remedy for business depression. It is a direct and contributing cause."

STEEL WAGES STAY

J. A. Farrell, president, United States Steel Corporation: "Quoting from my remarks at the May meeting of the American and Steel Institute: I heard a steel man say the other day wages should come down.

"I said, 'Oh, no, wages are not coming down in the steel industry; make your mind up to that. If you are going out to sell your goods and eliminate your profit and expect to get it out of the men in

RUM KINGS TO SUFFER

Dry Chief Aims at "Big Boys"

Woodcock Declares Policy of "Steady Pressure" will Strike at Traffic

Agents Warned to Disregard Petty Infractions and Go After Distributors

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—Maintenance of "steady pressure" against the larger violators of the dry laws was announced today by Prohibition Director Amos W. W. Woodcock as a guiding policy of the reorganized enforcement unit.

"I will not have our agencies following the course of least resistance and wasting their time upon pitiful, picayunish, noncommercial cases," he said. "I think the prohibition laws can be successfully enforced against commercial operations. I propose to make that our objective and not to dissipate our energies in other fields.

"I shall insist that a steady pressure be maintained against these commercial violations. I disapprove sensational methods."

CONFERENCE HELD

Woodcock's statement was issued after a day spent in conference with the twelve administrators, recently appointed to take charge in the field, and a group of special agents responsible directly to national headquarters for investigation work.

Establishment of schools for training enforcement agents, institution of a system of daily reports from all enforcement districts and an effort to obtain uniform sentences for approximately similar violations, Woodcock said, also are to be undertaken.

Twenty-four picked men are to be instructed here, he explained, and then two will go to each administrative district to train the personnel there in methods of gathering evidence, in the substantive law and in habits of discipline.

CHIEF PURPOSE

"The aim of our bureau," he said, "is not the number of people sentenced for violating the law, but a decrease in the consumption of intoxicating liquor in the United States."

He pointed out it will not be easy to keep an accurate check on consumption of liquor, but added there are certain indices that will be an important help. Among these he listed arrests for intoxication, deaths from cirrhosis of the liver, production, importation and exportation of hops and the consumption of corn sugar.

Woodcock said he has noticed "a tremendous lack of uniformity" in sentences for what are essentially the same offense.

"This," he added, "is not justice, and without justice we do not promote respect for laws."

He called on the judges of the nation to confer regarding uniform sentences.

ADDRESS MADE

The administrators and special agents gathered in Woodcock's office this morning while he delivered an informal address similar in content to the statement issued earlier in the day.

At noon they were received by Atty.-Gen. Mitchell and Asst. Atty.-Gen. Youngquist. The afternoon was spent in a series of group conferences.

All twelve administrators, appointed to take charge of sections of the country roughly equivalent to those of the Circuit courts, were present.

The conferences will continue tomorrow and simultaneously there will be a meeting of the twelve supervisors of industrial alcohol permits of the Treasury Department. These officers will meet with James M. Doran, in charge of the industrial alcohol division, for conferences similar to those engaged in today by the administrators.

Woodcock gave the number of persons in the enforcement service as approximately 2700, with the comment that, while he thinks the number probably too small, he prefers to await the result of experience before making such an assertion definitely.

FORD AND EDISON SCAN LIFE

Fill Human Needs Cheaply, Auto Maker's Advice to Industry on Sixty-seventh Birthday

WEST ORANGE (N. J.) July 30. (Exclusive)—Henry Ford, 67 years of age today, sat on the fence here talking for an hour about life and business. Thomas A. Edison, host of forty-nine boys competing for the Edison scholarship this year, sat at an old oak desk in his West Orange laboratory and did the same thing.

"Business will be all right," Mr. Ford said, "as soon as the leaders sense what the public needs and gives it to them cheap."

"What does the public need, Mr. Ford?"

"Well, in my particular case," replied Mr. Ford, "it's motor cars, and the agents have started to call for them now."

Mr. Ford would not be specific about other needs except for the suggestion that not one person in ten, he believes, has a bath tub in this country.

HUMAN NEEDS UNLIMITED

"The people can use many more things," he said. "There is no limit to the human needs. It took a long time for the people to get interested in the stock market, and then for the market to crash, and I suppose it will take a long time to get over that entirely, but still, people are getting valuable experience now.

"You notice everybody is anxious to get busy. That's one of the healthiest signs. They wonder why they can't do something. Eventually they will think right and find a way.

"Perhaps the bankers have too much control today. We have always managed to keep our business independent of the bankers. Also, I think one trouble is that people start in industries on too big a scale."

Mr. Ford gently uncrossed his legs, looked up from the ground and said that only last night he had been making some notes on a possible new industry.

"I was thinking," he said, "that there might be a new water produced which would do good and have a kick in it. I believe there might be a great industry in that. There are many places in this country where the water is bad."

"But how about the kick?" a reporter asked.

"Just get dry enough and good, pure water has plenty of kick," said Mr. Ford, looking extremely sober.

Mr. Edison's ideas were expressed in reply to a questionnaire.

"Do you feel that the country is suffering from business depression?" he was asked.

"No, the workers are scared and will not buy," said Mr. Edison.

"What is the future of the unemployment situation?"

"We are bound to have these depressions no matter how perfect our financial standing is. Men are natural-born gamblers and will always overdo things."

FEMININE FREEDOM GOOD

"Do you believe that public consumption will be able indefinitely to absorb the continually increasing output of mass production?"

"Of course, the market is limited for the farmers to the size of the consumer's stomach," was Mr. Edison's only reply.

He said that the machine age would increase the individual's leisure and opportunity for full development.

"Is the individual likely to use this leisure wisely?"

"Yes, if he shuns whisky."

He considered the economic and moral freedom of women good for them and for the race.

"They have started enforcing the law," he said regarding prohibition. "And if decently enforced it will be of enormous benefit."

Harvey Firestone was Mr. Ford's

OVERTHROW AIM OF REDS CONFESSED

Counsel for Communists' Publication Admits Desire to Upset Government

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Arthur Garfield Hays, counsel for the Revolutionary Age and the Communist party (majority group,) said in Federal court today the aim of the party is "eventually" to overthrow the government of the United States. The leaders are not "foolish enough to believe the overthrow can be brought about except by force," he added.

Hays made his statement in arguing for an order restraining Postmaster Kiely from interference with the transmission by mail of the revolutionary organ. He said, however, that overthrow is out of the question at present, and on this based his contention that postoffice authorities should not interfere with the dissemination of Communist views by mail.

United States Attorney Tuttle said the matter of freedom of speech and of the press is not an issue, the admitted aims of the Communists being what they are.

The court reserved decision.

Mexico Urged to Aid Actors in Hollywood

MEXICO CITY, July 30. (AP)—Secretary of Communications Almazan today recommended to President Ortiz Rubio that government assistance be given to Mexican actors in Hollywood's motion-picture colony to preserve Mexico's "hegemony" in Spanish talkies.

The Minister expressed the opinion the talkies are proving of immense value as a means of propaganda and that, while Mexican actors apparently dominate the Spanish-speaking film colony, there is great competition between them and Spanish actors to hold their position.

African Tells of Livingstone

PARIS, July 30. (AP)—Col. Charles Wellington Furlong, American explorer, believes he has unearthed the last remaining evidences of the famous African Congo expeditions of Livingstone and Stanley.

The explorer, en route home to Boston after spending a year in East and Central Africa, reported meeting an elderly native who claimed to be the sole surviving native member of Livingstone's entourage on his last journey in 1873.

The African said he was one of the party which carried Livingstone's mummified body on spear heads from the interior to the east coast after the Scotchman died of dysentery.

NORTHCOTT CONDEMNED ONCE MORE

Convicted Slayer of Boys Resentenced to Hanging at Prison October 2

RIVERSIDE, July 30. (AP)—Gordon Stewart Northcott, Canadian youth convicted here February 11, 1929, of boy killings at his Wineville chicken ranch, today was resentenced to be hanged at San Quentin prison on October 2. He has been incarcerated at the prison pending his appeal, which was refused.

Superior Judge Freeman, who originally sentenced the youth, set the new date for his execution.

Northcott was convicted on murder charges in connection with the deaths of three small boys, Louie and Nelson Winslow of Pomona, and an unidentified Mexican, whose decapitated body was found along the near-by highway. Partly destroyed bones, dug up on the chicken ranch, were among the evidence introduced.

Rivals for Air Endurance Mark Continue Aloft

ROOSEVELT FIELD (N. Y.) July 30. (AP)—Louis Reicher and Robert Black pushed their Red endurance plane past the 240th hour in the air at 7:34 o'clock tonight and started into the eleventh day of their trial against the 554-hour record of the Hunter brothers.

ST. LOUIS, July 31. (Thursday) (AP)—Nearing the end of their tenth day aloft, Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine continued to circle over Lambert-St. Louis Field early today in their endurance plane, Greater St. Louis. At 12:11 a.m., they had been in the air 233 hours.

AMERICANS SHOT IN CLASH WITH CHINESE RED FORCE

Five Sailors on Gunboat Wounded; Fifty of Attackers Meet Death; Communists Take City

SHANGHAI, July 30. (AP)—Five American sailors were wounded, fifty Chinese Communists killed and many more wounded late today when the Reds attacked the United States gunboat Palos while the vessel was proceeding toward Changsha, Hunan Province capital, in the Siang River.

Armed with machine guns and rifles, the Communists attacked the gunboat in a narrow section of the river near the northern environs of Changsha. Unable to turn around, the Palos returned the fire, engaging the Reds in a battle lasting one hour.

The Palos used her machine guns and three-inch rifles at close range, finally silencing the Communist fire.

Sides of the gunboat were sprayed with lead but the vessel was not seriously damaged.

The Palos was endeavoring to observe conditions within the city. After the battle she returned to her anchorage five miles north of Changsha.

Names of the wounded seamen were not immediately available.

HIT HUNDRED TIMES

To silence the Communists, the Palos was forced to pour lead into the river banks, behind which the Reds took up their position in shacks and underbrush.

The attackers are believed to have been the rear guard of Communist bands which are patrolling the northern border of Changsha against the possibility of Chinese military opposition from the north.

The Palos was hit at least 100 times, but her steel armaments held.

The gunboat sought to come nearer the city when an unexpected rise of the river permitted the group of vessels anchored above the city greater freedom of movement.

REDS OCCUPY NANCHANG

The Palos is commanded by Lieutenant-Commander R. D. Tisdale of Baltimore, who saw several years' service with the Asiatic fleet and is considered one of the most capable and popular officers of the Yangtse River American patrol, comprising between six and twelve vessels.

The entire patrol is under command of Admiral Thomas Craven, who, during the past fourteen months has gained a reputation as a tireless worker. He is constantly cruising the Yangtse in an effort to keep his ships so strategically stationed as best to protect Americans and their property throughout the Yangtse basin.

Admiral Craven at present is in the vicinity of Kiukiang, where he is seeking information concerning the extent of Communist depredations in Kiangsi Province.

Unconfirmed reports today said Communists have occupied Nanchang, Kiangsi, and are viewing Kiukiang with envious eyes.

CHANGSHA SEIZED AFTER BLOODY ORGY

[Copyright, 1930, by the Chicago Tribune.]

SHANGHAI, July 30. (Exclusive) Communists are in absolute control of Changsha, after a reign of terror that has included torture, death, plundering, burning and destruction of native and foreign properties. A soviet republic has been proclaimed by the Red invaders, who have set about organizing a soviet administration within Changsha.

The destruction of this city of 500,000, a commercial, political and educational metropolis in Hunan Province, began yesterday morning when government troops refused to defend the city, retreating to the east without firing a shot. The occupation was followed by plundering and burning ten government buildings. Between forty and fifty foreign properties were destroyed, including the Japanese consulate, Japanese hospital and several American missionary churches and residences. The offices of the Standard and Texas oil companies were plundered, but not burned. The American Yale-in-China University is believed to have escaped destruction, but most of the foreign consulates have been wrecked.

AMERICANS IN DANGER

More than 200 foreigners, twenty of them Americans, who are residing in the summer resort at Kuling, near Kiukiang, are in grave danger as a result of the Communist advance.

Four foreigners remain in Changsha. One of them is the American missionary, Rev. Allen Cameron, who has refused to leave. The others are

R-100 NEARS COASTLINE

Over Belle Isle at Last Report

Huge British Dirigible Now 700 Miles from Goal at Montreal Airport

Great Welcome Planned as Radio Messages Predict Arrival Late Today

OTTAWA (Ont.) July 30. (AP) The Department of Marine announced that the R-100 passed over Belle Isle at 9:39 p.m. eastern standard time. Belle Isle is a tiny island off the northern tip of Newfoundland, and approximately 700 miles from the R-100's destination.

MONTREAL (Que.) July 30. (AP)—With the greatest airship the skies have ever known bearing down on Canada on its first long flight from England, St. Hubert's airport outside this city teemed tonight with preparations for its reception.

Out beyond the great mast where the R-100 will swing tomorrow night, long rows of tents were raised to house the 600 soldiers and police who will handle the huge crowds expected to gather from all over the Province.

In the hangar itself provisions were made to take care of the forty-four men who are sailing the ocean air in Britain's latest bid for aerial supremacy.

Throughout the day the wireless station at St. Hubert's was in intermittent touch with the mighty dirigible, which is larger than either the Los Angeles of the United States Navy or the Graf Zeppelin of Germany.

From ships at sea and from the R-100 itself it was learned that the airship was sailing smoothly over the aerial highways of the Atlantic and from late afternoon reports—the R-100 was then off Belle Isle Strait. It could be estimated with fair accuracy that the time of arrival here would be late tomorrow, probably between 4 and 6 o'clock.

Messages from the R-100 were marked by such expressions as "All Okay," "Uneventful trip" and the like.

USE HIGH MAST

The R-100 will be moored at a mast more than 100 feet high, in a general way similar to the original high mast at Lakehurst, N. J., used prior to the construction of the mobile stub mast now employed there. Officials here believe that the landing of the R-100 can be effected with the help of not more than a score of men.

GREATER DIRIGIBLE MORE THAN HALF FINISHED

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—As the world's largest dirigible forced her way across the Atlantic today workmen had passed the half-way mark in the construction of a United States airship larger even than the R-100.

PLANES HUNT DERBY FLYER

Meehan Missing More than Twenty-four Hours Since Leaving Los Angeles in Air Race

SALT LAKE CITY, July 30. (AP)—Joe Meehan of Ironton, O., entry in the all-American air derby, is missing this evening, more than twenty-four hours after he was due to arrive at the Ogden airport on yesterday's jump from Los Angeles.

When Meehan failed to reach Ogden today an airplane was sent from the airport there at the request of a member of his family to fly over the course he should have taken yesterday. Pilots of the Western Air Express, flying mail planes between Salt Lake City and Los Angeles, also were instructed to be on the watch for his plane.

A check of airports between the two cities today failed to reveal any trace of him and it was said he had landed neither at Las Vegas, Nev., or Milford, Utah, as many of the contestants did yesterday to refuel.

Aside from a report a plane circled Stockton, Utah, last night, nothing has been heard from Meehan since he left Los Angeles.

GEHLBACH'S LEAD JUMPS TO ALMOST FOUR HOURS

LINCOLN (Neb.) July 30. (AP)—Lee Gehlbach, intrepid Little Rock (Ark.) pilot, retained his lead in the all-American air derby with a margin of nearly four hours on the hop from Ogden, Utah, to the overnight stop here, a distance of more than 900 miles.

Gehlbach's ship was officially recorded as having landed here at 3:47:25 p.m. after flying the next to longest jump in the tour in 6h. 45m. 25s.

His total elapsed time for the flight, Lee Schoenhair, referee, announced, is 38h. 14m. 35s.

Lowell Bayles, Springfield (Mass.) pilot, second to land here and runner up for total elapsed time honors, made the trip from Ogden in 7h. 42m. 6s.

North and South Distanced in Population Race

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—The geographical section designated as "the West" by the Census Bureau, comprising Pacific and Rocky Mountain States, increased by 2,911,200 in the decade just past, a 32.7 per cent population gain. The 1930 total is 11,814,172, as against 8,902,972 in 1920.

This jump, greater in percentage than the growth of "the North" or "the South," was due to the coastal influx, particularly in California.

The Rocky Mountain States, numbering eight, which showed a 26.7 per cent growth in 1920, to compare with the coastal 32.8 per cent, had slowed down to a 9.8 per cent increase in 1930, but Washington, Oregon and California had jumped to a 46.4 per cent gain over the 1920 figure. In 1920 the Census Bureau figures showed 8.4 per cent of the total population living in "the West." The 1930 percentage has not been figured.

Montana, decreasing by 2.2 per cent, was the only State showing loss. Colorado was the first mountain State to number more than 1,000,000 inhabitants, with a 1930 total of 1,033,156.

CANAL ZONE LAD BEATS SULLIVAN

[Copyright 1930, by New York Times.]

BALBOA, July 30. (Exclusive)—Vincent Sullivan, claimant to the marbles championship of the United States, after cleaning up the boys of Cartagena and Colombia met an ignominious defeat at the thumbs of Robert Oller, Canal Zone champion, at Balboa Stadium today. Sullivan, apparently suffering from stage fright or the effects of the hot weather, looked like an amateur compared to Oller, who won three straight games hands down.

Although according to the rules with twelve marbles in the ring the player getting the first seven won, they played until the last marble was out of the ring. In the first game Oller got ten and in the second he took ten straight and finished with a total of twelve, Sullivan failing to get a single one. Sullivan was ready to quit then, but he played a third game in which he got one marble.

At the conclusion of the match the Canal Zone boy said, "Gosh, we eat players like him down here."

NEW FEATURES

Besides being nearly one-third larger than the British dirigible, the American ship, named the Akron, will incorporate half a dozen revolutionary features designed to increase its effectiveness. Where the R-100 holds only 5,150,000 cubic feet of gas, the Akron will hold 6,500,000. The Akron will be 785 feet long, as contrasted with the R-100's 709-foot length.

The R-100 has a cruising radius of about 6000 miles, but the Akron will be able to fly 10,580 without refueling.

In the Akron, for the first time, there will be an airplane hangar, housing five fast fighting planes for scouting or protective purposes.

MOTORS INSIDE

Because inflammable hydrogen is the lifting gas in the R-100, the British dirigible's motors must be hung outside the hull of the ship. Eight motors, with shafts running to propellers outside, will be inside the hull of the helium-inflated Akron. These propellers will have a swivel arrangement so they may be used to either push or pull, raise or lower the huge gas bag.

For the first time a United States dirigible will carry guns when the Akron takes flight. It will be equipped to carry sixteen .50-caliber machine guns. The average machine-gun fires bullets of only .30 caliber.

The Akron is scheduled for completion by next June at a cost of $5,375,000, while a sister ship, the ZRS-5, costing $2,450,000, probably will be finished in the latter part of next year.

BILLINGS GAINS MAJOR POINTS

Old Descriptions of Men Dug Out of Records

Former Police Officer Tells Doubts of Guilt

MacDonald Has Strenuous Day as Witness

partment and he was in charge of the police bomb detail at the time of the Mooney-Billings trials, thus having had direct and extensive connection with the investigation.

DEFENSE OPTIMISTIC

With these items in the record, defense attorneys expressed a growing optimism as to the ultimate result of the Supreme Court rehearing.

Inasmuch as this hearing pertains directly to Billings and only inferentially to Mooney, the next step is the placing before the Governor of similar information applicable to Mooney. The Governor has said he considers the cases parallel and the fates of the two men linked one with the other. Mooney has paved the way for formal reconsideration by another appeal to the Governor and his case, as it exists now, will reach the Governor late this week or early next.

Chief Justice Waste today told Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan, who is attending the hearing, that the Governor had wired he will interview MacDonald on behalf of Mooney in the presence of the prison advisory board. This meeting, to be held in Sacramento, will be Saturday of this week if the Supreme Court proceedings allow, or early next week, if not. Carnahan was asked to get the prison advisory board together for that purpose. Most of its members are attending the hearing here.

STRENUOUS DAY

MacDonald put in another strenuous day. He was obviously near the point of mental and physical exhaustion when he quit the witness stand this afternoon. He was, in a sense, a pitiful figure like a whipped dog cringing in a corner, fearing, but expecting, another lash.

McKenzie, trying to obtain a positive statement to which MacDonald would stick, at last tossed his arms aloft in despair and ended his questions with:

"I stop this cross-examination with a sense of futility."

Only once did MacDonald display sufficient nerve to lift himself from the humdrum abyss of self-abnegation into which he tumbled a short time after taking the stand. It was when Charles M. Fickert, District Attorney, who prosecuted Mooney and Billings, faced him. McDonald had accused Fickert of "coaching" him to fasten the bombing upon Mooney and Billings.

Reminded yesterday of the enormity of this assertion, he hauled out the ever-present handkerchief, cried into it for a time and recanted once again.

COACHING ASSERTED

Today, however, he continually referred to Fickert as his "coach," and reiterated, at various times, that Fickert exerted an "influence" or a "spell" upon him.

When Fickert faced the witness to absolve himself for the sake of the record, MacDonald hunched to the edge of his chair, squared, as well as he could, his puny shoulders, lifted his chin, light came into his eyes, and he spoke for the first time in a voice that could be heard throughout the courtroom.

Fickert did his best to get MacDonald to deny the asserted coaching episodes, but MacDonald stuck to his guns in that respect with the only show of spirit he has displayed. It was as if a load—perhaps the "spell"—had been lifted from him when he faced the man he accused.

STILL IN "CLUTCHES"

Fickert gained nothing in his examination and finally gave up the attempt, whereupon McKenzie took up the burden of eliminating the "clutches" which seemed to have enveloped the witness so he could not tell the truth. McKenzie did no better than Fickert, although it was McKenzie who got the denial from MacDonald yesterday.

Justice Preston then interjected: "Do you feel like you are in the clutches of someone now."

"Yes."

Involuntarily, everyone looked at Fickert.

"Where is the influence coming from now?" A little louder. What answer did you give?"

"I wasn't able to say."

"You weren't able to say what clutches you were in now?"

"No."

"You are all in a daze right now, are you?"

"Yes."

Throughout the day, virtually every time MacDonald got an incident straightened out in his memory and announced himself positive of his information, he was confounded with documentary evidence disproving his assertions. At least, in most points, he admitted, after being confronted with the evidence, that he had falsified regarding the incident or it had "slipped" his mind until recalled to his attention.

As if to put the finishing touches to this spectacle of thorough unreliability, a telegram was produced from Herbert R. O'Conor, State's Attorney at Baltimore, where MacDonald reached his conclusion several days ago to return to California and testify, in which O'Conor branded MacDonald as an unreliable witness. It went into the record.

CHANGE NOTICED

Matheson also testified he noticed a great change in MacDonald both physically and mentally, between the time of his first statement in 1916 and the present. He intimated the witness cannot be believed at the present time.

Matheson declared he was convinced at the time of the convictions the men were guilty. The first thing which caused him to begin changing his opinion, he testified, was the trial witness Oxman's testimony and "what developed afterward." Oxman, whose testimony was vital in the convictions, was shown conclusively, according to the Mooney Defense League, to have been 100 miles or more away at the time of the parade and bombing.

Another dominant element in Matheson's about front, he testified, grew from the so-called "alibi pictures." These are photographs taken of the parade which show a clock in the same line of vision with impressions of individuals identified as Mooney and his wife, Rena. Matheson said their presence on the Eilers Building, which is shown in the photograph, at the time shown by the clock, cannot coincide with the time at which Mooney and Billings are asserted to have been seen at Steuart and Market streets with the fatal suitcase.

Matheson flatly contradicted MacDonald's charges, some made at the present hearing, that police officers and then Dist.-Atty. Fickert "framed" Mooney and Billings through MacDonald's perjured testimony. Matheson's disagreement merely added weight to MacDonald's admission yesterday, after he had accused Police Captain Goff and Fickert of "coaching" him, that they could not have done so because he did not see or talk to them until after he had identified rogue's gallery photographs of the two men.

SURPRISE WITNESS

A surprise witness entered the case for the first time since the bombing, during the afternoon session. George Reid, retired Salvation Army officer, testified MacDonald, who had previously resided at the army home on Harrison street, described the explosion to him two hours after the disaster.

"MacDonald told me he saw two men, one with bushy eyebrows, set a suitcase down at Steuart and Market streets a few minutes before the tragedy," said Reid. "Afterward he boasted about being able to identify the men from police pictures and intimated he expected to receive a large share of the reward for the bombers."

UPTON SINCLAIR TO SPEAK AT MEETING

Upton Sinclair, Socialist candidate for Governor, will be one of the speakers at the Mooney protest meeting to be held in Trinity Auditorium, Saturday at 8 p.m. Other speakers on the program will be Chaim Shapiro, E. P. Ryland and William W. Busick.

FORD DISCUSSES WOES OF WORLD

almost silent partner in the interview on the fence. He merely remarked that in his own industry consumption now exceeded production.

Somebody remarked about the possibility of Mr. Ford retiring from business.

AS TO BOLSHEVISM

"I start to retire every morning," was his comment, "but I get over it by night."

Then the talk turned to education, and Mr. Ford said he hoped the schools would teach more things, and that culture and industry would go along together. He said he didn't believe much in culture apart from industry and the common life.

"I'm against history because they just use it on war and then don't get one word right," he said.

He said he hoped his museum would show the contributions made to American history by "men and women who never got into the history books."

When Bolshevism and the Congressional investigation of Communism were mentioned, Mr. Ford chuckled.

"Gosh," he said, "they were out at our place the other day and found that we treat the Reds so well there is no chance for trouble.

"If Bolshevism ever gets into this country, you'll find that it is because the country needs it."

Pound Named for Arbitration Court Bench

LONDON, July 30. (AP)—Dean Roscoe Pound of the Harvard law school today was nominated by the British group for judge of the Permanent Court of Arbitration. Named with him were Sir Cecil Hurst, Jonkhier Van Heysinga and Jelge Klaestad.

The same list was submitted by the Australian group which also nominated Dean Pound to fill the unexpired term of Charles Evans Hughes, who resigned to become Chief Justice of the United States.

Other nominations for unexpired terms are Dean I. H. Wigmore, of the Northwestern law school, by Luxemburg; James Brown Scott, of the Carnegie Foundation for International Peace, by Jugo-Slavia.

Los Angeles Missionary Periled

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Roberts

When the first Communistic outburst occured in Changsha, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Roberts, two missionaries from the Los Angeles Bible Institute, were stationed at that city. Mr. Roberts immediately made preparation for the departure of Mrs. Roberts and their four children from the danger zone, while he stayed with the institute's mission. So far as local officers of the institute have been able to learn, Mr. Roberts still is in the strife-torn city, although dispatches fail to mention his name.

an Italian priest, Father Baima, who was captured by the invaders and whose fate is not known, and two German business men named Putsch and Matskovsky. An American missionary worker, Miss Rugg, is isolated in an adjoining village.

GUNBOATS LEAVE

The position of foreigners remaining in the danger zone was further imperiled when American, British and Japanese gunboats were compelled to withdraw due to the rapid decline of the water level in the Siang River. The gunboats churned down the river, picking up refugees who deserted their possessions to save their lives.

A report from Changsha says the Communists seized and tortured to death all the wealthy persons who were unable to make their escape. The burning and pillaging were carried on in a systematic manner. Gangs of Communists, headed by squads of Red troops, surrounded the buildings marked off by the supreme command for depredation. Orators would proclaim the Communist purpose "to distribute the surplus wealth," and the selected followers would enter the buildings and transport furniture and valuables to the street, where they were auctioned off. The proceeds were pocketed, after which the rabble was invited to enter and complete the plundering. After this the places were burned and the crowd moved on to the next building scheduled for destruction.

WALLS PLACARDED

Shortly following the occupation of the city the Communists placarded the walls of buildings with offers of rewards of $200 for information as to the whereabouts of foreigners, wealthy Chinese officials and members of the staffs of foreign concerns. Another proclamation demanded that the merchants raise $425,000 to be paid following the completion of destruction of foreign property, otherwise the city will be burned.

The merchants remaining in the city sent frantic appeals for military assistance, but Gen. Ho Chien, commander of the provincial troops, has disappeared. Likewise, there is no word of the army which is supposed to be marching to Changsha from the Hunan and Kiangsi borders.

INSTITUTE BRANCH BELIEVED TO BE SAFE

The Changsha (Hunan Province, China) branch of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, being run almost exclusively by native Chinese, is not in great danger of being sacked and burned by the Communist hordes pillaging all unprotected territory, in the belief of J. P. Welles of the administration department of the Los Angeles Bible Institute.

The only Los Angeles resident who is now in the territory is Charles A. Roberts, foreign representative of the Bible Institute in China. Two weeks ago, when the revolt was coming to a head, he had his wife, Grace Roberts, and their four children transferred to safer headquarters. Roberts remained on duty at the school. Warren A. Pike of Los Angeles, is a brother of Mrs. Roberts.

Dr. Frank A. Keller, superintendent of the Changsha mission, who has been in Los Angeles for a visit, left with his wife for China early last week when he heard of the uprising. Dr. Keller began his missionary work in China in 1898, and was the first white man to sleep within the walls of Changsha. He has been in charge of the Bible institute work in China for thirteen years.

The Changsha Bible Institute is the largest school of its type in China and represents an investment of $300,000 of Los Angeles capital. It is supported almost entirely by local residents.

Four years ago the Chinese Nationalist soldiers took possession of the Bible Institute grounds, but did not destroy any property.

OFFICIAL KILLS SELF IN NIAGARA PLUNGE

FOSTER PICKED AS MURDERER

Suspect Declared Man Who Fled Lingle Murder

Identification in Court Comes as Surprise

Gangster Grows Angry as Officer Points to Him

BY JOHN P. GALLAGHER
"Times" Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, July 30. (Exclusive)—The greatest surprise so far during the investigation of the murder of Alfred (Jake) Lingle, Chicago Tribune reporter, who was shot and killed June 9, last, was sprung today in Judge Trude's courtroom when Frankie Foster, notorious North Side gangster, was positively identified by Policeman Anthony Ruthy as the man who ran away from the murder scene in the Illinois Central tunnel under Michigan avenue at Randolph street.

Foster left Chicago June 11 and was arrested in Los Angeles about a week afterward by detectives from State's Attorney Swanson's office. He was returned to Chicago two weeks ago from the California city after a fight against extradition. At no time did the Chicago officials accuse him of killing Lingle. All he was wanted for, it was advertised, was to trace the gun with which Lingle was killed and which it was asserted he owned two years ago.

IDENTIFICATION DRAMATIC

The identification came with dramatic suddenness. Ruthy was called to the stand by Attorneys Harold Levy and Emmett H. Byrne, Foster's attorneys, who were confident that Ruthy could not identify Foster. They asked him this question:

"Do you see in this courtroom the man whom you chased along Randolph street immediately after Lingle was killed?"

Ruthy hesitated. He looked at Assistant State's Attorneys Rathbun and McShane, as if wondering what to do. Then he walked over to where the dapper Foster sat and pointed at him.

"This is the man I chased," he said.

FOSTER FLUSHES ANGRILY

Levy and Byrne were nonplussed. Foster flushed angrily and muttered something under his breath. His wife, sitting in the rear of the room, threw her hands to her lips to stop a startled cry. A dead hush fell over the courtroom.

When Levy and Byrne sought to inflict doubt in Ruthy's mind the policeman became only the more certain and finally said he was positive.

"Yes, that is the fellow I chased," he emphatically declared.

Before Ruthy was called the judge already had ruled that Foster must be released on $25,000 bail on September 9 if the State was not ready for trial then. After Ruthy's testimony Assistant State's Attorneys Rathbun and McShane moved that the alternative order of bail or trial on September 9 be vacated, but Judge Trude refused. He said that Foster is entitled to trial and that if they could not proceed on September 9 he would free him on $25,000 bail.

VIEW HAS CHANGED

A. C. Loring, flour manufacturer, Minneapolis: "We have not contemplated any reduction in wages now or in the immediate future."

"Ten years ago," Dickinson writes summing up the replies in Printer's Ink, "When I was a member of President Harding's unemployment conference run by Herbert Hoover, I wrote a minority report against wage cuts. I could get only one of the fifty members to sign it—the late Samuel Gompers. Then it was almost an axiom that wage cuts would bring back normal times.

"Today a new point of view prevails. Maintaining purchasing power at the source is the most important job in the country today, for wages buy more shoes and automobiles than dividends."

National Conference Born at Chicago Meeting

Sixty-seven Branches Join Hands Permanently

Barnes Guiding Genius of Co-operative Move

CHICAGO, July 30. (Exclusive)—A permanent national conference on construction, representing the various branches of this industry and allied agencies of finance, was created here today at an informal meeting presided over by Julius H. Barnes, chairman of the National Building Survey Conference which was called at the suggestion of President Hoover after the market crash last fall.

This new conference is a development of the Hoover program which is intended to be of lasting benefit and to bring the sixty-seven branches of the industry into line so that they can function more promptly than they have been able to do.

Mr. Barnes, who is also chairman of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, was named as head of the committee which was empowered to complete arrangements for the organization of the conference. He returned east tonight and will confer with officials of the Federal government with respect to their co-operation.

Twenty leaders in building and finance attended the meeting.

Sixteen Seized in Narcotics Plot

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—Sixteen persons are under arrest as the result of an investigation into the smuggling of narcotics into the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan.

Harry J. Anslingern, acting director of the Narcotic Bureau, said today the ringleader of the conspiracy, Margaret Horan, was arrested in New York yesterday and that a guard, C. C. Drake, also is held. The names of the other prisoners were not announced.

INDIA ASKED TO ABSTAIN FROM VOTING

Congress of Nationalists Also Would Strengthen British Goods Boycott

BOMBAY, July 30. (AP)—With plans for stiffening the boycott against British goods and intensifying the civil disobedience campaign believed to be its principal agenda, the working committee of the all-India Congress opened its sessions today.

Only ten committee members were present, twenty-one being in prison on various charges preferred by the government. The sessions, held behind closed doors, were expected to continue three and possibly four days. Vallabhai Patel presided.

The committee tonight made public the following resolution:

"In view of the necessity for the nation's energy and attention being concentrated on vigorous continuance of the present mass movement, the working committee earnestly appeals to all in India to abstain from standing as candidates, or voting, or otherwise participating, directly or indirectly, in the forthcoming elections to the legislatures."

The committee called on all congress organizations to "take all legitimate steps, including peaceful picketing where necessary and feasible, with a view to dissuading 'intending' candidates from standing, or seeking election, and voters from voting."

WRITINGS BY LINCOLN GIFT TO PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—President Hoover today was presented with a complete set of essays, state papers and speeches of one of his favorite characters of American history—Abraham Lincoln. Dissatisfied with Results Since Recent Session

Department Heads Urged to Lay Early Plans

Prediction of $100,000,000 Deficit Considered

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—Dissatisfied with progress made in cutting down governmental expenditures for the year, President Hoover today called upon Cabinet members and heads of independent establishments to speed up their plans for economies.

The Chief Executive is said at the White House to believe sufficient progress has not been made since he discussed with the Cabinet on the 18th inst. methods for decreasing expenses to meet a possible reduction in revenues arising from slack times. As a result he requested special emphasis be given these efforts and conferred with Secretaries Lamont and Davis and Postmaster-General Brown upon the matter.

The economies are to be planned without interfering with the program to relieve unemployment, but it is proposed they shall reach every department and pave the way for avoiding a deficit next July.

An increase of about $209,000,000 in expenditures this year over last is now provided for, attributed largely by Mr. Hoover to increases for speeding up buildings, inland waterways and public work to assist unemployment, together with increased relief for veterans.

The Chief Executive believes this increase can be trimmed sharply below the amounts appropriated.

Secretary Mellon has informed him present indications are the government will close the fiscal year of 1931 with a deficit of more than $100,000,000. If the reduced income-tax rate applicable this year is again applied to 1930 incomes, Mr. Mellon estimated a deficit of approximately $180,000,000.

LARGEST SEAL TAKE IN YEARS RECORDED

JUNEAU (Alaska) July 30. (AP)—The largest take of seals in forty-three years, since the days of contract sealing, was made this season at the government's sealing grounds on the Pribiloff Islands in the Bering Sea, Federal Fisheries Commissioner O'Malley said on his return here today from a plane tour of that region. The take this summer totaled 42,478 skins, with about 1000 more to be taken this fall. Last summer season's take was 39,298, with 800 more taken in the fall.

Clean the scalp -check DANDRUFF

WHENEVER you wash your hair—and most people do it once a week—douse full strength Listerine on the scalp either before or after the rinse. Then massage the scalp and hair vigorously for several minutes.

You will be simply delighted by the wonderful feeling of cleanness and exhilaration that follows this refreshing treatment.

Moreover, it is unquestionably one of the best treatments for dandruff—for preventing it, and for overcoming it once it has started.

Many hundreds of women have told us that since making Listerine a part of the weekly shampoo, their scalp feels better, their hair looks more attractive, and they are never troubled with dandruff.

Of course, if dandruff does get a start, it will be necessary to repeat the Listerine treatment systematically for several days, using a little olive oil in conjunction with it if the scalp and hair are excessively dry.

Listerine removes and dissolves the dandruff particles and heals and soothes the scalp. Also, if infection is present—and most dermatologists define dandruff as a germ infection—Listerine immediately combats it.

As you know, Listerine kills germs in 15 seconds; even the stubborn Staphylococcus Aureus (pus) and Bacillus Typhosus (typhoid) yield to it in counts ranging to 200,000,000—yet Listerine is safe to use. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

TEAGUE STARTS GRAPE PROGRAM

Goes to Fresno to Put Plan in Operation

Rehabilitation of Industry Believed Assured

Federal Farm Board Gives Formal Sanction

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30. (Exclusive)—Carrying the approval of the Federal Farm Board to the grape rehabilitation plan which he conceived to save a $350,000,000 industry from ruin, C. C. Teague, California member of the board, left tonight for Fresno to put the plan into operation. Formal sanction of the Federal Farm Board was received today. Anticipating it, Teague had gone over essential final details with members of the California Grape Control Board, the administering organization, spending the greater part of his time in pertinent conferences since last Monday.

Before his departure Teague announced the campaign itself has brought contracts for 431,571 acres, which is 85.1 per cent of the total commercial acreage in the State devoted to grape production, and 88.1 per cent of the crop for the last five years. This, together with acreage previously signed, brings the total under the co-operative marketing contracts to 89.8 per cent of the 1930 crop forecast made the 1st inst. by the crop representing service of the United States Department of Agriculture and 86.4 per cent of the estimate compiled from figures of growers. Inasmuch as the latter will be assessed their grape-control-board payments on their tonnage figures, it is pointed out unlikely they have exaggerated their computations.

The 1930 crop is estimated at 2,100,000 tons, of which 1,814,000 tons are under contract to the grape-control board. Present commercial producing territory is placed at 517,000 acres.

Teague, in a formal statement, warned grapegrowers not to expect miracles as the machinery of crop handling is put in motion. Existing market and economic conditions throughout the world cannot justify expectations beyond reason, he declared, but he has confidence "undoubted and positive benefits" will accrue from the present year's operation of the plan and each year henceforth.

GLORIA'S WHEREABOUTS MYSTERY TO HUSBAND

NEW YORK, July 30. (Exclusive) Gloria Swanson's husband, the Marquis Henri De La Falaise, back in New York after a two years' absence, does not know where his motion-picture wife is at present, and does not expect to see her or communicate with her on this visit to America. At least so he declared today.

The Marquis, who arrived last night aboard the French liner Ile De France, which also brought Will Hays, the film czar, Georges Carpentier, former heavyweight boxer, en route to Hollywood to play talking-film roles, and Harry K. Thaw, some time "discoverer" of young women film aspirants, would not disclose his mission.

"How should I know where she is?" he said in reply to reporters' interrogations. "I do not know, but I presume she is in Hollywood. I am not interested. I do not expect to be in touch with her this trip."

To a question as to the possibility of their long separation terminating in a divorce, the French nobleman merely shrugged his shoulders and reminded reporters that that had been his only answer to such inquiries for nearly three years.

TURKEY AND PERSIA GET INTO SCRAP

Latter Sends Demand for Indemnity Due to Raids on Kurdish Outlaws

ISTANBUL (Turkey) July 30. (AP) Relations between Turkey and Persia have been disturbed by the Turkish campaign against Kurdish outlaws in the region of Mt. Ararat. An authoritative Angora source today disclosed a demand from Persia that Turkey pay an indemnity for asserted penetration of Persian territory by Turkish forces.

Editorially the official newspaper Milliett says:

"Turkey is determined to defend even at the price of its blood the revolution and the republic which she created at the same price. No political or individual consideration can deviate us from this supreme determination. Those who commit hostile acts against us had better learn thus truth without delay."

ALLY PLAN SUBMITTED TO MEXICO

Army Man Wants Strong Tie With United States, Gigantic Neighbor

MEXICO CITY, July 30. (AP)—Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan today submitted to President Ortiz Rubio a recommendation Mexico take official steps to align itself with the United States in the event of any future war.

Almazan made the report following an extended trip through the United States, in which he said he had become convinced "that in the event of any conflict whatsoever in which our gigantic neighbor may become involved, Mexico should without vacillation . . . place itself on the side of the United States.

This, he said, "is the only way of lessening danger to our own nation and subsequently obtaining advantages ourselves."

Road Builds Refrigerated Passenger Car

CHICAGO, July 30. (Exclusive)—Transcontinental railroad travelers are promised relief from the discomforts of summer heat, particularly in crossing the western desert areas, with the exhibition here today by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company of a newly developed refrigerated air-cooled passenger car. The car will be placed in service on the Chief, crack train of the Santa Fe, between Chicago and Los Angeles.

By the devices employed, outside air is taken through a special screen, washed and cooled by a system of coils, and circulated throughout the car. The car windows are all closed and the temperature of the car can be reduced, without drafts, to almost any desired degree in comparatively short time.

BENNETT TO SEIZE REINS IN CANADA

Premier-elect Prepares to Carry Out Promise of Unemployment Solution

OTTAWA (Ont.) July 30. (AP)—Premier-elect R. B. Bennett, today prepared to take over control of the Canadian government from the Liberal ministry of MacKenzie King, and carry out the campaign promise he made to deal with unemployment "immediately after the 28th inst."

Several prospective ministers in Premier Bennett's Conservative Cabinet, are not member of Parliament or were defeated in the last election and he is anxious to announce their selection so that those not already members can stand for election.

It appears probable that September 2, next, would be set as by-election day, with results polled seven days later and an extra session of Parliament called into session September 11, to deal with the unemployment problem.

The Conservatives gained one more seat today in official announcement of the election in Long Lake, Sask., of Dr. W. D. Cowan, J. F. Johnson, Liberal, had been conceded the seat on the basis of early returns. With two districts in Quebec still missing, the standing tonight was: Conservatives, 138; Liberals, 85; United Farmers, 10; Liberal-Progressives and Labor, 3 each, and Progressives and Independents, 2 each.

HEM LINES WON'T DROP ANY LOWER

Dress Industries to Resist French Designers' Move to Lengthen Skirts

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—The Associated Dress Industries of America have decreed hem lines in this country in the fall shall remain where they are. The Industrial Council of Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers, Inc., has announced it intends to resist the move of French designers to lengthen skirts.

David N. Mosessohn, executive chairman of the Associated Dress Industries, said:

"There is much misapprehension in the minds of American women as to the importance of Parisian style dictatorship.

"Retailers here who are style-conscious recognize to the full that styles are American created. And they are already completely aware that the newer dresses and gowns on display in authentic showrooms conform to practically the same lengths as those of the past season."

Tahoe Fight May Make Defendant of Government

RENO (Nev.) July 30. (AP)—The United States government may be drawn into the Lake Tahoe water conflict as a defendant along with Nevada ranchers and other interests, it was intimated by attorneys here today.

The dam gates at Lake Tahoe are controlled by the government in its capacity as developer of the Newlands irrigation project at Fallon, and it is the contention here a Federal court decree has already awarded artificially stored water in the lake to the project, now known as the Truckee-Carson irrigation district, and other Nevada interests.

Dist.-Atty. Summerfield of Washoe county, Nevada, which is named as a defendant in the restraining order issued by the California Superior Court at Auburn, said today the county would join with the ranchers in fighting the matter out in Federal courts.

Johnson Again Hits Navy Pact

WASHINGTON, July 30. (Exclusive)—The alacrity with which the British Parliament ratified the navy-limitation treaty, with virtually no opposition as soon as the United States Senate approved it demonstrates to the satisfaction of Senator Johnson, Republican, California, that the British were only too eager all along to seal a bargain perpetuating their control of the seas.

The Senator, who was the leader of the opposition to the treaty in the Senate, expressed this view upon learning that the House of Lords last night completed the approval of the pact by Parliament.

KRISHNAMURTI FILM ROLE RUMORS DENIED

OMMEN (Holland) July 30. (AP)—Theosophists of thirty-four nations including the United States assembled in a rainstorm to hear Jiddu Krishnamurti, young Indian, formerly head of the Order of the Star in the East, at the opening of the seventh annual Star camp. Officials of the camp issued a statement that Krishnamurti does not intend to give up his role of "world teacher" to appear in motion pictures.

Importer Considers Putting Up Shelling Plant

BAKERSFIELD, July 30. (Exclusive)—Experimental peanut test plots in this county have produced yields per acre of six times greater than the yield of the old established peanut-producing regions of the United States, with the result that J. R. Pidwell, one of the leading peanut importers of California, is highly enthusiastic over the prospects of this county and the San Joaquin Valley as one of the great peanut-producing regions of the world.

Pidwell has just concluded a visit of inspection here, going over test plots with L. W. Taylor, farm adviser.

Due to the high tariff now imposed on peanut importations to the United States it has become necessary to produce more goobers within the United States. Pidwell is making a tour of the San Joaquin Valley with a view to the possible establishment of a plant for grading and shelling valley peanuts providing they are produced in sufficient quantity to justify the plant's erection. The peanut plant would be established near the center of greatest production.

Use of peanuts for peanut butter and for oil used in butter substitutes has been increasing steadily. Peanut butter is now a staple food throughout practically all of the United States.

Pidwell told Taylor that it would require at least 5000 acres of peanuts to support a plant. In the Shafter district test plots have produced remarkable results with the Virginia runner, jumbo, Spanish and Manchurian varieties of peanuts, all of which have produced tremendous yields far in advance of production in other peanut-producing regions.

It has been proved that land in this county will produce 3000 pounds of peanuts to the acre, a really tremendous yield, according to the farm adviser.

MACDONALD TARGET OF PARTY PLOT

Younger Socialists Aim at Unseating Premier and Chancellor Snowden

LONDON, July 30. (AP)—A reported movement among younger Socialists of the House of Commons to depose Ramsay MacDonald as Premier and Philip Snowden as Chancellor of the Exchequer is the subject of much talk in Parliamentary circles.

Gossip current in the lobbies says even one or two members of the government are associating themselves with the rebels.

MacDonald and Snowden are said to be well aware of the intrigue, which, if it continues, may be discussed at a meeting of the Labor party.

It has long been known the Premier and some of his colleagues do not go fast enough and far enough to satisfy the more ardent Socialists, who are said to be dissatisfied with Snowden's refusal to sanction certain costly unemployment schemes, and also are demanding immediate disarmament by Great Britain.

The rebel candidate for Premier is reported as Arthur Henderson, the Foreign Minister, who is now ill and apparently is unaware of the proposed honor.

East Has Two Tong Slayings

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Chinatown was surrounded by police tonight and an emergency squad patrolled the streets following the killing of one Chinese and the wounding of another in an apparent renewal of the tong war.

BOSTON, July 30. (AP)—Tong warfare broke out in Boston's Chinatown tonight with the Chinese reverting to their old means of killing, the hatchet. An unidentified Chinese was found slain in dark and narrow Oliver Place. He had been maimed by a hatchet and also had been shot.

CARMEL DOCTOR DIES IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH

CARMEL, July 30. (AP)—Dr. C. H. Lowell of Carmel was killed and his wife injured when their automobile skidded and turned over on the highway near here tonight. Mrs. Lowell was treated at the Carmel Hospital for shock and possible internal injuries. Dr. Lowell came here six years ago from Hollywood. He was formerly a surgeon in the United States Navy.

SENATE RACERS NECK AND NECK

Gore Leading Wrightsman by Nose in Oklahoma

Run-off Election in August Virtually Assured

Pine Unquestioned Choice of Republican Primary

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 30. (AP)—Blind Thomas P. Gore, who emerged after a decade of private life to assail big business and blame financial distress on the Hoover administration, continued tonight to struggle on virtually even terms with Charles J. Wrightsman, wealthy Tulsa oil operator, for the lead for the Democratic Senatorial nomination voted on at yesterday's primary election.

There is every indication that they will be matched August 12 in the run-off primary election.

GORE'S LEAD SLIGHT

Gore, with 40,529 votes, had a lead of 407 over Wrightsman when 1723 of the State's 3338 precincts had been reported. Three former Oklahoma Governors lagged behind in the same race, Henry S. Johnson, an ousted one, running third with 30,355; Lee Cruce fourth with 23,077 and J. B. A. Robertson, avowed wet, fifth with 8551. J. C. Walton, a fourth ex-Governor, also ousted from office, will be in the general election in November as an independent candidate.

Senator W. B. Pine, Republican incumbent, has a lead that apparently relieves him of the necessity of entering the run-off.

FOR GOVERNOR

William H. Murray, self-labeled "commoner," who also carries a pledge of tax reform and relief to drought-shriveled farming communities, has widened his lead in the contest for the Demicratic gubernatorial nomination to nearly 40,000 votes over Frank Buttram, his nearest rival in the field of nine, with nearly two-thirds of the estimated vote of 300,000 counted.

In 2174 precincts Murray had 87,253 votes, and Buttram 48,234. In 906 precincts Ira A. Hill, State Senate party leader, had 17,766 votes, as compared with 10,902 for James Harris of Waggoner, former national committeeman, in their contest for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. Rexford B. Cragg, the third candidate, had 2601 votes. The ratio of Hill's lead indicated his nomination in the first primary.

JUDGE RUSHED OUT OF CITY AFTER SHOOTING

WILBURTON (Okla.) July 30. (AP) J. W. Callahan, county judge of Latimer county, was rushed out of the city today following the probable fatal shooting of Frank Briggs, 18 years of age, son of Claude Briggs, who defeated Callahan for the State Senate in yesterday's primary election.

The shooting followed a conversation between Callahan, who was seated in his car, and young Briggs, who was talking to him from the running-board.

Feeling against Callahan is evident here tonight.

DAWN-MAN'S SKULL FOUND

Second Sinanthropus Discovery in China Said to Have Yielded Valuable Data to Science

PEIPING (China) July 30. (AP)—Discovery of a second Sinanthropus skull was announced by Dr. Davidson Black of the Rockefeller Foundation at a meeting of the Chinese Geological Survey today.

The new specimen, which was pieced together from uncrushed fragments was stated to have yielded valuable information concerning certain parts not represented in the first skull found last December.

Dr. Black said he believed the second skull was that of a young adult male whereas the previous find probably was that of a girl.

Reports last December of the discovery of a new "Peking man" skull by a Chinese geologist working in the quarries near Peiping aroused much interest in scientific circles. At the time it was described as the most complete discovery of its kind in history. The entire brain case was intact, which is not the case in the Piltdown man and other near-dawn discoveries.

Dr. Black, formerly of Toronto, describing the discovery of this first skull, recounted the excavations since 1921 when the first tooth was found of Sinanthropus Pekinensis by Dr. J. G. Anderson, British scientist.

Dr. Black also called attention to the vault of the skull form and the massive brow ridges. This skull was estimated to be more than 1,000,000 years old and to have shown a comparatively large brain capacity.

NEW MARK SET BY BATTLESHIP

New Mexico Wins Efficiency Pennant for Third Time

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 30. (Exclusive)—Establishing a record in the United States Navy, the battleship New Mexico has won for the third year in succession the Navy's most coveted prize, the battle efficiency pennant, known familiarly afloat as the "meat ball." The award was announced today by Secretary of the Navy Adams.

The battle efficiency pennant is presented to the man o' war which makes a higher combined score in gunnery, engineering and communications than any other ship of her class. The competition commences on July 1 of each year.

Manganese Ore Curb Against Russia Wanted

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—A demand for an immediate embargo against importations of Russian manganese ore, made by Chairman Oddie of the Senate Mines Committee, was added today to the growing heap of communications regarding Russian-American trade relations.

The Nevadan, in a letter to Assistant Secretary Lowman of the Treasury, charged the soviet government is "dumping" manganese ore produced with convict, indentured, conscript or forced labor on American markets at a price below the cost of production. He said an embargo is necessary to relieve the crisis this "dumping" already has caused in the American manganese industry.

EARTH SHOCKS HIT CANAL ZONE

People Flee in Panic, but Damage Slight

PANAMA CITY (Panama) July 30. (AP)—Two earthquakes visited the Canal Zone this afternoon, causing consternation in both terminals of the canal, but inflicting, so far as reported late tonight, only trifling damage.

Buildings were shaken and the people, mindful of seismic disasaters in other parts of the world in the last week, fled into the streets.

Official report said the disturbance centered about fifty miles southeast of Balboa, probably between Aguadulce and Penomone, in the interior of the Panama republic.

ANTLERS OPEN SESSIONS TODAY

Junior Elks in Preliminary Banquet at Long Beach

Four-Day Convention will Convene This Morning

State Organization Headed by Norris Rebholtz

PASADENA, July 30.—Antlers from all parts of California hastened into this city by automobile, train and airplane today to be present at the official opening of the organization's annual four-day convention tomorrow at 9 a.m. in the local Elks' clubhouse. The Hotel Constance, convention headquarters, reported this afternoon that eighty delegates had registered.

San Francisco headed the visiting group, with twelve delegates and fifteen visitors. Delegates are apportioned according to the size of the lodge, San Francisco having one of the leading organizations.

Pasadena Lodge, No. 672, is the convention host. Austin Gibson of Glendale, State treasurer, enrolled the delegates.

This afternoon the visitors left in special busses for Long Beach, where a banquet was served tonight at the Breakers Hotel, after which a swimming party was held.

According to Norris Rebholtz, Exalted Antler, the organization which he heads in California is restricted to young men between the ages of 15 and 21 who are interested in promoting good citizenship and good fellowship.

Indications tonight, Rebholtz asserted, are that between 200 and 300 Antlers will attend the convention business sessions.

Antelope Valley Alfalfa May Go to East by Boat

LANCASTER, July 29.—Antelope Valley is now growing about 100,000 tons of alfalfa a year and the product is pronounced by experts as the finest quality raised in the United States. Heretofore shippers have been sending the alfalfa into the Los Angeles market and have received the highest prices for it.

An organization has been formed here and in other parts of Antelope Valley to negotiate with steamship freight lines at Los Angeles Harbor to carry large shipments of the hay into Atlantic seaboard markets via the Panama Canal. So far it has been found out that the alfalfa can be shipped by boat at a profit equal to that received in near-by markets.

The shipping of the hay out of the Los Angeles consuming territory is of double trade value, as it will lessen the supply in this section and thus tend to keep up local demand and the stabilization of home prices. It is believed that when Antelope Valley alfalfa is sent to the East it will bring slightly higher prices because of its superior quality. This added premium, it is stated, will partly if not wholly offset the cost of the ocean freight charges.

The first boatload of the hay to go east will be shipped as an experiment in the matter of freight differential costs. If the experiment is successful it is predicted here that much of the future-grown alfalfa in Antelope Valley will find its way to the high-class dairies and stock farms in New England and the mid-Atlantic States.

Truckman Cited After Collision

UPLAND, July 30.—Ernest Bridenbaugh of North Euclid avenue is slated to appear in local court August 8 on a traffic-violation charge, said to have been the cause of two persons receiving severe injuries, one critical, in a crash involving one truck and two automobiles. Bridenbaugh is asserted to have failed to observe a stop sign at an intersection, while driving a heavily laden truck, north on Euclid avenue. Wilfred Peterson of Swea City, Iowa, accompanied by Mrs. Peterson, was driving to Los Angeles. His car crashed into the rear of Bridenbaugh's truck and swung it into the highway in such a way that a car carrying Mr. and Mrs. Max Moore of San Antonio Heights ran into it from the other side. Mrs. Moore, driver of the automobile, was critically injured. It was feared she received internal chest injuries.

Mr. Moore was not so seriously hurt, but was treated at San Antonio Community Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson and Bridenbaugh were slightly hurt, but did not require hospital attention. Bridenbaugh told officers he did not come to a stop at the intersection because of the heavy load on his truck which made starting the heavy machine difficult. Bridenbaugh was given a citation by Traffic Officer C. S. Lehman.

EDUCATIONAL SURVEY OF COUNTY SOUGHT

LOS ALIMITOS, July 30.—Meeting here last evening for dinner and a review of county problems, the Orange County Associated Chambers of Commerce voted to ask the County Board of Supervisors to have a survey of the county's educational needs made. Delegates from Fullerton opposed the move. The action taken, however, coincides with similar action taken by the Fullerton and the Santa Ana school boards, responsible for the administration of the county's two junior colleges. George Macleod of Newport asked the support of the boosters for the establishment of a patrol to see that oil is not dumped into the ocean in such manner as to pollute the beaches. He said that much damage is being suffered by the county through such pollution.

REDLANDS SETS CHICAGO STYLE

Collegiate Cords Favored by Southland Institution Introduced to Windy City University; Corduroy Club Formed and Members Break Into Print

REDLANDS, July 30.—Colleges and universities of California have in recent years shown the effete East the way in football teams, tracks teams, rowing teams and now having educated them in matters of brawn, are sending orators that are rounding out that education in the matters of brains. The end is not yet, and contentment not reached, for the colleges of California are now setting the pace in the matter of styles for the campus, witness what has just happened in Chicago.

The Chicago dailies have buried the Lingle case on the inside to discover, on the front page, the vogue corduroy trousers are enjoying on the campus of the University of Chicago. Much "to-do" has been made of the innovation, said papers labeling the young men affecting the corduroys as "he-men," and describing the co-eds as "ecstatic over the adoption of the garb by the horde known as 'the great unwashed.'"

It is a matter of record that the genesis of this vogue on the University of Chicago Campus had its seat in Redlands. It happened in this manner: A student of that institution, one Kent Thayer of Phoenix, formerly of the University of Redlands, communicated with Milton Gair, asking him to ship to Chicago, post haste, one lot of cords.

The order was a poser. It was unbelievable that Chicago, the second city of the nation, was unable to supply such a commonplace garment as a pair of cords. Cognizant of the honor reflected in the order, Gair complied with utmost expedition.

The trousers arrived at their destination, to be doled out to a select few. These few designated themselves as the Corduroy Club, and advanced upon the campus. Great was the wonder thereat. Professors and instructors deigned to smile. Fair co-eds trailed the club unblushingly. Then it made the headlines and members were installed among the nobility. Trouser by trouser the club roster grew until it numbers thirty members.

Today there arrived another order for more cords, to be delivered in time for the opening of school. Radiant athletic lights and intellectual satellites alike clamor for them. And they shall have them. "Amusing, these easterners, or we should say, these Chicagoans," is Gair's comment.

GOV. TAPIA AIDS JOBLESS

Baja California Chief Executive Pledges 15 Per Cent of Salary Toward Move to Provide Work

MEXICALI, July 30.—That unemployment among Mexican people on the Lower California Peninsula has become a serious problem, was indicated here yesterday when Gov. Jose M. Tapia, at a conference of agricultural and industrial leaders, announced that he would contribute 15 per cent of his monthly salary to a fund to relieve the situation. He called upon other public officials to put 8 per cent of their own salaries into the fund.

This money, together with funds received from private sources, is to be used to finance a road-building and wood-cutting program. It was stated that the Colorado River Land Company, owner of 832,000 acres in Lower California, has given permission for Mexican workers to cut firewood from the Colorado River bottom lands on its ranch. The fund will be partially reimbursed through the sale of this wood next winter. As a result of yesterday's conference, it was stated that 600 men would be put to work next Monday and an additional 400 the following week.

The Governor stated that the critical labor situation will continue only until September, when the cotton harvest will be started. Cotton growing is the main industry in this part of Lower California, and the low market price of staple with resulting decrease in acreage, is blamed for the unusually large number of unemployed workers this summer.

A majority of these laborers are barred by immigration laws from entering the United States, and the peninsula is so completely isolated from the mainland that it is not considered practicable to transport the laborers to other parts of the republic.

LEGION MEN CONVENE AT VALLEY CITY

More than 1000 Members of Twentieth District Gather at Owensmouth

OWENSMOUTH, July 30.—One of the largest gatherings ever assembled here took place last night in the Madrid Theater, when 1000 members of the nineteen posts of the twentieth district of the American Legion met in convention. The meeting, which was the last one for the district before the State convention is conducted at Sacramento, was under the direction of Wright Hubbard of Owensmouth, the present Commander. A score of important matters in connection with the coming State convention were discussed and plans were made by several hundred members to attend.

Among the honor guests present were Clarence L. Kincaid, State Commander; Robert McCurdy of Pasadena, Department Vice-Commander and Commander the fourth area, and leading members and commanders and vice-commanders of the various posts of the district.

In the parade that preceded the business session and which marched over the principal local streets were drum and bugle corps from Hollywood, Beverly Hills, North Hollywood, Burbank and Glendale. Van Nuys, North Hollywood and San Fernando posts were present and took part in the business proceedings with a full membership from each organization.

For a week preceding the meeting Clyde McClellan, Commander of the Owensmouth post, and his committee co-operated with Owensmouth residents to make the convention a gala affair, with the result that the typical welcome was given and most of the principal streets were decorated with banners and colored streamers. During the afternoon thousands of motorists from all over San Fernando Valley drove to Owensmouth, adding largely to the crowds on the streets.

State to Aid in Road Work

VENTURA, July 30.—Within four weeks, according to S. V. Cortelyou, district engineer for the State Highway Commission, work will begin on cutting back the sharp corners of the Conejo grade. A big steam shovel which was in use on the Ridge Route, he said, has been sent to Pt. Mugu to clear away the debris from a recent rock slide. As soon as that task is completed it will be taken to the Ventura-Hollywood highway to do a large amount of work, improving the Conejo climb that is now regarded as the only bad bit of road between here and Los Angeles.

The El Rio cut-off project, Cortelyou said, is now in the hands of Sacramento authorities who are negotiating with the Southern Pacific Railway regarding the separation of grades.

VAN NUYS BUSINESS WOMEN PLAN CLUB

VAN NUYS, July 30.—A plan has been started to organize a woman's luncheon club here, members to come from the number of women engaged in business or professional work. The club, it is stated, will be fashioned after the local Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, and C. C. Bowerman, manager of the Van Nuys branch of the Security-First National Bank, will aid charter members in perfecting organization. It has not yet been decided whether the club will meet daily or once a week.

Bids Asked for on Two Units of Valley Sewers

RESEDA, July 30.—Another step in the proceedings for the completion of the San Fernando outfall sewer line is taken today in the order issued by the Board of Public Works for the advertising for bids to be received until August 13, next, on two trunk line sections.

The new units specified are from Kester avenue and Burbank Boulevard in the Van Nuys district to Hayvenhurst avenue and Oxnard street and from the latter intersection to White Oak avenue and Vanowen street in the Eastern Reseda district. Engineers have estimated the cost of the first section at $220,000 and the second section at $200,000. When all bids are in the City Engineer will check the figures and report to the Los Angeles City Council.

Before the long line is completed it will be carried into the Owensmouth district west of here in the western end of the valley.

Car Smashed in Collision

GLENDALE, July 30.—Crashing into the rear of a six-wheeled truck as it attempted to make a turn into a yard at 110 North San Fernando Road, Alfred M. Sebits, 1021 Linden avenue, last night received injuries that sent him to the emergency hospital with a possible skull fracture and numerous cuts and bruises.

The truck, driven by Pike Gaines, 324 Orchard street, El Monte, was turning into the yard, and, according to witnesses, as it swung around the tail lights at the rear were obscured for motorists traveling northward. Sebits struck the truck head on in the darkness, lost control of has car and plunged across the street, where the machine crashed into a pole and was wrecked.

AGED WOMAN BREAKS HER ELBOW IN FALL

LAGUNA BEACH, July 30.—Mrs. Anna Swartz, 84-year-old pioneer resident of Tustin, slipped and fell as she stepped on to the walk here this afternoon, fracturing her right elbow. Dr. B. B. Mason and V. P. Carroll attended to the woman's injuries at the Laguna Hospital. Tom McFadden took Mrs. Swartz to her home. She was visiting Mrs. Abe Johnson, wife of the Chief of Police here.

FIESTA HOSTESS ANNOUNCED

Senorita Celia Gamez, descendant of one of California's early Spanish families, will be one of the hostesses at the Old Spanish Days Fiesta at Santa Barbara, on August 7, 8 and 9. This charming senorita is one of several, scions of the best blood of the days of the dons, who will function during the annual event, rich in glamour and romance of the old regime, which will feature impressive parades, gorgeous fetes and pageantry.

San Diego Will License Bantam Golf Courses

SAN DIEGO, July 30.—Miniature golf courses are springing up so fast that the City Council practically has decided to place them under police control. This is to be done by license. At present no less than 100 courses are in operation or are being built, both in the city and at the seaside centers, according to records of the city building department.

The matter of license has been under consideration by the Council for several weeks and action awaited a recommendation from Chief License Inspector E. F. Forbes, who reported today that $15 per quarter, would be acceptable to his department, which also has the recommendation of City Treasurer Jack Millan, it was stated to the Council. In addition to licensing the tiny golf courses the Council proposes that they shall be operated under sanitary conditions. The Health Department has issued orders that all plants now in operation must provide lavatories and comfort stations for both sexes and that these must be properly sewered and kept clean.

Redondo Beach Bond Issue Lost

REDONDO BEACH, July 30.—A bond issue of $30,000 for the construction of an extension to the city pier was voted down in a special election here yesterday, lacking the required two-thirds by a margin of fifty-nine votes. The total vote stood 1177 in favor of the issue and 676 opposing it.

Review of the vote by precincts showed the required majority in practically all sections within the original city boundaries, counterbalanced by a heavy opposition vote in the recently annexed Redondo Villa Tract. Vote in the tract stood almost four to one against the proposal. A movement now under way in the tract to secede from the city is credited with the attitude in yesterday's election, according to city officials.

BURIED STILL GETS RANCHER IN TROUBLE

BLYTHE, July 30.—Theodore Chavarria will bury no more stills, he said today in Justice Court. Chavarria was charged with possession of a still. Officer H. G. Munger, looking around the ranch for stolen goods, found coils, coolers and other distillery apparatus, but no boiler. After persuasion Chavarria dug up a twenty-gallon copper tank. He said that it had been buried for eighteen months. He told the court that when he moved on the ranch he found the still and not wishing to be caught with such unlawful apparatus, he buried the boiler. However, he said also that he did not know what a still was for, and Judge Beedy decided to refer him to Superior Court on a felony charge and asked him for $500 bail.

MENTONE ELK BACK FROM ATLANTIC CITY

MENTONE, July 30.—Dr. A. R. Schultz, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks' Lodge, returned today from Atlantic City where he attended the Elks' annual convention. He said it was the most successful convention ever held with important business transacted at every session. Atlantic City, he declared, was an ideal place to hold the convention because of the hotel and auditorium facilities there. The weather in the East was terrible, Dr. Schultz says. It has been so hot that streams are drying up, farmers are being forced to haul water to their cattle and crops are being ruined.

Three Boys Held as Suspects in Auto Stealing

GLENDALE, July 30.—Three asserted boy bandits, who are said to have made their headquarters here for some time, were turned over today to various authorities to face charges of State or Federal officers.

Harold A. Johnson, 19 years of age, of Toledo, was taken over by Riverside authorities after, it is asserted, he had confessed to the burglary of a store at Corona. George Kruger, 18, and John W. Gartee, 19, both of Toledo, are also said to have confessed to Detective Lieutenant Charles P. Blake the theft of three automobiles while en route from Ohio to Glendale. They were turned over to Federal officers to face charges of violating the Dyer Act.

Kruger and Gartee are reported to have admitted stealing a sedan in Toledo, a coupe in Bakersfield and another coupe in Fullerton. When the cars broke down they abandoned them, they confessed to Blake, except the car stolen in Fullerton, which was found in Johnson's possession when they were arrested by Blake and Detectives Merrill, Mitterling and Wright.

Inquest Fails to Fix Blame

RIVERSIDE, July 30.—A Coroner's jury which this morning heard testimony regarding the automobile crash which yesterday caused the death of Charles A. Walters, 60 years of age, of Robertson avenue, failed to fix responsibility for the fatality.

Walters, who leaves a wife and seven children, died in an ambulance en route to the hospital. His light coupe, traveling south on Pedley Road toward Arlington, collided with a heavy sedan being driven easterly along Jurupa avenue by Miss Beth McDavid, who is visiting here from an eastern State.

Two other women and three children, all riding in the sedan, miraculously escaped death when the car left the highway and turned over two or three times in a field. The sedan belonged to Ralph Fernlund of Rosemead. Miss McDavid is Mrs. Fernlund's sister. Mrs. Fernlund and her two children, Neola, 3, and Edwin, 1 were in the car, with Mrs. Gladys Pearson of Sparland and her son Kenneth, 1.

VALLEY NATIVE SONS ELECT PHELPS GATES

VAN NUYS, July 30.—H. Phelps Gates of Van Nuys was elected president of Cahuenga Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, at the annual meeting held in Alton Hall in Reseda. The meeting was attended by members from every community in San Fernando Valley. H. C. Trexler, J. R. Grant, Jr., and W. G. Ybarra were elected vice-presidents.

Other officers are L. E. Hadley, Jesse Richardson, H. P. Runnells, Louis P. Barenchi, E. R. Boyce, Daniel Poyer, Walter Penland, E. T. Ruiz, P. S. Hall and C. T. Driscoll. There are more than 900 native-born men in San Fernando Valley, a large part of whom are members of the organization which is affiliated with the State association.

CIGARETTE CAUSES FIRE

SOUTH GATE, July 30.—A lighted cigarette falling into clothing in a closet at the home of Glen B. Barber, Pine Place, this city, caused a fire which did about $60 damage. Neighbors saw smoke issuing from the windows at the residence and called the fire department. The members of the family were just returning home. It is said that the cigarette fell into the clothing as one of the members was dressing a few hours before and that it had been unnoticed. The clothes smoldered for a time, filling the house with smoke.

WOMEN KEEP COOL IN ARGUMENT

Glendale Matrons Resort to Garden Hose as Means of Settling Dispute as Well as Dust; Police Don Slickers and Hip Boots to Intervene

GLENDALE, July 30.—Maybe it was the culmination of several days of asserted argument over some neighborhood issue or perhaps it was only because of their desire to seek some relief from the growing summer heat that prompted Mrs. Raymond W. Lee of 574 West Stocker street and Mrs. Albert L. Foster, 580 West Stocker street, to turn their garden hoses on one another this morning.

Accounts given to the police failed to clear up the identity of the one who first started the battle of the hose, but by the time the officers arrived the contestants were operating in a ring of interested spectators who were allowing them plenty of room for their aquatic battle.

The war raged unchecked until the police had dispatched their car back to headquarters for their slickers and southwesters and hip boots, when the shock troops went into action and brought hostilities to a close.

HE WOULDN'T DO IT AGAIN

Glendale Man Tosses Gunny Sack Around Garage; Finds it Filled with Dynamite; Police Investigate

GLENDALE, July 30.—H. K. Hood was whistling merrily last night as he cleaned out the garage at the house he recently occupied at 1944 Glenwood Road. The whistling continued as he picked up a gunny sack and threw it carelessly to one side. But when he heard the thump with which it lit on the concrete he started to investigate. Hood's whistling died on his lips when he found five sticks of dynamite wrapped in the sack and realized that he might have been soaring through the night if his good luck had not held when he dropped the five sticks on the garage floor.

Detective Sergeant Browne and Detective Wright, who answered Hood's call for help, declared that a few feet longer throw would probably have set off the explosive and wrecked the neighborhood.

Police are investigating the case to endeavor to determine if a bomber is operating in the city. Hood declared that he has no enemies who would attempt to blow him up and J. T. Osteen, 1166 Elm street, who occupied the Linden-avenue house before Todd moved in, also expressed his ignorance of anything that would lead to the planting of the dynamite.

Termites and Wind Bring Tree to Fatal Crash

SAN DIEGO, July 30.—With termites and a gust of wind blamed definitely for the weakening of the plaza palm tree which fell on Miss Dorothy Edwards, 19 years of age, causing her death, an examination was to be made of all other trees in the plaza today to see if they have been attacked by the wood-eaters. If such is found to be the case all the trees, famous all over the country, will be removed, Park Superintendent J. G. Morley stated today.

Morley stated an examination showed conclusively that termites had weakened the death tree to the point where a small gust of wind was all that was necessary to blow off its top. "The trees were trimmed about a month ago," said Morley, "and at that time nothing out of the way was observed and the trees appeared to be in good shape. It is the first time I have known termites to attack the head of the tree first. They generally start lower down.

"If termites are found in the other trees, they will have to come down. Of course we'll put in other trees to take their places if replacement becomes necessary."

GAMMON FUNERAL TO BE CONDUCTED TODAY

VAN NUYS, July 30.—Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the South Park Baptist Church, Los Angeles, for Chester M. Gammon, 46 years of age, former well-known Van Nuys resident and business man, who died at his home on South Park avenue. Rev. J. C. Carmichael, former pastor of the Van Nuys Baptist Church, will assist the pastor of the South Park church at the services. Gammon founded the Van Nuys Cannery and for some time was general manager of the plant. While a resident here he was superintendent of the Baptist Church Sunday-school. For the last four years he had been superintendent and general manager of the Sanitary Canning Company at Los Angeles. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Kate Gammon. Interment will be at Forest Lawn, Glendale.

SIMS MUST ANSWER TO MURDER CHARGE

BLYTHE, July 30.—George Sims, asserted slayer of James Mendheim, was bound over to Superior Court and held to answer to a charge of murder at a preliminary hearing before Justice W. L. Beedy here today. Dist.-Atty. Albert Ford made the trip from Riverside to prosecute at the hearing. Mendheim was killed the 19th inst. with a shotgun and was shot in the back after he had climbed in his car to drive away, according to the testimony brought out. The altercation was over a woman, Mrs. Millie Waggoner, who had been living with Mendheim, it was testified.

MARLIN SWORDFISH CAUGHT AT NEWPORT

NEWPORT BEACH, July 30.—A 175-pound marlin swordfish, the first caught this season, was captured after a desperate fight lasting an hour and a half. William Starkweather, sporting goods dealer of Riverside, fishing from R. L. Alabaster's yacht, was the angler. One strange coincidence enters this true fish story. When Jimmie Stephenson captured the first marlin last year, Starkweather and Alabaster were eyewitnesses and yesterday Stephenson and Alabaster witnessed Starkweather's battle. At the time, a longnosed swordfish was captured early this season, a marlin was discovered near by.

GRAND JURY MAY SIFT MILK ROW

San Diego District Attorney to Study Transcript of Charges Against Official

SAN DIEGO, July 30.—Investigation of local dairy conditions by the grand jury and a move to seek removal of Alex Lesem as city-county health officer, as a result of disclosures and statements made today and yesterday in Superior Court regarding wholesale distribution of Imperial Valley products asserted to be "unfit for use," loomed today when Dist.-Atty. Stephen Connell took cognizance of the charges. The statement of Thomas Hester, Jr., that "all dairies in town get the assertedly objectionable product from valley dairies described by Lesem as extremely unsanitary," led to the District Attorney's announcing a transcript of all testimony in the Hester-Lesem cream controversy will be studied with a view to referring the whole matter to the grand jury.

"If this situation is true it is a matter of the gravest import and should be brought before the grand jury at the earliest possible time," the District Attorney said when asked if he had issued the order for a transcript.

"This section," he continued, "has long prided itself on the purity of its food products generally and milk products particularly and if a bad condition has come into being it should be promptly corrected and responsible persons, whether officials or others, punished."

While the District Attorney is preparing for grand jury investigation, Hester and his counsel, Attorney Dean Sherry, announced they are contemplating action to have Lesem removed as being arbitrary and discriminatory.

MORE PARALYSIS IN JULY THAN IN JUNE

HUNTINGTON PARK, July 30.—Although this month has shown more cases of infantile paralysis in this district than the entire month of June, there is no cause for alarm, according to Dr. George Malkin, health center officer, who states that July has shown eighteen cases, as compared with seven in June. Of this number eleven were in South Gate, six in Huntington Park and one in Maywood, while the city of Bell escaped without a case. The number of cases during the month has reached twenty-five, the others being scattered in unincorporated territory throughout the district. Dr. Malkin states that the peak of the disease, according to past history, is either in July or August.

WOMAN SMOKES IN MOUNTAINS, FINED

REDLANDS, July 30.—Judge C. G. Potter had a new one in his court today, a woman who had been arrested for smoking in the mountains. It was Mrs. F. E. Stoddard of Los Angeles, arrested by a ranger in Mill Creek Canyon and charged not only with smoking a cigarette but with flipping the same out of the car window after she had finished. Mrs. Stoddard said she had entirely forgotten there was such a law, although she had seen the signs, but the warning just didn't register. She was fined $50 and paid the fine. Wilson Niebecker, also of Los Angeles, arrested in Mill Creek Canyon Sunday for smoking, was fined $50.

VETERANS' BUILDING SOUGHT BY PETITION

INGLEWOOD, July 30.—A petition signed by 3300 local residents was presented to the City Council last night by veterans of all wars seeking to have the city provide and maintain a building for the use of patriotic, fraternal and benevolent associations of veteran soldiers, sailors and marines of all wars. Cost of the proposed building and its maintenance is contemeplated to be met through the levy of a special tax of not to exceed 3 mills on each dollar of assessed valuation, and its erection is sought under the provisions of Section 4408-A of the Political Code of the State of California. The petition was referred to City Engineer Willis S. Peffer for a check-up to eliminate any duplications.

ALICE TO WAGE FIGHT FOR RUTH

Mrs. McCormick to Get Aid of Mrs. Longworth

Wife of Speaker Denies She Will Take Stump

Friendship Dates Back to Roosevelt Regime

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—The political genius of Alice Roosevelt Longworth will have to be reckoned with in the Illinois Senatorial combat this fall, for Teddy Roosevelt's daughter will be more than a spectator in the battle between Ruth Hanna McCormick and J. Hamilton Lewis.

Mrs. Longworth, now in Jamestown, R. I., said she probably would be in Illinois before the November election. So active had Mrs. Longworth been already behind the stage of her friend's campaign it was rumored in the capital she would take the stump for Mrs. McCormick toward the close of the contest. Though she denied this definitely, she is expected to sit in on the councils of war.

ROOSEVELT SPIRIT

Her presence in the McCormick camp will signalize the Roosevelt spirit is in active fighting mood.

The two women's association dates unbroken back to the Roosevelt regime, when the then "Princess" Alice and young Ruth Hanna played croquet on the White House lawns. They were girlhood chums. After the Roosevelts left the mansion, and the Hanna family returned to Ohio, the friendship was kept alive by frequent visits.

FRIENDS AT CAPITAL

The widow of Medill McCormick and the wife of Speaker of the House have been abroad together; they were to be seen togther in the galleries of Congress and at social gatherings here throughout the late Senator McCormick's term.

It is said frequently Mrs. Longworth was a potent influence in Mrs. McCormick's decision to make the Senate race.

CANCER TIME CYCLE TOLD

English Scientist Finds Disease Develops Most Readily Around 50-Years-of-Age Mark

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—A curious time element in cancer is described by Sir George Lenthal Cheatle, British cancer authority, and chief surgeon of King's College Hospital in London. He is here en route to the British Medical Association meeting in Winnipeg next month.

There is one time zone when previously harmless stages of growths are likely to become cancer rather suddenly. This zone is in the same relative period of life for both men and animals.

"It suggests," Sir Lenthal said, "that either some fresh but as yet unknown factor or agent may enter the body just at the critical time and cause cancer, or that the different parts of the whole cycle form a continuous process, and one part passes naturally from one stage to the final catastrophe of cancer.

"A very good illustration is the breast trouble named Schimmelbusch's disease. This starts as a cystic condition of a special type and causes an enlargement or enlargements in the breast and gives rise to a state that is certainly not cancer. The cells lining true cysts may alter in type and form a tumor which is not cancer. It may remain harmless always, but it may become cancer. There is distinct evidence at least 20 per cent of all cases of cancer begin in this way.

"The first stage is most prevalent from the late twenties to the thirties. The second stage takes form in the late thirties and early forties. The change into cancer occurs in the late forties and early fifty years of life.

"It is a curious thing that the changes which become skin cancer in tar-painted mice and those which become skin cancer in men who work in tar follow a schedule quite similar to these breast cancers in Schimmelbusch's disease. The tar workers have the twenty-thirty and the thirty-forty-year stages that precede cancer in the forty-fifty-year period of their lives. The mice develop cancer in about six months at a third stage relatively similar to that of men.

"It is curious that the changes should come with such regularity, the mice at six months, the humans in the late forties and early fifties.

"It may be that something fresh gets into the benign stage to turn it into cancer. Some persons seem immune to this change into cancer in the same way that some mice are immune.

"The fresh factor does not seem to be accidental altogether, for if it were it would not be likely to occur with such uniformity of times.

"The whole matter of Schimmelbusch's disease looks like a process of events that occur in definite sequence, the incidence of each one depending upon immediate predecessors. The time occupied by the changes may vary in different people, but, speaking generally, the ages occupied by the stages are as stated.

"Whether all cancers follow this sequence of events is an unsettled problem. They may truly follow this rule and some stages may pass so rapidly they could be missed easily by microscopic examination."

New Suits Filed Under Patents for Talk Films

WILMINGTON (Del.) July 30. (AP) General Talking Pictures, Inc., and DeForest Phonofilms, Inc., today filed two patent infringement suits in Federal court against R.C.A. Photophone, Inc., and Radio Pictures, Inc., asserting infringement of DeForest and Reis patents.

It is stated the plaintiffs are proceeding on the strength of a favorable decision given by the court last month in the plaintiff's patent infringement suit against the Stanley Company of America, which involved the same patents. The patents deal with reproduction of talking motion pictures.

GASOLINE TAX SETS RECORD

Total for Second Quarter $10,327,742.78

Daily Average for State Put at $113,491.68

Figures Also Disclose Effect of Price War

SACRAMENTO, July 30. (AP)—Exceeding all previous totals, California's gasoline taxes for the second quarter of this year amounted to $10,327,742.78, an average of $113,491.68 a day, R. E. Collins, Redding, chairman of the State Board of Equalization, announced here today. The taxes gained 16.32 per cent over the corresponding period in 1929.

Effects of the gasoline price "war" fought early in July are seen by Collins in the trend of tax figures for the quarter. Analysis of the assessment roll shows, contrary to previous experience, gasoline distributions of most of the smaller companies are diminishing.

"During the second quarter of this year," Collins says, "the nine largest companies were assessed for 86 per cent of the tax, as contrasted with 80 per cent the first three months. Apparently they have been using more of their own production and buying less gasoline tax-paid from others.

"This change in the trend of gasoline distribution seems to have made itself felt in the industry's price structure, which became subject to drastic cuts until former levels were restored about July 12. Undoubtedly the effects also will be noticeable in the assessments for the current quarter."

The board's report on gasoline sales shows twenty-two companies distributed 1,000,000 gallons or more each during the quarter.

Se Encuentra el Cuerpo de un Aviador en las Maniguas de Burma

LONDRES, Julio 30.—Dicen noticias de Rangoon que el cuerpo del aviador inglés Eric Hook ha sido hallado en las tierras salvajes de Burma por una expedición del London Daily Mail.

Con todo, su joven esposa se resiste a creer que haya muerto, y se basa su esperanza en una información no confirmada del 19 del actual. Según dicha noticia, Hook estaba vivo y al cuidado de unos campesinos.

Hook y James Matthews iban en una tentativa de vuelo entre Inglaterra y Australia, cuando se vieron obligados a bajar en el desierto. Matthews procuró hallar salida, en tanto que Hook estaba imposibilitado para viajar. Matthews logró al fin llegar a lugar seguro.

PISA (Italia), Julio 30.—La princesa Giovanna, de 22 años, hija del rey de Italia, ha sido muy bien adiestrada como enfermera por la Cruz Roja, según puede acreditarlo Danta Morani, soldado de artillería. Despedido éste por su caballo, se hallaba todo ensangrentado en la carretera cuando la princesa acertó a pasar junto a él en su automóvil. Le ventó sus heridas, lo metió en su coche, y ordenó al chófer que acelerara la velocidad para conducir al herido a un hospital.

Alice Roosevelt Romperá Lanzas por Ruth McCormick

WASHINGTON, Julio 30.—Va a tener que contarse con el genio político de Alice Roosevelt Longworth en la campaña senatorial de Illinois el próximo otoño, pues la hija de Teddy Roosevelt no va a contentarse con ser espectadora en la lucha electoral entre Ruth Hanna McCormick y J. Hamilton Lewis.

La señora Longworth, que ahora se halla en Jamestown (Rhode Island), dijo que probablemente estaría en Illinois antes de las elecciones de Noviembre. Tan activa había estado la señora Longworth entre bastidores en la campaña de su amiga, que se rumoraba en la capital que iba a perorar en favor de la señora McCormick en las postrimerías de la lucha. Esto lo ha desmentido ella de modo categórico; pero tiénese entendido que tomará parte en los consejos de guerra.

Pronto Contará la Armada con sus Vistas Fotofónicas

WASHINGTON, Julio 30.—Para cuando se inicie el nuevo crucero de invierno podrán ya nuestros marinos disfrutar a bordo de las cintas habladas, como si se hallaran en tierra.

Ciertos difíciles problemas que hubo que resolver en los barcos ocasionaron la demora que ha habido en la instalación de la pantalla hablada a bordo. Hubo que idear nuevo equipo a propósito; pero ya está proyectado, y el ministerio de Marina espera poder otorgar los contratos relativos para Agosto. La nueva maquinaria va a costar unos $500,000.

Antes de la popularidad del cine sonoro, las 600 películas mudas que se producían anualmente daban a la Armada amplio material donde elegir. Pero la impresión de cintas mudas ha bajado tanto, que sólo saldrán a luz unos 60 el año actual. El equipo para películas habladas será instalado en 200 buques de guerra.

Aprehendidos por Sospechosos en el Robo de una Tienda

Después de haber sido perseguidos a lo largo de doce manzanas, Walter N. Schoenhofer, de 19 años, habitante en el 205 de la calle Noventa y Seis Oeste, y Jimmie L. Bowles, de 18, residente en el 9318 de la calle Main Sur, fueron aprehendidos ayer temprano por los guardias Seagraves y Dixon, como presuntos reos de robo con fractura.

Los citados jóvenes, según dicen los guardias, rompieron una luna de escaparate en el Mercado S. y W., calle de Figueroa Sur, 9820, y se robaron media docena de botellas de agua gaseosa. Durante la persecución, las arrojaron al suelo desde su coche, según dice la policía. Los sospechosos niegan haber roto el vidrio.

"Entonces, vamos cortando mi trenza, y usaré luego vestidos de muchacho y seré muchacho", exclamó Rosa. ¿Y qué creeréis que hizo? Cogió al día siguiente unas tijeras, y ris, ras, abajo fue a dar su larga y prieta trenza de rubio cabello; hecho lo cual, se puso los anchos pantalones azules de su hermano, que le llegaban hasta el tobillo, y una blusa, y nadie en el mundo hubiera sospechado que no era un robusto muchacho de doce años ("Then let's cut off my braid, and I will wear boy's clothes and be a boy", cried Rosa. Then what do you suppose? The next day she took a pair of shears, and clip, clip, off came her long, tight braid of yellow hair; after this, she put on her brother's loose blue trousers, that hung down to her ankles, and a blouse, and nobody in the world would ever have guessed that she wasn't a sturdy twelve-year-old boy).

Indigestion
Immediate Relief!

What most people call indigestion is usually excess acid in the stomach. The food has soured. The instant remedy is an alkali which neutralizes acids. But don't use crude helps. Use what your doctor would advise.

The best help is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. For the 50 years since its invention it has remained standard with physicians. You will find nothing else so quick in its effect, so harmless, or efficient.

One tasteless spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The results are immediate, with no bad after-effects. Once you learn this fact, you will never deal with excess acid in the crude ways. Go learn—now—why this method is supreme.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle — any drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—[Advertisement.

BOX BILL PLANK MIGHTY SHAKY

Defeat of Texan Presages Woe for Other Backers

Harris and Albert Johnson Fighting Desperately

If They Lose, Quota Plan to be Distinctly Passe

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 30. (Exclusive)—Following the defeat of Representative Box for renomination in the Second District of Texas, reports received in political quarters here today indicated that the other two leaders in the Mexican exclusion movement in Congress are in serious danger of following him into retirement.

Advices from Georgia are to the effect that Senator Harris, co-author with Box of the bill passed last session by the Senate and now pending before the House placing Mexico under the immigration quota act is conducting what appears to be a losing fight against his Democratic primary opponent, former Gov. Slaton. At the same time word comes from the Third District of Washington that Representative Johnson, chairman of the House Immigration Committee and the third figure in the Congressional anti-Mexican triumvirate is in a desperate fight for renomination with the chances that he will pull through anything but rosy.

DENT IN MOVEMENT

Box's defeat alone will serve to put a sizeable dent in the ardor of the exclusionists, but if Harris and Johnson also are turned out of office by the voters it is certain that the restriction movement will lose much of its attraction and not be of the issue in the next few years it has been in the last four or five. For the politicians at the Capitol do not care for issues which fail to prove their value at the polls.

Box was defeated by more than 6000 votes. His victorious opponent is Martin Dies, Jr., son of a former member of Congress now dead. The Mexican question, according to reports, aroused little interest in the campaign and Box is declared to have suffered keenly because his efforts to erect an immigration barrier on the southern border were not better appreciated by his constituents.

HARRIS HAS TROUBLE

Senator Harris is reported to be experiencing disappointment along the same line because the Mexican issue has failed greatly to excite his State. He strove mightily to get his exclusion bill through the Senate so he would have what he thought would be a winning issue in the heart of the Ku Klux belt but found himself compelled to pick out some other talking point. He saw his chance to grab another issue by opposing the London naval treaty in the special session of the Senate and he now is stumping his State slaying internationalism and "foreign entanglements." He still is using Mexican restriction as a side line, with full emphasis on the religious phase, but Georgia newspaper reports do not indicate a very enthusiastic response.

Harris's opponents are prepared to show up the insincerity of the Mexican exclusion drive with facts and figures demonstrating that the State Department by its tightening up on visa regulations has reduced Mexican immigration to such a degree that the proposed quota law is wholly unnecessary and would have as its only possible result the wounding of Mexican pride with probable disastrous effects on our trade relations.

LIGHT ON QUESTION

Mr. Dies very unfeelingly put the question in its proper light before the voters in Box's district in Texas and undoubtedly Representative Johnson's enemies in Washington are similarly prepared to discuss the so-called Mexican problem for what it really is—a purely political attempt to get votes by prejudicing the people over a false issue. The Washington primary comes September 9.

Incidentally, it was learned today that the State Department's figures for June will show when released that the number of Mexican immigrants entering the United States during that month was under 350, and that not one of them was of the common-labor type to which the political restrictionists so loudly object. This will be a reduction from 400 entries for May, and shows that the department continues to make headway in its endeavor to curtail Mexican immigration by inoffensive administrative means with the view of forestalling foolish restrictive action by Congress.

BILL FACES BLOCKING

The Harris-Box quota bill has been reported favorably by the House Immigration Committee and now is on the calendar, which will be before the House on its reassembling in December. Administration leaders succeeded in blocking action on the measure in the last few weeks of the last session and there is little question but that they can continue to hold it back in the "short" winter session, which will be devoted mostly to the annual appropriation bills.

In this case, the legislation will die March 4, 1931, and its proponents will have to start their fight all over again in the new Congress with little probability seen that they will again be able to slip the quota proposal through the Senate as they did this last season.

HURLEY GIVEN INDIAN TITLE

Sioux Designate Secretary as "Wkinyapi," Which Means "Faithful"

BISMARCK (N. D.) July 30. (AP)—Another name for Patrick J. Hurley, Secretary of War, is "Wkinyapi."

The name, meaning "faithful," was conferred on the War Secretary yesterday by Sioux Indians at a ceremony in connection with the State convention of the American Legion.

O. L. Bodenhamer, National Commander of the Legion, was named "Marpiya-Kiny Anyapi," which means "flying cloud."

Assailant Fails to Make Escape

MEXICO CITY, July 30. (AP)—Daniel Flores, who attempted to assassinate President Ortiz Rubio at his inauguration last February, tried to escape yesterday when taken to Chapultepec Castle for a talk with the President. He was struck on the head with a rifle and subdued.

When he tried to break away from officers while on the way back to prison he suffered various minor injuries which are not considered serious.

VENERABLE MEXICAN DIPLOMAT EXPIRES

MEXICO CITY, July 30. (AP)—Jose F. Goboy, writer and diplomat, died at his home today. He was 79 years of age.

Senor Goboy represented Mexico in many conferences with the United States prior to 1900, and was secretary of the second Pan-American Conference at Washington in that year. He was first secretary of the Mexican Embassy in Washington, from 1896 to 1903, and was charge d'affaires three times.

After all . . . it is genuine value-giving that counts!

Business . . . big business can be had . . . if you deserve it.

Nothing we might say . . . nothing we might write could tell the story of genuine value-giving as convincingly as the overwhelming response that has greeted this "49th Birthday Celebration" right from the opening day.

No advertisement ever written can even approach the advertising which this sound, desirable fashion-right merchandise is writing for itself in the minds of the shopping public.

The people of Los Angeles are good judges and fair critics. They KNOW merchandise . . . they KNOW real values . . . they well know when The May Company promises a Birthday Celebration presenting many wonderful purchases of new fall merchandise . . . at new low-level prices . . . that

This is the One Buying Opportunity of the Year

Two hundred and forty-nine thousand three hundred and twenty-one customers have already irrefutably proven this fact.

In truth the public's wonderful response . . . the enthusiastic buying of new fall fashions . . . new furniture, new rugs, new things for the home . . . is a barometer of good times . . . is enough to dumbfound the gloomiest of pessimists.

Please remember, for your own best interests that this Birthday Celebration is different . . . decidedly different.

This Is NOT a Clearance . . . Not a Let-go of Old Goods . . . but an Earnest Birthday Good-Will Distribution of Two Million Dollars' Worth Brand-New, Fall-Fashion Merchandise Together with Late Staple Stocks at the Lowest Prices in Years

For you . . . we have taken full buying advantage of lowest commodity market prices in many years. It is our constant study and aim to pass on to customers every possible benefit of current lower prices . . . in improved quality and smarter fashions. It is our aim to serve those who discriminate between clearance or "job lot" merchandise at catch-penny prices . . . and the pick of the world's goods made to a worthy standard . . . at typical May Company prices.

Customers enthusiastically tell us this Birthday Celebration is the best thing The May Company has ever done . . . the most opportune . . . the most helpful to the public. And that is precisely as it should be, for everything is new and good.

Nothing like it before. People who have been here are coming back again and again.

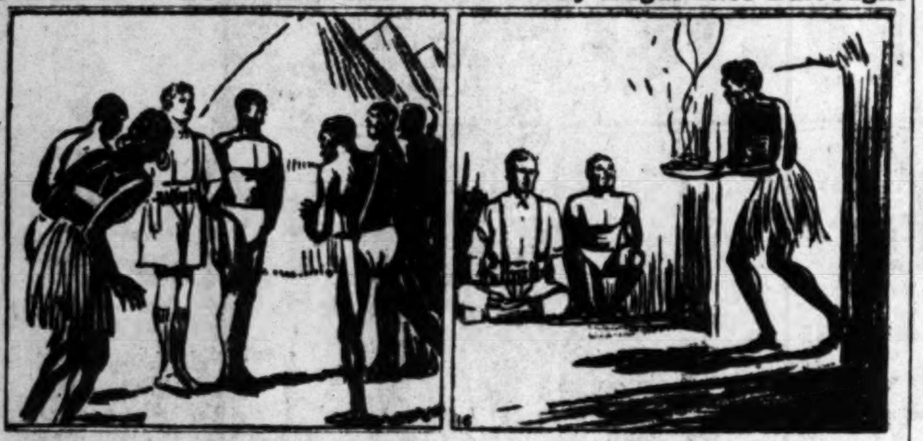
A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

TARZAN AND THE LOST EMPIRE

By Edgar Rice Burroughs



A half hour of paddling along the winding water-lanes brought them to a collection of beehive huts, where von Harben and Gabula became the center of a curious and exicted company of men, women and children. "They are spies from Castra Sanguinarius," their captors explained. "Tomorrow we take them to Castrum Mare."

The prisoners were led to a hut where they were given a supper of fish and snails. When morning dawned, they were brought forth. Their captors were now arrayed in all the finery of necklaces, anklets, bracelets, arm-bands and feathers that each could command. A dozen canoes were waiting.

REX MAXON

Von Harben and Gabula were ordered into the chief's canoe. After hours of paddling, they came to open water. The course of the boats was directed toward two lofty towers. As the canoe came near shore, von Harben looked with amazement upon a group of soldiers at the landing. They were dressed like Caesar's legionaries.

These soldiers were not white men, nor were they negroes, but were of light-brown color with regular features. Presently an officer, unquestionably white, emerged from the gateway. He ordered Gabula confined to the guardhouse, and led von Harben to one of the towers that guarded the rampart.

COME IN, MR. WALLET. I'VE JUST BEEN GOING OVER THEM. CODA'S SECURITIES AND QUICK ASSETS WILL TAKE CARE OF THE MILLION DOLLARS FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS OF ADMINISTRATION.
I AM HOPING IT WILL COVER THE FEDERAL ESTATE TAX WHICH, ON THE TEN MILLION CODA ESTATE AMOUNTS TO $232,700. THAT LEAVES $8,767,300 TO BE DIVIDED BETWEEN SKEEZIX AND MME. OCTAVE.
THAT'S NOT SO BAD.
NO, THAT MAKES SKEEZIX'S TWO THIRDS $5,844,867. BUT ON THIS THE STATE INHERITANCE TAX COMES TO $806,000 MORE. AND ALL THE CASH YOU'RE GETTING IS $300,000 FROM MME. OCTAVE. THE REST IS LAND.
WE TRIED TO GET A BIG ENOUGH CASH ARRANGEMENT WITH OCTAVE TO COVER TAXES BUT COULDN'T DO IT. SO THE BALANCE MUST BE REALIZED OTHERWISE.

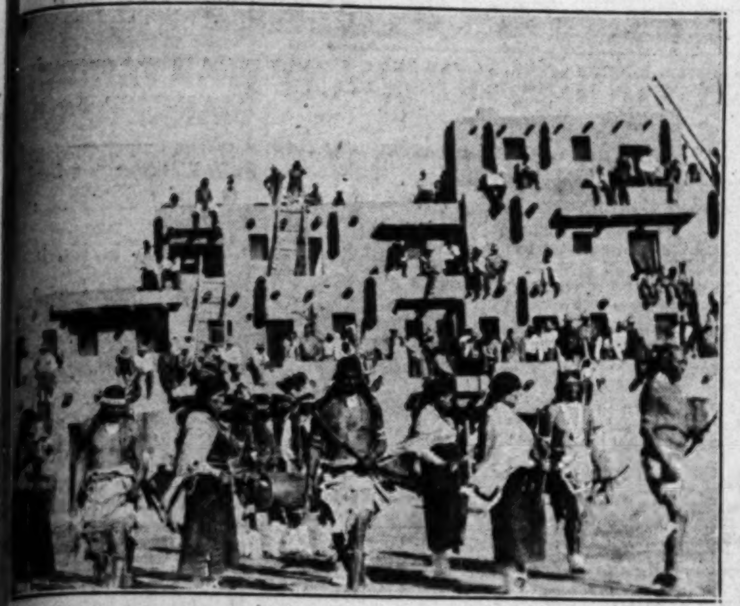
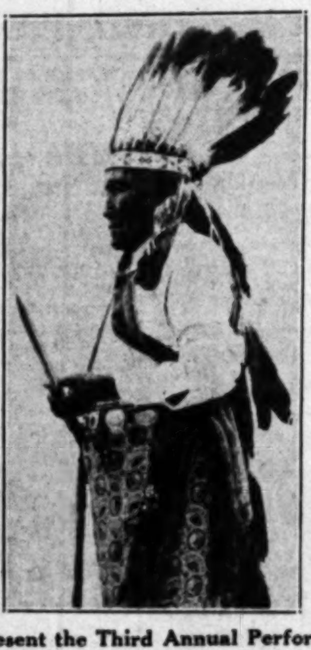
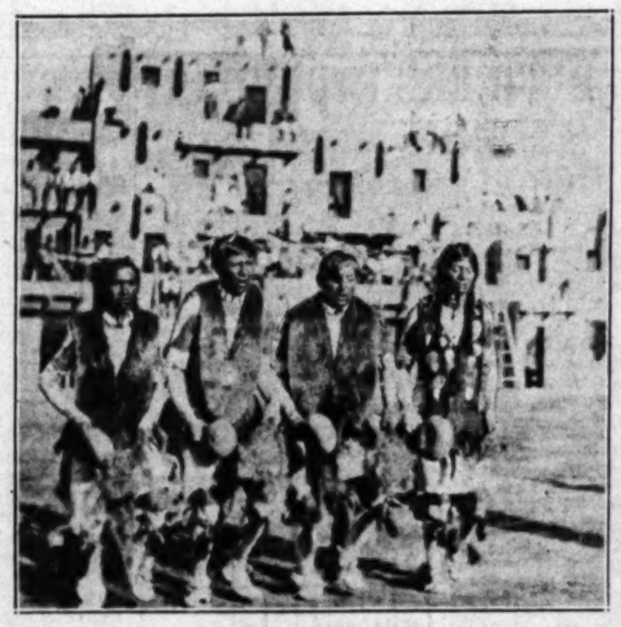
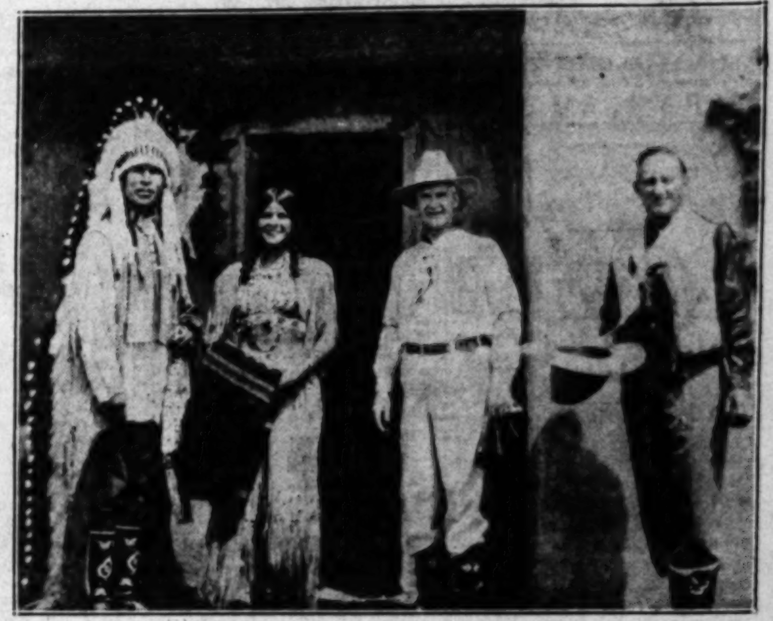
Indians of Southwest to Present Historical Pageant of Dances and Songs









Colorful History of the Pueblos Will be Relived When 5000 Indians Present the Third Annual Performance of the First American. Braves and their families, whose forbears were builders of a civilization in the Southwest before the white man discovered America, will gather in Albuquerque, N. M., to present pageants on August 19, 20, 21 and 22, next. The story of the Pueblo Indians will be unfolded through dances, songs and pageantry with the background of a beautiful pueblo, shown in the photograph at the left with brilliantly garbed dancers in the foreground. They are executing the Buffalo Dance of the Jemez Indians. Next is Chief Chato, last survivor of the band led by the old Apache chief, Geronimo. Chato will lead the Apache War Dance this year. Four braves are shown in the third photograph doing the Turtle Dance of San Ildefonzos. Fourth picture shows, left to right, Chief Yowlache, Yakima, baritone; Miss Lou-scha-neya, "humming bird" of the Chickasaws; Gov. Dillon of New Mexico; Arthur Prager, president of First American Association.

FINANCIAL

INCOME TOLD BY ICE CREAM UNIT

Chapman Company Reports for Six Months

Net Before Deduction of Tax Item $46,079.75

Decrease from Similar 1929 Period $1414.41

Net profits of the Chapman Ice Cream Company for the first six months of this year amounted to $46,079.75 before Federal income tax, equivalent to slightly more than 92 cents a share on the 50,000 shares of outstanding capital stock, according to a statement issued yesterday by A. A. Comey, president. Gross sales for the period totaled $285,108.85.

In the first half of 1929, net profits before Federal taxes were $47,494.16, or 95 cents a share on 50,000 shares. Gross sales in the 1929 period were $283,051.09.

SHOWING GRATIFIES

Taking into consideration the fact that weather conditions during the first half of the year were somewhat unfavorable as compared to the same period last year, and also the general business depression, the showing for the first six months this year exceeded expectations, Mr. Comey said. In this period the company's net earnings were within 33 cents per share of the full dividend rate of $1.25 for the entire year.

The last half of the year on account of the warm weather is usually more favorable for the ice-cream business and gross business as well as net profits will greatly exceed those of the first six months, according to the statement. Anticipated gross sales for July will run approximately $80,000 on which net profits would be in the neighborhood of $23,000.

NEW UNITS TO OPEN

Mr. Comey estimated that the company's thirty stores during July will sell 640,000 double-deck cones, setting a new record and running 240,000 cones ahead of July last year. Two stores will be opened on August 2, one located on West Pico and the other on Beverly Boulevard, bringing the Chapman chain up to a total of thirty-three stores. Approximately $90,000 has been spent so far this year for expansion, all of which has come out of surplus earnings. The new leases for stores were signed on the basis of 3 per cent of the gross sales in these stores for rent.

An extra dividend will in all probability be paid in October providing no unforeseen contingency arises, Mr. Comey stated.

Chicago Broker Optimistic on Trade Outlook

Sentiment in the Middle West is that there has been some improvement in business in the last few weeks, Ned Wells, Chicago resident partner of Shields & Co., member of the New York Stock Exchange, stated yesterday at the Biltmore.

"Everybody seems to feel that business is not too badly in the dumps," said Mr. Wells. "There is not too much slackness so that whatever consumption takes place will be reflected back to the manufacturers. Anyone who crosses this country must feel that business is going to pick up. I am enthusiastic after my trip, to which I can sincerely say Los Angeles came as a fine climax."

Mr. Wells expressed surprise that more New York brokerage houses are not represented here. The census figures and business statistics indicate that anyone doing a national business cannot afford to overlook Southern California, he added, saying that the economical progress made here forecasts a rapid development as a leading financial center.

Regarding the stock market outlook, Mr. Wells said that while most market observers are cautious about predicting a big upward swing, the market may be expected to anticipate any coming improvement in business so that people who do not buy at the low levels will not participate in the advance which will precede business recovery. Seasoned, dividend-paying stocks are now available at attractive yields which offer exceptional buying opportunities to investors, he concluded.

New Telephone Rights Offer in Heavy Demand

NEW YORK, July 30.—Subscriptions to the 2,250,000 shares of American Telephone and Telegraph stock, rights to subscribe to which expire August 1, are pouring into the company's offices and at the close of business the 29th inst. the company had received approximately $90,000,000.

Over 150,000 subscriptions have been received, of which 78 per cent are fully paid and 22 per cent in installments. This compares with 83 per cent fully paid and 17 per cent installments for the 1928 offering.

The company already has made advantageous investments in short-term and government issues with funds on which it is getting a comparatively generous yield.

Based on convertible bonds surrendered, there being but $13,000,000 outstanding of the original $219,000,000 issue, approximately 343,000 shares of American Telephone and Telegraph new stock will be taken by these converters.

Western Dairy Products Net Earnings Off

Because of cool weather on the Pacific Coast in the second quarter of the year, business of the Western Dairy Products Company and subsidiaries declined in volume and profits from the corresponding period a year ago, according to six months' statement released yesterday by S. H. Berch, president.

Net profits for the six months ended June 30, last, amounted to $440,094.05 after charges and Federal tax, equal to $3.35 a share on 131,312 shares of Class A stock.

In the same period of last year, net profits were $607,305.73 after charges and taxes, the equivalent to $4.62 a share on the same number of Class A shares.

President Berch informs stockholders in the report that the results are considered encouraging in view of adverse conditions, and that recent warm weather promises improvement in sales.

Grigsby-Grunow Earnings Drop

CHICAGO, July 30. — Net income of Grigsby-Grunow Company for the year ended May 31, last, today was reported at $1,745,648, after all charges and Federal taxes, equal to 87 cents a share on 1,997,897 shares of capital stock, as against $5,107,931 in the previous fiscal year, or $11.70 a share on 437,040 shares outstanding, May 31, 1929.

Majestic Household Utilities Corporation, affiliated with the Grigsby-Grunow Company, as of May 31, last, showed cash in banks of $7,495,768, against total liabilities of $538,567. The corporation will start production of refrigerators the first week in August.

BEHRENDS LEAVING FOR TRUST PARLEY

Frederick R. Behrends, vice-president and trust officer of the California Trust Company, will leave this evening to attend the eighth regional trust conference of the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain States trust section of the American Bankers' Association, which will be held in Seattle, August 6 to 8, inclusive. Mr. Behrends will deliver an address on the first day of the conference. B. L. Smith, vice-president of the California Trust Company, also will attend the meeting.

UNITED LIGHT AND POWER NET HIGHER

CHICAGO, July 30.—United Light and Power Company and subsidiaries for the twelve months ended June 30, last, today reported consolidated net income of $11,381,768 after depreciation, taxes and other charges, equal after preferred dividends to $2.40 a share on 3,458,940 combined Class A and B common shares outstanding at the end of the period, as against $7,131,176, or $1.78 a share on 3,220,041 combined A and B common shares in the preceding period. Gross income for the period was $96,672,009, as compared with $91,752,986 in the preceding twelve months.

SMALL REFINERS HIT WORST

State Figures Show Minor Companies Heavy Losers in Recent Gasoline Warfare

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Smaller gasoline refiners and marketers very plainly were the victims in the late gasoline war. Statistics released by the State Board of Equalization show the smaller companies, with a few exceptions, relinquished substantial gallonage to the major companies in the second quarter ended June 30, last.

As a rule the small refiner is successful in building up gallonage when prices are unsettled but open warfare is avoided. This time the preliminaries were short. Both the major and minor companies launched into a price-cutting orgy that severely tried financial resources and ended in a victory for the stronger organizations.

PROTECTION GIVEN

One reason advanced for the gains made by the larger companies was the policy of protecting dealers by continuing the standard margin of profit no matter what the current prices were. Officially this practice is denied, but it is generally reported that major companies followed such a course of protection.

Of the eight larger companies, the Wilshire was the only one to report a loss in the second quarter as compared with the same period last year. This company, however, is usually ranked as an independent and only climbed into the first eight in comparatively recent times. Its loss was 11 per cent.

Hancock Oil, Sunset Pacific and Macmillan were the heaviest losers of gallonage, the declines ranging from 45 to 20 per cent. Western Oil and Refining managed to cut its loss to 8 per cent.

Among the smaller marketers the performance of Rio Grande stands out as noteworthy. This company has been aggressively pushing marketing expansion in the last year, and the results are showing up in satisfactory additions in volume. Over the June quarter of 1929 Rio Grande's increase is 38 per cent, next to the highest recorded by any company for the second quarter of this year.

TREND REVERSED

In the list of major refiners and marketers General Petroleum, subsidiary of Standard Oil of New York, scored the largest percentage gain of 81 per cent. Up until the June quarter the General Petroleum gasoline business has not compared favorably with other large companies. Texas Company, another of the lower-ranking majors, increased its business by 9 per cent.

Standard Oil of California still retains the leadership and increased its gallonage volume of 17 per cent. Shell Union is second, Richfield third, Union fourth and Associated fifth. These positions are all unchanged.

Following are gallonage figures for the quarter ended June 30, last, compared with the same period in 1929:

	1930.	Per cent inc. or dec.
Standard	74,364,000	17 inc.
Shell	61,154,000	23 inc.
Richfield	39,263,000	51 inc.
Union	35,116,000	22 inc.
Associated	27,235,000	23 inc.
General Petroleum	27,790,000	81 inc.
Texas	13,974,000	9 inc.
Wilshire	12,093,000	11 dec.
Sunset Pacific	7,980,000	35 dec.
Western Oil	6,082,000	8 dec.
Hancock	5,121,000	45 dec.
Rio Grande	5,018,000	38 inc.
Macmillan	4,930,000	20 dec.

Finance Concern Pays in Stock

Commercial Discount Company will pay a stock dividend of 5 per cent in common stock on September 30, next, to stock of record September 20, Harold Bayly, treasurer of the company, announced yesterday. The stock dividend supplements the regular cash dividend on the common stock, which is at the annual rate of 10 per cent.

With the current quotation of $27 on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, the stock and cash dividends make the net yield on the investment in excess of 8½ per cent. Earnings applicable to the common stock are more than 15 per cent, based on current quotations. For the first half of 1930, the earnings were at the annual rate of $4.07 a share on the common stock as against $3.86 a share in 1929 on the same basis.

Net of Childs Cafe Chain Up

NEW YORK, July 30.—Net income of Childs Company, restaurant chain, for the first six months of this year yesterday was reported at $668,320 after all charges and Federal taxes, equal after preferred dividends to $1.36 a share on 362,357 no-par common shares, as against $420,343, or 67 cents a share on 362,191 shares in the first half of 1929.

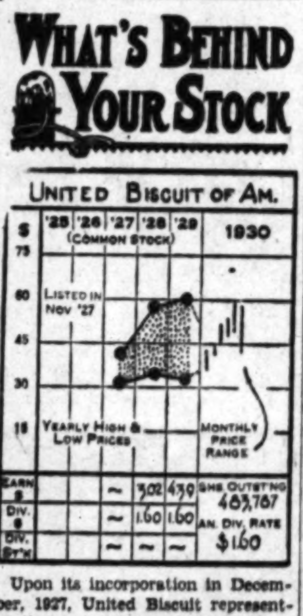
June quarter net income was $291,096, equal to 56 cents a share on 362,357 common shares, against $377,232, or 80 cents a share on 362,334 shares in the preceding quarter and $260,326, or 47 cents a share on 362,191 shares in the June quarter of the previous year.

FINANCE COMPANY TO OFFER STOCK

Continental Credit Company will offer first to its stockholders 160,000 shares of additional common stock immediately to carry out an expansion program outlined during the early part of the year, according to an announcement by Henry Girola, president, yesterday. The new issue brings the total to 500,000 shares and the proceeds will be used in the acquisition and development of building and loan associations. Earnings of the company which has but one class of stock, have been in excess of two and one-half times the regular dividend requirement, Mr. Girola said.

OFFER WITHDRAWN

NEW YORK, July 30. — Foster-Wheeler Company has withdrawn its offer to acquire International Combustion Engineering Corporation.



Upon its incorporation in December, 1927, United Biscuit represented the consolidation of nine manufacturers of bakery products. Since organization a steady expansion policy has been pursued until the company today operates fifteen bakeries and numerous warehouses. Sold under the trade name "Supreme Bakers," a complete line of biscuits, crackers, cakes and cookies is distributed intensively throughout practically the entire country. A subsidiary manufactures all the paper carton requirements of the operating group.

Continuing the progress reflected in the expansion of net income in 1929 to $2,254,098 from the 1928 figure of $1,472,923, per share earnings on the common stock for the first quarter of the current year were 17 per cent above those in the similar period of 1929. The 1929 balance sheet revealed a sound financial position with current assets more than three times current liabilities.

CAPITALIZATION

Funded debt	$3,680,000
7% cumulative convertible preferred ($100 par)	17,284 shares
Common stock (no par)	483,787 shares

Current data: It is authoritatively reported that the company's current earning power is increasing under the influence of lower raw material costs, larger sales and steady expansion, and that a greater second quarter net is, therefore to be expected.

Net of Natural Gas Unit Jumps

Net earnings of the Memphis Natural Gas Company for the first half of this year totaled $463,384 before interest, depreciation and Federal income taxes, as compared to $223,380 in the similar period of 1929, a gain of 107 per cent, while gross revenue increased 81.5 per cent, from $455,624 in the 1929 period to $827,087 this year, according to a statement issued by the company yesterday.

Natural gas sales totaled 4,448,178,400 cubic feet, against 2,391,369,370 in the 1929 period. During June the company redeemed bonds amounting to $6,153,500, leaving a funded debt of only $120,000.

UTILITY DEBENTURE ISSUE ON MARKET

Public offering of $50,000,000 4 1-2 per cent and 5 per cent serial gold debentures of the General Gas and Electric Corporation is being made by the Harris Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, Halsey Stuart & Co., Chase Securities Corporation and Chatham Phenix Corporation, it was announced yesterday. The debentures are due August 15, 1931, to 1935, inclusive, and are being offered at prices to yield from 5 to 6 per cent.

CONSOLIDATED STEEL GETS BOILER ORDER

One of the largest boiler contracts let in Southern California in recent months was awarded yesterday by the city of Pasadena to Consolidated Steel Corporation of Los Angeles. The contract calls for fabrication and installation of two 1500-horse-power, forged steel, sinuous-header type water-tube boilers, built to operate under a working pressure of 460 pounds. This type of boiler is among the largest made for industrial purposes. The contract price for the units installed was $123,000.

GAIN FORECAST IN SAFEWAY EARNINGS

NEW YORK, July 30.—Forthcoming earnings of Safeway Stores for the six months ended June 30 will be slightly in excess of $2 a share, according to M. B. Skaggs, president. Sales for six months to June 30 were $110,637,313 compared with $101,790,032 in corresponding period year ago. Two thousand six hundred and ninety-six stores are in operation against 2660 stores January 1.

COPPER EARNINGS SLUMP

NEW YORK, July 30.—Net profits of the Calumet and Hecla Consolidated Copper Company for the quarter ended June 30, last, were $156,085 after charges but before depletion, compared with $1,841,766 in the June quarter of 1929. Six months' net was $1,160,337 before depletion, against $3,642,124 in the first half of 1929.

OIL OUTPUT CUT PENDS IN TEXAS

Operators in Meeting With State Rail Board

Slash of 125,000 Barrels a Day on Calendar

AUSTIN (Tex.) July 30. (AP)—Oil operators from all parts of Texas were here today to meet with the State Railroad Commission and consider the feasibility of placing production of oil in Texas on a basis of 738,000 barrels daily—125,000 less than present estimated production.

The figure was arrived at by a special committee of independent oil operators appointed primarily to consider application of the new common-purchaser law to production. Most of the work was done by a special investigator, who, after a study of each of the fields in Texas, proposed a production cut of 76,000 barrels, to make the supply approximately equal to the demand.

The extra 50,000-barrel cut was recommended by the committee after considering his special report.

The oversupply, according to the report made to the railroad commission, was divided as follows: West Texas, 12,000 barrels a day; North and West Central Texas, 32,000 barrels; Panhandle, 13,500, with the remainder divided among other sections.

Specific treatment for pools recommended included: Special consideration of each of the Gulf Coast fields, where demand is good due to natural geographical advantages; proration at the Darst and Salt Flat fields in the southwest, where demand is slow; steps to care for the Pettus field should it develop a flush pool, and proration of the Refugio field; in West Texas, that the Yates pool, which, according to report, now bears the brunt of proration, be placed on an equitable basis with other pools; that the Big Lake pool be cut 5000 barrels, and possible restriction of Crane and Upton by 5000 barrels.

Natural decline of the Winkler pool makes proration there unnecessary, the report said, but declared that a "serious condition" existed at Pampa, with the recommendation that the field be placed under the Yates plan.

Partial Offset to Exports of Gold Received

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Exports of $6,000,000 in gold to France and Canada today were partially offset by the receipt of $3,100,000 of the metal from Venezuela.

Of the total exported $5,000,000 went to France on the liner Aquitania, the consignments consisting of $3,000,000 forwarded by the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, and $1,000,000 by Lazard Freres, international banking house. The remaining $2,000,000 was sent to Canada by an unidentified consigner. Today's shipments brought to $30,000,000 the total exports of gold to France on the present movement.

The Guaranty Trust Company received the $3,100,000 from Venezuela.

Trade in Local Field Lagging

Business conditions in Southern California remain about the same, with all lines reporting sales continuing to fall under last year, according to the weekly summary of local business by Bradstreet's. Retailers state the hot spell in the middle of the month helped to move seasonable merchandise, and further report that inventories are low. Practically the only demand is for the cheaper class of merchandise.

Building has picked up, the report states, and while building material supply houses have shown some increase in gross sales, competition is so keen that the trade is making a very small percentage of profit. Miniature golf courses now numbering well over 1000 in the county have helped labor and builders, in addition to much improving the looks of the city, according to Bradstreet's.

Power Utility Output Picks Up

NEW YORK, July 30.—Electric output for the United States for the week ended the 26th inst. was 1,660,186,000 kilowatt hours, a decrease of 2 per cent from the same 1929 period, when the output was 2,694,403,000, compared with the same 1928 week, however, the 1930 output was 9 9-10 per cent above the 1,510,000,000 output for that period.

Output for last week shows an improvement in trend when compared with that for the week ended the 19th inst., when production was 1,631,600,000, down 3 1-3 per cent from 1929. The figures are based on reports filed with the National Electric Light Association.

BEARD AND AYRES OPEN LOCAL UNIT

Beard & Ayers, Inc., national financial, industrial and corporate representatives, yesterday announced the opening of a Los Angeles office in the Bendix Building. This is the second step in its expansion program on the Pacific Coast, offices previously having been opened in San Francisco. Other offices are located in Chicago, New York and Detroit. The local office is in charge of Thomas E. Wade, formerly associated with the Wall Street News on the Pacific Coast.

MORGAN'S HOUSE DOMINANT

Volume of New Financing Offered by Company Far Ahead of Nearest Rival

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, July 30.—J. P. Morgan & Co. literally are sitting on top of the financial world. The record for the first six months of 1930 shows that the house of Morgan stands far away in the lead in the total volume of security issues offered to the public in the United States.

The Morgan firm originates all its own issues. It never sells other bankers' offerings. Every other banking house among the first dozen leaders participated in a larger volume of issues than it originated.

But the Morgan firm stands alone. It is fiscal agent for more big nations and corporations than any half-dozen other firms in the world. Its financial ramifications are world-wide.

Here's the record of the first eight in the underwriting field for the first six months of this year:

SYNDICATE HEAD
J. P. Morgan & Co.	$605,038,000
Dillon, Read & Co.	233,900,000
Harris Forbes & Co.	225,533,000
Halsey, Stuart & Co.	219,672,000
Kuhn Loeb & Co.	219,294,000
Chase Securities Company	181,825,000
Guaranty Company	123,849,000
National City Company	122,181,000

The German reparations issue of nearly $100,000,000, helps to swell the Morgan figure. But without it, this international firm is more than a quarter of a billion ahead of the firm of Dillon, Read & Co., which is in second place.

How much less are retail prices now than they were one year ago?

The Business Week, in its latest issue, gives a specific list of such prices of various articles in a large New York department store, compared with the same prices of a year ago. This tells the story in New York.

Merchandise—	Last year's price	This Years' price
Victor Radio	$151.00	$97.75
Atwater Kent Radio	89.75	79.75
Wool jersey	1.79	1.59
Wool flannel (yd.)	2.49	2.29
Wool cloth (yd.)	.92	.84
Voile (yd.)	.98	.79
Percale (yd.)	.26	.23
Machine-made pajamas	1.79	.94
Flannel robe	6.94	5.94
Botany flannel robe	13.74	8.94
Oilcloth (yd.)	.39	.24
Linoleum (yd.)	3.49	2.89
Standard sheeting	1.74	1.44
Sheeting, lower grade	1.14	.98

It is substantially the story of retail price decline up to date.

Wholesale prices usually drop from three to six months before retail prices. The retail price declines of recent weeks are the result of wholesale declines, which took place three to six months ago.

GRAHAM-PAIGE OFF

NEW YORK, July 30. — Graham-Paige Motors Corporation reported today net loss in the June quarter of $391,480, against net loss of $480,480 in the preceding quarter, and net profit of $818,070, or 51 cents on the common, in the same period of 1929.

Clay Products Sales Hold Up in Northwest

Optimism regarding a continuation of fair conditions in the building industry of the Pacific Northwest States was expressed yesterday by Fred B. Ortman, executive vice-president and general manager of Gladding, McBean & Co., clay-products manufacturers, upon his return to this city from an inspection tour of all the company's Pacific Coast properties.

Declaring that there has been less shrinkage in the sales of building material in Seattle, especially of face brick and terra cotta, than in any other major city on the Coast, Mr. Ortman said that he looked for a continuation of Seattle's building activity at a peak only a little lower than that of the first six months of the current year.

"The depression, which is affecting the rest of the country is now being felt in the cities of Oregon and Washington," the executive said, "but apparently it has been much later in setting in there than in California. They have not yet become as strongly aware of it as we have here; consequently, if the anticipated economic and industrial rebound this fall becomes an accomplished fact, they may entirely miss the worst effects of the retrenchment period."

Spokane and East Washington generally are at present concerned over the wheat situation and the slump in the lumber industry, Mr. Ortman declared. The prevailing low price of wheat is especially worrying to the residents of East Washington territory and the forecasts for fall business are gloomy unless some form of Federal price stabilizing has the desired effect of setting better prices before the present crop is delivered to the elevators.

AMERICAN ALCOHOL EARNINGS DECLINE

NEW YORK, July 30.—American Commercial Alcohol Corporation for the six months ended June 30, last, today reported net profits of $175,931 after depreciation and Federal taxes, against $555,857 in the first half of 1929.

BEAR FACTION IN MARKET SADDLE

Bulls Get Sharpest Drubbing of Recent Weeks

Average for Group Records 4.6 Point Slump

Severest Declines Suffered by Volatile Group

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—The bear flags were flying over the stock market today.

Accompanying a break in July wheat to the lowest levels since 1914 and in cotton to new lows for the season, share prices wilted under a withering renewal of liquidation and short selling. The closing index of ninety issues revealed a net loss of 4.6 points, but declines of 6 to 12 points ruled in the more volatile listings.

Selling was heaviest in the late trading when feeble attempts at a rally were quickly submerged under a fresh wave of the liquidation, and closing prices were the lowest.

The movement emphasized widespread disappointment over the market's resistance to efforts at breaking above the high of the recovery. Three times the bull camp has endeavored to get stocks beyond that top, attained the 18th inst., and on each occasion it has received definite notice the demonstrations were not being attended by sufficient public following to make possible a pronounced advance.

It seemed this forenoon as though the moment for another gain might have arrived. The Steel Corporation's confident statement on the better prospects for that industry, coupled with an improvement in car loadings the past week and reductions in crude oil output and gasoline stocks, were encouraging pieces of news. But the market, after opening higher, soon turned downward in sympathy with professional selling of a few stocks, such as Southern Railway and Warner Brothers Pictures.

The appearance of the weekly steel reviews seemed to stimulate bearish activities. Iron Age reported ingot production was unchanged for the fourth consecutive week. Iron Age's pig iron composite price was reported at $16.86 a gross ton, the lowest since late in 1915 and a decline of 13 cents in the past week.

The larger declines in stocks were reminiscent of the June break. American Machine & Foundry [illegible] broke 17 points net. Allied Chemical lost 14, advance Rumely preferred and Worthington Pump 12, Peoples Gas and United States Industrial Alcohol 8, Columbian Carbon 7, A. M. Byers and [illegible]

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—The unsettlement which depressed other security markets extended to bonds today. The result was an irregular movement downward affecting all sections of the list.

Despite the reactionary trend, the day was not without its constructive features. While stock privilege and speculative issues were depressed in sympathy with shares, seasoned domestic investment bonds held their ground. Trading was moderately active, total sales approximating $8,500,000.

Features were largely confined to the foreign list where sharp contrasts developed. Gains and losses were about evenly divided. French governments and municipals were strong and the Republic 7s, Lyons 6s, Bordeaux 6s reached new 1930 highs, accompanied by British 5½s.

New issues fared poorly, the new Austrian 7s breaking to 92½ after holding fairly steady since the recent offering at 95. Sales of the Austrian loan were the largest, approaching $1,000,000.

Against the downward trend, high-grade railroad and utility issues found progress slow, and the few gains registered were small. New York Central 4s rose ½ point to a new high. Atchison 4s held firm.

Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul bonds turned sharply downward, the 5s of 1975 reaching a new low on a 1⅞ point decline, and the adjustment 5s, a convertible issue, sagging ½ point. Other convertible rails worked lower, Atchison 4½s losing 1 point. Wide breaks occurred in International Railways of Central America 6s, which dropped 17½ points, and New Orleans, Texas and Mexico 4½s, off 3. Chicago and Alton 3½s gained 4 points to reach a new high for the year.

Among utilities, American debenture 5s of 1965 was depressed 1 point, and the convertible 4½s lost 4½ points.

Treasury issues were dull and steady.

As the first public financing undertaken by the newly organized Ohio Edison Company, subsidiary of the Commonwealth and Southern Corporation, offering will be made tomorrow at $18,834,500, 5 per cent first and consolidated gold mortgage bonds.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in order given. To expedite transmission the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

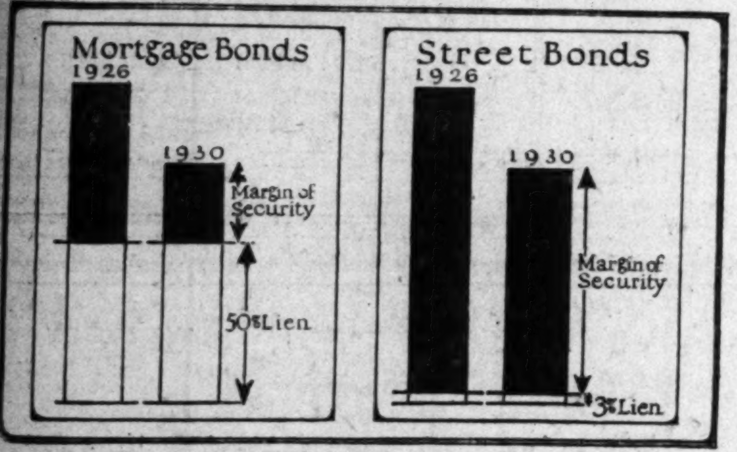
Underlying Bonds Are Soundest in this day of Shrinking Values



Every investor should study the above chart carefully. It shows how falling commodity prices (1926 dollar is today worth 80 cents in purchasing power) have reduced the margin of security back of various types of bonds.

Mortgage loans, for example, which are usually issued for 50% to 70% of the value of the property, are now nearing the danger point. On the contrary, California municipal improvement bonds, which rank ahead of all mortgages and are issued for a very small proportion of the security value, are still unusually well protected.

In fact, in our current issue of 6% Municipal Improvement Bond Certificates, a decline of 50% to 75% of the value of the securing property would not jeopardize the bonds, since they represent only 3% of the total value. Furthermore, they yield 6%—exempt from all Federal, state, and local taxes.

By these 17 Major Oil Companies

The investment strength and sound financial policy of the 17 major American oil companies listed at the left are strikingly demonstrated by the fact that in 1929 these companies, out of a total net income of over $513,000,000, paid cash dividends amounting to $264,878,000 or 52% and added to surplus over $248,180,000 or 48%.

This policy of plowing back large sums into surplus each year insures constantly increasing earning power which is later reflected in increased dividend returns for common stockholders. You can share in the earnings of 17 of these great companies which represent approximately one-half the entire American oil industry through a single investment in

FIXED TRUST OIL SHARES

This strong investment trust is sponsored by the originators of Fixed Trust Shares, Corporate Trust Shares and Basic Industry Shares. It retains stock dividends and split-ups but provides for the semi-annual distribution in cash of all profits resulting from the liquidation of market appreciation on the underlying stocks. This feature means a greater annual cash return for holders. Had these shares been outstanding in the five years from 1925 to 1930, the average annual distribution would have been 13.7% on the average price per share.

Following the Lead of the Most Experienced Investors

The recent marked demand for the best-grade bonds has been largely due to brisk buying on the part of insurance companies, banks, trust companies, and other large institutional investors.

These companies do not invest on hunches or tips, but on the basis of close study of underlying economic conditions. They believe that bond prices are low at the present time and are due for a rise in the near future.

LET NEW ENGLAND CONSERVATISM protect your investments

FOR the past 300 years, the conservatism of people living in the New England States has become so well known that it is almost proverbial. This is particularly true in the field of investments.

Therefore, it is only natural that Massachusetts Investors Trust, which was originated by and is under the direction of a group of Boston financiers and business men, should be ultra-conservative. At the same time, the trust is unusually progressive and has been very successful in actual practice.

We recommend Massachusetts Investors Trust at present prices

Since 1924, up to July 1 original holders have received an average annual cash income of over 6½%, with their investments gaining 13.55% average per year, making a total of more than 20% per year. This strong trust represents ownership in over 135 of America's leading corporations.

Grain Futures Sharply Off on Bearish Market

CHICAGO, July 30. (AP)—Grain prices collapsed today to a standard seldom equaled, even in times antedating the World War. Wheat fell below any point reached since July, 1914, when Europe's unprecedented huge military needs and relative scarcity elsewhere sent breadstuff values skyward. In violent contrast, today's trans-Atlantic demand for wheat from North America was at various stages the slackest in a long while, and harvest reports from places northward toward Canada pointed to millions of bushels soon to be added to big stocks on hand.

Wheat closed heavy at virtually the bottom-most level reached, 2¼@3c a bushel under yesterday's finish. Corn closed ⅛@1⅝c off. Oats as well as wheat established a new low price record for the season, finishing 1¼@1¾c down. Provisions, however, scored gains, latest quotations being 2@20c net higher.

One of the severest jolts that staggered the wheat market today came from an estimate that the world's wheat crop this season will aggregate 4,080,000,000 bushels, a total 192,000,000 bushels more than a year ago. This estimate was received from the foremost British authority.

With harvesting reported in progress right up to the Canadian boundary, and predictions of a larger crop in prospect on the Canadian prairies than was looked for, wheat values here began to drop at a rapid rate, and at no subsequent period showed much power to rally.

Selling orders from Winnipeg were notably more frequent than usual in the wheat market here, and this circumstance attracted special attention as Winnipeg wheat quotations were tumbling fast compared with Chicago.

A striking feature here was heavy buying of September and December delivery of wheat for a house with foreign connections. Another subject of pointed comment was that the downward swing of prices here was in the face of reports that feeding of wheat to livestock in the United States is prevalent on a large scale not only in the Southwest but throughout Central States as well, Ohio in particular.

Corn and oats gave way with wheat, corn, though, showing brisk rallies, owing to official confirmation of severe widespread damage from drought and heat.

Trading in Pacific Finance Corporation common shares which have had a relatively light turnover in recent sessions again assumed substantial proportions on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday and with 3000 shares traded was second in point of volume only to Transamerica sales of 5800 shares. Pacific Finance held firm at 24½, unchanged from the previous close.

Bolsa Chica Oil "A" after selling off in the previous session regained 1 3-8 to 13 5-8 on sales of 1900 shares. The company announced that the Department of Interior had authorized a lease on its 1840-acre Ferguson permit on North Dome of Kettleman Hills and that the United States Geological Survey had declared that the company's Ferguson No. 24 well on North Dome is in the Temblor producing horizon. This decision, it was stated, assures the company of its pro rata share of 25 per cent of proceeds from the four wells now producing on the North Dome.

Transamerica showed a net loss of ½ in its close at 21 7-8. The day's price range was from 21 5-8 to 22. Gilmore Oil moved up 1-8 to 17 1-8, a new high for the year, while Monolith Portland Cement common at 4 touched a new low, breaking 6 points below its previous closing price on sales of 300 shares. Globe Grain advanced 3-4 to 21 3-4.

Claude Neon was down 1 at 33 7-8 and Southern California Edison common lost 1 3-8 to 57 1-8. Douglas Aircraft on sales of 500 shares held to 20. Only fractional changes were recorded in the prices of the other active issues, which included Standard Oil of California, off ½, Union Oil, off 7-8, Union Associates, off ½; Richfield Oil, off 3-8; Pacific Western Oil, off 3-8; Security-First National, off 1-4, and Pacific Mutual, off 3-4.

Sales totaled 19,058 shares, valued at $575,636; previous day, 19,347 shares, valued at $533,907.

Kodak 8, and Du Pont American Telephone and Westinghouse 5 or more.

There were declines of 4 to nearly 5 in American Water Works, Western Union, American Tobacco, Air Reduction and R. H. Macy, and of 3 to nearly 4 in American Can, International Harvester, United Aircraft, North American, American & Foreign Power, Standard Gas & Electric, General Electric, Southern Railway and Warner Brothers Pictures, the last two making new lows. United States Steel, after touching 169, broke to 164 and closed a share above that for a loss of 3 3-8. General Motors lost more than 2.

Money rates remained steady. Five millions in gold was taken for shipment to France and $1,000,000 was withdrawn for Canada, but there was a $3,100,000 importation from Venezuela.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT:

Area in Acres	2,005
Estimated Actual Valuation (Land and Improvements)	$3,750,000
Assessed Valuation	1,512,095
Bonded Debt, this Issue	150,000

These bonds have been issued by the City of Los Angeles under the provisions of the Municipal Improvement Act of 1915. The proceeds of this bond issue will be used to acquire and improve the land for a new city park to be known as Roscoe Park, comprising some twenty acres, adjacent to the former town of Roscoe, now a part of the City of Los Angeles, having been authorized by a two-thirds vote of all electors voting at a special election called for that purpose.

Municipal Improvement District No. 73 embraces 2,005 acres, all in the City of Los Angeles, including the community of Roscoe. The district is served by the Southern Pacific Railroad and by several main highways including San Fernando Road, Lankershim Boulevard and Sherman Way. The property values in this rapidly growing section will be materially enhanced by the creation of the new park which lies practically in the center of the district. These bonds are payable, both principal and interest, from UNLIMITED AD VALOREM TAXES levied upon all taxable property situated within the district.

Legality of these bonds to be certified by the approving opinion of Messrs, O'Melveny, Tuller & Myers, Los Angeles.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, July 30. (Exclusive)—The crude market today was easier. London opened with a firmer trend and at our opening brought some buying by dealers. December was offered freely, but this was quickly absorbed and failed to weaken the market.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Cotton was lower today under further liquidation and scattered selling believed to be for Wall street, European and southern account. The failure of bullish features in the weekly report of the Weather Bureau to create a more aggressive demand, seemed to encourage the pressure while declines in one of the other commodity markets had a contributing interest. At 2 o'clock the new October was selling around 12.34 and December 12.50, with the active months ruling about 16 to 20 points net lower.

Fully registered bonds and coupon bonds of the denomination of $1,000 interchangeable.

The Company will agree to refund upon timely application the Pennsylvania Four Mills Tax to holders resident in that state.

BANKERS TRUST COMPANY, NEW YORK, TRUSTEE

Issuance authorized by The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio.

For further particulars concerning the Company and its First and Consolidated Mortgage Gold Bonds, 5% Series due 1960 we refer to the letter of Mr. B. C. Cobb, President of the Company, which we summarize as follows:

Business Ohio Edison Company is a consolidation of The Pennsylvania-Ohio Power & Light Company, Northern Ohio Power and Light Company, The Ohio Edison Company (Springfield), The Akron Steam Heating Company and The London Light & Power Company and will presently acquire the physical assets of Ohio River Edison Company and the Ohio River Transmission Company. These companies have conducted for a number of years an electric light and power business in Akron, Youngstown and Springfield and now furnish electric service to 132 additional communities in Ohio. The former transportation business of the company has been transferred to subsidiary companies.

Earnings For the 12 months ended June 30, 1929 and 1930 the earnings of the properties owned and to be owned by Ohio Edison Company were:

	1929	1930
Gross Earnings (including Other Income)	$18,848,312	$19,398,558
Operating Expenses, Maintenance and Taxes (Exclusive of Federal Income Taxes)	7,976,988	8,135,140
Net Earnings	$10,871,324	$11,263,418
Annual Interest Charges on $68,074,000 bonded debt (including this issue)		3,607,198

Net earnings as shown above for the 12 months ended June 30, 1930, were over 3 times the annual interest charges on all bonds to be presently outstanding including this issue, and, after estimated provision for retirement reserve (depreciation) of $1,200,000 were over 2¾ times such charges.
Of the above gross earnings for the twelve months ended June 30, 1930, 96.7% were derived from the sale of electric current, 2.2% from steam heating and 1.1% from miscellaneous sources.

Security On the retirement of all outstanding Ohio-River Edison Company First Mortgage Gold Bonds, which will be called for redemption and funds for the redemption of which will forthwith be deposited with the Trustee of the Mortgage securing said bonds, the First and Consolidated Mortgage Gold Bonds will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by direct first mortgage on a modern steam electric generating station on the Ohio River near Toronto, with a present installed generating capacity of 186,700 horsepower and on 39 miles of four-circuit high tension steel tower transmission lines, which have an aggregate value in excess of the principal amount of this issue. The First and Consolidated Mortgage Gold Bonds will be further secured, in the opinion of counsel, by direct first mortgage on other important fixed property and by direct mortgage on the entire balance of the fixed properties of the Company, subject to the lien of certain underlying divisional bonds outstanding with the public to the amount of $49,239,500 (exclusive of $1,018,000 principal amount, the payment of which will be provided for in connection with this financing) and issued under indentures to be closed by provisions of the Mortgage as to issuance of additional bonds to the public.

Supervision The Company is controlled through ownership of all of its common stock by The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation.

Legal matters in connection with the issuance of these Bonds will be passed upon by Messrs. Winthrop, Stimson, Putnam & Roberts and by Messrs. Weadock & Wilkie of New York.

These Bonds are offered when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to the approval of counsel at 98 and accrued interest, to yield over 5.13%

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Quoted values on curb market shares crumbled rapidly today, in sympathy with renewed liquidation in other speculative markets.

It was not until the last hour of trading that the market fully reflected the weakness of the stock exchange in the wheat market, but prices tended irregularly lower from the opening. The more active stocks generally closed 1 to 4 points lower. Sales aggregated 540,500 shares, the largest turnover in more than a week.

The utilities were most heavily sold. American Gas and Electric retained much of its recent advance, reacting 4 points. Electric Bond and Share closed at 82, off 3. Issues losing a point or two included American Superpower, American Light and Traction and United Light A.

A firm spot was International Superpower, an investment trust specializing in utility shares, which rose 4 points to 37 and closed at 36, in response to the semiannual statement, calculating liquidating values as of July 26, at $46.10 a share. Goldman-Sachs trading, however, failed to respond to its semiannual statement, placing liquidating value about $30 a share. The stock closed at 18⅞, off ⅛. United Founders closed off ⅜.

The industrials were less heavily sold, although such recent strong spots as the dresser shares lost more than 2 each, and Technicolor, Crocker Wheeler, Mapes Consolidated, and Atlas Plywood were among shares recording similar losses. Aluminum Company lost yesterday's 4-point rise.

Cosden was an isolated strong spot in the oils, gaining 2. Cities Service lost a point, and Humble and Gulf declined more than 2. These losses were in the face of favorable weekly statistics, showing substantial reductions in gasoline stocks and crude production.

If last price omitted, low and last are same. If low and last are omitted, high, low and last are same.

Total stock sales today, 540,500 shares; year ago, 2,198,400. Total bond sales today, $2,338,000; year ago, $2,533,000.

Oil allowance for several of the Los Angeles basin fields is expected to be increased at today's session of the fact-finding committee to be held at the Pacific Coast Beach Club, Long Beach.

Because of the increasing number of excellent producers in the Signal Hill field the allowable there may be set at 97,000 barrels per day, as against the old figure of 96,000 barrels daily. This may be necessary due to producers that may be brought in within the next two weeks. At least fourteen new ones may be completed.

An increase in the potential for the new Venice field may also upset, at least, for a time, the oil-curtailment program in that district. At the last meeting of the fact-finding committee, Venice's potential was set at 8000 barrels daily instead of [illegible] barrels, and as the field now is producing nearly 10,000 barrels, the recent quota may be raised to provide for the dozen completions expected within two weeks.

Taps Vaqueros

The Ring Oil Company's More No. 1, near Goleta, is reported to have tapped top of the Vaqueros formation and is coring ahead to determine possibilities. Bottom of the hole is below 5800 feet. This project is northwest of the General Petroleum Corporation's More ranch holdings, where More No. 1 and No. 2 developed into gassers and where a derrick is going up for the operator's More No. 3.

To Spud In

George F. Getty, Inc., is scheduled to spud today Lincoln Drilling-Getty No. 1 on a forty-acre lease in Section 12, 26-20, at Lost Hills. This new undertaking is considered important by operators since it is located at the northerly end of the oil producing district and is four miles northwest of a wildcat that developed interesting showings a little above 4700 feet. The Lincoln Drilling Company originally held the forty-acre lease and entered into a drilling agreement with Getty.

New Completions

Two new wells were recently completed at Santa Fe Springs. The Wilshire Oil Company brought in Peterson No. 1-A with bottom at [illegible] feet for sixty barrels of oil a day, while George F. Getty, Inc., completed S. F. No. 33 for approximately 1000 barrels of oil a day at a depth of 5400 feet in the Nordstrom zone.

Deep-test Possibilities

Although officials deny the report, field scouts assert that George F. Getty, Inc., is planning to make its Hill No. 50 near the intersection of Butler and Telegraph Roads in the Santa Fe Springs field, a deep test to determine what may be developed on top of the structure.

Getty's Hill No. 50 is located on a lot sixty feet by 185 feet and is between two producers, both of which have obtained oil at depths slightly below 8000 feet. Getty is equipped to go at least 10,000 feet for a thorough test if necessary.

Field scouts state that Getty is ideally located for a deep test at Santa Fe Springs for the reason that his two leases on top of the structure have been so productive since discovery of the field. Upward of 5,000,000 barrels of oil have been taken from the operator's leases, not counting that taken from acreage in other parts of the field. Deep tests to the south and southwest of the main structure at Santa Fe Springs have failed to develop anything interesting and it is thought probable that Getty has an excellent chance to prove the existence of another producing sand.

To Make Deep Test

The St. Helena Petroleum Company has joined the group of operators endeavoring to develop deeper production in a number of proven fields in the State. St. Helens is deepening No. 15 in the Montebello field. This project is thought to have an excellent chance of finding deeper production as it is located in the extreme westerly portion of the field, where shallow producing wells have been steady. Drilling resumed at St. Helens No. 15 at 4343 feet.

Showings Continue

Oil showings continue to be encountered in the Standard Oil Company's Bastanchury No. 1 wildcat due east of the Coyote Hills field, and indications are that a deeper productive formation may prove interesting. Yesterday this project was drilling below 6155 feet in brown shale and oil sand.

At Coyote Hills Standard's Murphy-Coyote No. 104 is running a string of six and five-eighth-inch casing with bottom of the hole at 4400 feet and will make a production test this week.

On Production

Two new wells have just been placed on production in the Midway district. The Standard Oil Company's No. 68 came in for 152 barrels of oil a day from a depth of 4100 feet, and the Richfield Oil Company's Southwest No. 2 completed for ninety-two barrels of oil a day.

In the Ventura-avenue field the Shell Oil Company completed Taylor No. 48 for 248 barrels daily at a depth of 5548 feet and Shell's Taylor No. 55 came in for 468 barrels of oil per day from a depth of 4001 feet. At Kern Front the Chanslor-Canfield Midway Oil Company's No. 35 on Sec. 23, 28-17, completed for 257 barrels daily.

Drilling Permits

The Signal Hill and Venice fields continue to be active, according to the number of drilling permits issued last week by the State Mining Bureau. Eighteen permits were granted and of these five were at Signal Hill, three at Venice, two at Elwood and one each at Potrero, Rosecrans, Santa Fe Springs, Seal Beach, Seacliff, Ventura-avenue and one each in Santa Barbara and Tulare counties.

Following are the permits at Signal Hill: Republic Petroleum Company's No. 1, Dabney-Johnston Oil Corporation's No. 76 and No. 77, Signal Hill Oil and Gas Company's Goodyear No. 2, El Capitan Oil Company's No. 1, B. C. Morrison's No. 2, Altadena Oil tCompany's Altadena No. 1, George F. Getty's No. 2 at Venice.

Barnsdall Oil Company's Trust No. 2 at Rosecrans, Stillion & Hillegas's No. 1 at Potrero, Continental Oil Company's McGrath & Selover No. 24 at Seal Beach, George F. Getty's Hill No. 50 at Santa Fe Springs, Shell Oil Company's Taylor No. 64 in the Ventura-avenue field, Pan-American Petroleum Company's Hobson-State No. 3 at Seacliff, Pacific Western Oil Company's Tideland Permit No. 92-7 and Barnsdall-Rio Grande combination's Tideland Permit No. 88-4 at Elwood, General Petroleum Corporation's More No. 3 in Santa Barbara county, Terra Bella Drilling Company's No. 1 in Tulare county.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30. (AP)—Prices on the stock exchange dropped slightly today in a featureless market. Most declines were fractional.

Transamerica closed at 21⅛, off ⅜, after 18,000 shares changed hands. West Coast Bank was off ¼ at 15¾.

Fractional gains were made in the industrial group by Food Machinery common, Golden State Milk and Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar. Stocks dropping slightly included California Copper, Caterpillar Tractor and Hawaiian Pineapple.

Among the utilities Spring Valley went up ⅛ to 11 and Pacific Telephone receded 1½ to 138½.

Standard Oil of California declined 1⅛ to 61⅝ and fractionally lower levels were touched by Richfield, Tidewater common and Union Oil.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, July 30. (Exclusive)—Daily Steel today says: Finished steel is in an unusually quiet market with prices unchanged; steel bars holding at 1.65@1.75, Pittsburgh, and plates and shapes at 1.65@1.70, Pittsburgh. So little demand is coming out in some market centers that no real price test is afforded. The past two weeks has brought mills in the Pittsburgh district the smallest specifications of the summer.

Plate mills are holding production at a somewhat better level because of demand for pipe material.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

YESTERDAY'S QUOTATIONS

CATTLE—Moderate receipts for the midweek session were increased by 208 held over from Tuesday, some of these being late arrivals. Trade was not very active, but majority of offerings changed hands before the noon hour. Quality considered, steers were slightly lower, putting prices for the week to date on a steady to 25c lower basis. She stock was unchanged.

Two loads of Colorado fed yearling steers nad heifers averaging 632 to 682 pounds brought 10.75, with a load of 834-pound heifers at 10.65. Two loads of good 1225 to 1247-pound fed Texas steers turned at 8.25, with a load of 923-pound Imperials at 8.50. A load of 1007-pound California grassers made 7.10, with three loads of 1110-pound Imperial Mexican steers at 6.75.

A load or two of 801 to 887-pound grass heifers brought 7.10@7.50, with small lots at 6.50@7.00. A package of fairly good 1144-pound Utah dairy type cows scored 7.10. A load and some small lots of California cows made 6.60@6.75, with bulk of common to low medium cows at 5.00@6.50. Low cutters and cutters bulked at 2.50@4.75, with thin shells down to 2.00. Common to medium bulls brought 4.50@5.25, with cutters down to 3.00 and a young fed bull at 7.50.

CALVES—Receipts were confined mainly to trucked calves and about a load of holdovers were on hand. Trade was slow at weak to lower rates. While a few odd light vealers reached 12.50, practical quotable top is around 12.00. A few decent calves made 11.50, with bulk of common to medium vealers and weighty calves at 8.00@10.50, with very plain weighty kinds down to 7.00.

HOGS—Receipts of four loads and some truck-ins sold in good season. Quality was not quite up to Monday's standard and prices were considered weak. Nearly two loads of 187 to 193-pound Nebraska butchers topped at 11.35, with two loads of 139-pound Texas offerings at 11.00. A few 192-pound truck-ins made 10.75, with 236 to 310-pound weights at 9.00@9.50. Packing sows averaging 365 to 456 pounds cashed at 8.00@8.75.

SHEEP—Quality and weights considered, sales in this division showed little change. Two decks of good to choice 92-pound California lambs brought 8.60, with similar quality lighter weight lambs quoted to 9.00. Two decks of common 84-pound lambs brought 6.55. A package of 104-pound ewes of medium quality sold at 300, with a few out at 2.00.

Net of United States Oil and Royalties Off

Net operating income of the United States Oil and Royalties Company for the first half of the year amounted to $31,359.90 after operating expenses but before depreciation and depletion, the company announced yesterday in a report mailed to stockholders by W. R. Wheat, president, and E. W. Clark, treasurer.

Computed on the basis of 3,318,236 shares of 25-cent par value stock outstanding, the net operating income was equal to slightly less than 1 cent a share. In the comparative six months of 1929, net operating income amounted to $50,271.79 before depreciation and depletion, equal to 1½ cents a share on 3,298,236 shares outstanding.

Decrease in income is attributed largely to curtailment of production at Long Beach and Santa Fe Springs, and reduction in the price of crude oil in the latter field from May 17 to June 14. Income from royalties, however, increased to $32,710.31 from a total of $23,373.92.

Current income, according to the report, is now larger than the average in the first six months and should show a further substantial increase by the bringing in of additional wells now drilling in which the company has royalty interests. Net current assets as of June 30, last, totaled $58,295.40, compared with current liabilities of $19,429.21, or a ratio of three to one.

Income of Ship Line in Slump

NEW YORK, July 30.—For the five months ended May 31, last, Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies Steamship Lines reported net income of $1,262,043 after charges and taxes, equal after allowing for preferred dividends to $4.89 a share on 129,512 common shares.

In the same period of 1929, net income amounted to $1,765,389, equal to $7.41 a share. Net income in May of this year was $20,207, compared to $100,198 in May, 1929. Directors declared a dividend of $1 a share on the common payable August 30 to stock of record August 11. A dividend of the same amount was paid three months ago.

Keeping well balanced!

WITH NEARLY A MILLION CASH ON HAND . . and good loans mighty hard to get in volume . . . the old-fashioned MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA . . has concentrated on getting conservative loans instead of new accounts.

This era of heavy foreclosures by all financial institutions loaning on real estate has proved the value of our 37½ years of ultra-conservatism. As usual, the MUTUAL OF POMONA has had a steady demand for its foreclosed real estate at a profit!

WE HAVE NOT BEEN IMMUNE FROM FORECLOSURES . . with $15,000,000 resources loaned on real estate . . and the MUTUAL OF POMONA only forecloses when all reasonable lee-way has been given the borrower . . yet despite that fact we show a profit on foreclosure sales.

This has been the fourth period of slackened prosperity through which the seasoned management of the MUTUAL OF POMONA has grown with steady plan and undimmed vision. Bargain-hunters for foreclosed properties constantly certify our judgment of loan-values by offers of a profit.

And we immediately apply that profit to marking down current foreclosures. That endless chain of value keeps the "problem" of foreclosures from becoming the usual pest. Investors, borrowers and buyers appreciate the economical methods of the MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA.

Reference is made to a circular which is summarized in part as follows, for a more complete statement respecting the Corporation, these Notes, and the redemption and other provisions in the Note Indenture:

Business: General Gas & Electric Corporation owns or controls public utility companies rendering electric, gas and other utility services to more than 47,000 consumers in important communities in South Carolina and Florida. Lexington Water Power Company, a subsidiary, is developing a hydro-electric site (expected to be in operation about October 1, 1930) on the Saluda River near Columbia, S. C., to have an initial installed capacity of 130,000 kw.

The Corporation has also made large investments in the securities of various public utility enterprises, including the Associated Gas and Electric Company and certain of its subsidiary and affiliated companies.

Earnings: The following statement reflects the annual cash dividend interest income on the securities owned by the Corporation at June 30, 1930, based on present cash dividend and interest rates, and expenses and taxes (excluding Federal income taxes) for the twelve months ended June 30, 1930:

Dividend and Interest Income	$8,186,142
Expenses and Taxes (excluding Federal Income Taxes)	104,845
Net Earnings	$8,081,297
Maximum Annual Interest Charges on these Serial Gold Notes	2,425,000

Net earnings, over 3.3 times the above maximum interest charges

This statement does not reflect the income to be derived from the investment of the proceeds of this issue of Serial Gold Notes or any additional income that may result from the operation of the Saluda hydro-electric development.

In the above income statement all dividend income is taken at present cash dividend rates. If such dividends on securities owned as are at present paid in the form of stock are included and the stock so received is valued on the basis of the current market value thereof, the foregoing net income would be increased by over $1,500,000 and would be equivalent to approximately 4 times the maximum annual interest requirements on these Serial Gold Notes.

Equity: The Corporation, upon completion of this financing, will have no debt except this issue of Serial Gold Notes, current indebtedness incurred in the ordinary course of business and a small amount payable to holders of called securities not yet presented for payment. There were outstanding in the hands of the public at June 30, 1930, subsidiaries' funded debt and preferred stocks having a principal amount or par value aggregating $33,062,900 and 33,324 shares of minority Common Stocks. These Notes will be followed by preferred and common stocks of the Corporation having an indicated present market value of over $135,000,000.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Bard's, Eighth between Broadway and Hill—"True to the Navy." For once Clara Bow has more than she can handle.

Boulevard, Washington at Vermont—"The Big House." An exciting story of prison life well told by Wallace Beery and Chester Morris.

Carthay Circle, Carthay Center—"So This is London." Will Rogers goes abroad again and finds London as funny as Paris.

Chinese, 6925 Hollywood—"Hell's Angels." It took Howard Hughes four years and $4,000,000 to produce the colossus of the air; and it was worth it.

Criterion, 642 South Grand—"Romance." Garbo more glamorous than ever in a picture not equal to the play.

Egyptian, Hollywood Boulevard—"Journey's End." One of the season's pictures. Made from the stage sensation. Colin Clive.

Figueroa, Figueroa at Santa Barbara—"The Social Lion." A light and somewhat whimsical tale of a prize fighter who crashed the social gates. Jack Oakie.

Filmarte, 1228 North Vine—"Asphalt." A ponderous melodrama of assorted crimes sent over from Germany.

Forum, Pico at Norton—"The Flirting Widow." Dorothy Mackaill does the sporting thing.

Loew's State, Broadway at Seventh—"Way Out West." Opens today.

Million Dollar, Broadway at Third—"The Border Legion." The great outdoors is brought back into the public eye in an exciting manner. Jack Holt and Richard Arlen.

Pantages, Hollywood at Vine—"Shadow of the Law." William Powell's latest and much discussed film.

Paramount, Hill at Sixth—"Manslaughter." Opens today.

Ritz, Wilshire at La Brea—"In Gay Madrid." A sometimes charming romance of love and laughter nicely handled by Ramon Novarro.

R.K.O., Hill at Eighth — "Inside the Lines." Opens today.

R.K.O., Orpheum, Broadway at Ninth—"Dixiana." Bebe Daniels in a musical something of the South and of very uncertain caliber.

Tower, Broadway at Eighth—"Golden Dawn." More music, but what of it? Vivienne Segal.

Uptown, Western at Tenth—"The Big Pond." Maurice Chevalier performs in the interests of soap and Claudette Colbert.

Warners' Downtown, Hill at Seventh—"Three Faces East." Good entertainment furnished by the war and Eric von Stroheim with Constance Bennett.

Warners' Hollywood, Hollywood Blvd. at Wilcox—"The Way of All Men." An effective storm spectacle that just misses its point. With Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

Westlake, 638 Alvarado — "The Big Pond."

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at 11th—"Rebound." Ina Claire sparkles in various moods, and the dialogue has bright moments.

El Capitan, Hollyw'd Blvd. nr. Highland—"To the Ladies." The lighter side of domesticity provides amusement such as only Glenn Hunter can offer.

Hollywood Playhouse, 1733 N. Vine—"Fata Morgana." Elsie Ferguson charms anew in this dramatic tale by Ernest Vadja. Tom Douglas comes near to being a sensation as the boy.

Vine Street, Vine nr. Hollywood—"Oh, Judge." A musical melange somewhat enlivened by Bernard Granville.

MIDWEST'S CROPS BURN IN DROUGHT

Central States in Worst Situation in Past Thirty Years, Says Legge

WASHINGTON, July 30. (Exclusive)—Three successive heat waves, relieved only by scattered local showers, have brought about a situation "extremely bad" for immature crops in the Central States, the Department of Agriculture reported in its weekly bulletin today.

Described by Chairman Legge of the Federal Farm Board, as the worst general drought in thirty years, the unusual summer weather has done serious damage, especially to the corn crop, the official report shows, and the prospect is that only widespread rains can give the corn States lasting relief.

"The weather of the week brought some temporary relief through local showers to a few sections of the country, but in general, drought conditions were not only unrelieved on anything like a permanent basis but were actually intensified over large areas by the abnormally high temperatures," the bulletin stated.

NAVY WILL SOON HAVE ITS TALKIES

Problems of Adapting Sound Films to Ships Delay New Programs

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—Sailors will get their talkies aoat as well as on shore by the time the next winter cruise begins.

Difficult problems encountered on ships have caused the long delay in adapting the modern form of moving-picture entertainment by the Navy. New equipment had to be devised and work on it has been speeded up so the Navy expects to let contracts in August. Approximately $500,000 will be spent for the new machinery.

Before the talkies became so popular the 600 silent pictures produced annually were ample for the Navy to make its selection. Now the silent production has fallen so only sixty will be available this year. The sound picture equipment will go on 200 ships.

British Flyer's Body Found in Burmese Wilds

LONDON, July 30. (AP)—Advices from Rangoon say the body of Eric Hook, English aviator, has been found in the Burmese wilds by an expedition of the London Daily Mail.

His young wife, however, refuses to believe he is dead. Her hope is based on an unconfirmed report the 19th inst. Hook was alive and being cared for by villagers.

Hook and James Matthews were attempting a flight from England to Australia when forced to land in the wilderness. Matthews sought to find the way out while Hook was unable to travel. Matthews eventually reached safety.

Cut in Shipping to be Discussed

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—Decreased commerce has led Chairman E. T. V. O'Connor of the Shipping Board to call a "friendly conference" of shippers engaged in the intercoastal trade.

Two lines have suggested because of fewer cargoes now available, each line should withdraw some of its vessels so the remainder could operate at a profit. Other operators have objected to this proposal and it will be considered at the conference.

The date of the conference has not been set.

Owner Admits Bombing Plot

SOUTH RIVER (N. J.) July 30. (AP)—Leo Wladyke has admitted, police declared today, that he consented to the bombing of his home and embroidery factory when a stranger proposed the destruction to collect $15,000 in insurance.

The home and factory were razed yesterday by a time bomb and in the ruins was found the body of Peter Barone, laborer.

WOMEN HELD FOR BURNING OF BABY

EL PASO, July 30. (AP)—Two women, Josefina Aguirre, 24 years of age, and Rosilisa Roja, 23, were arrested in connection with the burning to death today of Mrs. Roja's 18-month-old baby. The charred remains of the infant were found in a kerosene-soaked quilt in the tenement house in South El Paso occupied by the women.

PRESIDENT'S WIFE WILL CHRISTEN NEW SHIP

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—Mrs. Herbert Hoover will go to Camden, N. J., Tuesday to christen the new steamship Excalibur of the American Export Steamship Company. The President's wife will be accompanied by Capt. Russell Train, chief naval aide to the President.

SMALL BOY LOST ON OUTING FOUND

EUGENE (Or.) July 30. (AP)—Five-year-old James Paddock, Jr., missing since yesterday while on a fishing trip with his father, was found late today by searchers five miles from where he disappeared. He was uninjured.

BROADCAST 'AD' FALLING FLAT

Stereotyped Presentations Dodged by Listeners-in Variety Necessary to Win Ear of Radio Audience

Irving Fisher, Tenor, to be Featured Over KHJ

The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m. Fred Hogue, editorial staff writer, on "Vermejo."

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

IRVING FISHER

Advertising by radio is a subtle art. Originally the sponsor was content that his program should be broadcast as a good-will greeting. Very soon, however, an attempt at merchandising entered. In early days of radio effort was made to get as many letters from listeners as possible by offering something free. Neither the merchandise nor the gift has proved successful probably due to the fact that the new in radio soon wears off. And with many advertisers in the field the program becomes complex.

I cannot understand why national advertisers and large producers are willing to spend sums of money to sponsor radio programs and then allow the same stereotyped advertisement to go out day after day. Variety is highly essential in radio programs, in music, continuity or other presentations. It is particularly essential in direct contact with the public in advertising.

"We have learned the spiel by heart," writes one radio fan, referring to certain programs. "When the music fades out we turn the dial instantly to some other station." Publicity managers, we believe, will find that the opening or closing greeting of a program should never be repeated. After all, it is the personal touch which counts and which will hold the attention of the listener-in.

FEATURES ON DIAL TODAY

KHJ at 6 o'clock tonight will feature Elvia Allman, Nell Larson and Wesley Tourtellotte in a combination of organ and piano, two pianos and Elvia as the guest soloist. The period is titled "Pianoville." At 7:15 Heywood Broun, one of New York's outstanding columnists, will survey things as they are. The Merrymakers at 8 tonight are to desert comedy and nonsense to toss a barrage of musical novelties. Chief among newcomers on this weekly hour will be Zimmermann and Grandville, said to be among the best yodlers of the day. Another feature will be the singing of Irving Fisher, former tenor star with Marilyn Miller in Ziegfeld's "Sally." Tonight will be largely devoted to songs sung in the style of other famous singers. Bert Williams, Rudy Vallee, Slim Martin and Heinroch Knote all will be included in the mimicry of Elvia Allman, Carl Omeron, Lindsay MacHarrie and Ted White. Even the Swiss yodelers promise to imitate themselves.

THREE CONDUCTORS

KFI at 6 p.m. is to feature R.C.A. Hour with three conductors wielding batons and Johnny Johnson's dance orchestra featured as guest artists, Elliott Shaw, baritone, will be guest soloist. Their offerings are to include popular music, dance numbers and a review of old favorites. At 7:45 tonight, Standard Symphony Hour will bid for the dial with Director Mishel Piastro as solo violinist. Strauss's valse "Wine, Woman and Song," Greig's "Solveig's Song" and Massenet's ballet "Le Cid" will be highlights. The serial playlet "Circumstantial Evidence" is to near its denouement at 8:45 p.m.

KECA at 8 o'clock tonight will dramatize Henry Melville's adventures among cannibals. Melville's "Moby Dick" is recognized as a literary classic. John Moncrieff, American Opera Company basso, will be the featured artist.

KNX from 12 noon to 1 p.m. is to bring Nuno's orchestra at the Silver Slipper Cafe, with Frank Jaconelli, accordionist, as master of ceremonies. At 9:30 p.m. Eugenie Egloff, 'cellist, and Theodore Kittay, tenor, will present a program of classical selections.

KFWB will feature two concert periods, the first at 7:10 tonight and the second at 9 p.m. when Ray Martinez's concert orchestra will have as its guest soloist the Boswell Sisters.

KMTR will bring another night baseball game from Wrigley Field at 8:30.

KTM at 8 o'clock, with its miniature symphony orchestra, is to take listeners-in through California and a bit of Old Mexico.

DELAWARE SENATE RACE DRAWS BAYARD

WILMINGTON (Del.) July 30. (AP)—Former United States Senator Thomas F. Bayard of Wilmington today announced he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Senator. The State convention will be held in September. Bayard will try to succeed Daniel O. Hastings, Republican, who has announced his candidacy for another term and who so far is the only Republican in the field. Bayard said he favored repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and repeal of the Tariff Act recently passed.

WANT-AD NEWS FOR BUSINESS BUYERS

"Small payment down and balance to suit," says party presenting terms for purchase of his going florist business.

Among today's offerings is opportunity to acquire both gas station and garage from one advertiser.

City Boat Taken in Rum Seizure

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—A municipal dumping barge and two trucks containing liquor valued at $60,000 were seized by customs agents at the foot of Roosevelt street in the East River today.

The agents arrested twenty-two men, two of whom, they said, wore badges of the city street cleaning department. The site of the seizure is an ash dump.

Customs officers believe the barge had made contact with a liquor runner when it was twelve miles out dumping refuse. The barge was towed to the United States barge office.

Tells Quickest Way To Stop Neuritis

Kills Pain and Enables the Helpless to Get Up and Walk

It is now a positive fact that startling results follow the use of Nurito for rheumatic pain, neuritis, sciatica, lumbago and neuralgia. And strange as it may seem this amazing remedy contains no opiates or narcotics and is even safe for a child to take. And in order that the number of sufferers who have tried everything with no success can test Nurito, you can try it on this daring guarantee. If it doesn't prove the most wonderful success—if the very first three doses do not stop the most intense pain your money will be refunded. Helpless, bedridden, pain-racked, sleepless people, torturing pain are the ones who particularly should try this wonderful Nurito on this positive guarantee. Try it today. Don't wait. DR. SMITH HAILS NEW OIL TREND

Wilbur Indicates Extension of Kettleman Leases

DR. GEORGE OTIS SMITH.

Oil operators all over the country are learning to think and work together for oil and gas conservation, according to Dr. George Otis Smith, director of the United States Geological Survey, who is at the Biltmore in Los Angeles to investigate the petroleum situation in California.

The last year has seen a pronounced change of sentiment, declared Dr. Smith. Although, he continued, the progress has been largely of an intangible nature, it nevertheless is a decided step forward, with oil operators showing a constantly increasing tendency to view themselves in the light of partners instead of rivals.

PARTICULAR INTEREST

Particularly interested in the situation in the Kettleman Hills district, where the government is a large owner, Dr. Smith said that he plans to visit that field shortly. The oil armistice entered into by Kettleman Hills operators has a year to run, the visitor commented, and hope is felt for permanent peace.

Under legislation passed at the last session of Congress, Dr. Smith said, government lessees can participate in the right kind of conservation plans. Unit development is seen as the solution of the oil industry's problems.

SHARING URGED

The director said that oil men must go into partnership with nature and then share alike. He said that he looks forward to the day when underground rights will be recognized along with surface rights. He described a situation in which the flow of a gusher might damage adjoining property, with the owner of the gusher held liable for the havoc, yet the oil in part would be coming from underneath the nearby premises.

Dr. Smith expects to be in California about two weeks.

WILBUR EXPLAINS PLAN FOR EXTENSION

That the government will consider favorably the extension of leases to operators in the Kettleman Hills oil field, was indicated yesterday at the Biltmore, where Secretary of the Interior Wilbur met with the oil and gas conservation committee of that field to discuss informally the unit co-operative plan.

Secretary Wilbur assured members of the committee that if a plan is adopted bringing about an orderly development of the field, the government undoubtedly will extend the leases for the life of the field.

To enable early adoption of a plan, the committee, headed by William Reinhardt of the Shell Oil Company, was requested to prepare one to become operative at expiration of the agreement now in effect and which expires July 31, 1931. Mr. Reinhardt's committee has until January 31, 1931, to submit its plan to Secretary Wilbur, Dr. George Otis Smith, chief of the United States Geological Survey, will confer with members of the Kettleman Hills committee.

Monnette Heads Library Board

The Board of Library Commissioners yesterday announced the election of Orra E. Monnette as president for the ensuing year. Commissioner Francis J. Conaty, it was announced further, has been re-elected vice-president. Both have been members of the board for fifteen years.

Monnette's elevation to the presidency was made possible by his reappointment by Mayor Porter last week.

COLLECTOR WILL MOVE

Galen H. Welch, Collector of Internal Revenue, announced yesterday that his office will be moved Saturday, to 939 South Broadway. Collector Welch will occupy the entire second floor and a part of the third floor at this new location.

The collector's office will open for business at 8:30 a.m. Monday. The telephone number will remain the same, MUtual 7381.

FREAK HEAT WAVE WILL END TODAY

Forecast of Cloudy and Cooler Weather Issued; Mercury Reaches 95 Deg.

Formation of two unexpected low-pressure areas, one in the interior over the desert and another over the ocean, was the explanation advanced by the United States Weather Bureau for yesterday's high temperatures. The observers said a corresponding low pressure area had formed below San Diego and that the combination had prevented the usual cooling winds from the ocean.

Yesterday's maximum thermometer reading of 95 deg. was taken at 12:30 p.m., with a subnormal humidity reading of 31 per cent. The low relative humidity coupled with the higher temperatures brought a warning from the Weather Bureau that a dangerous fire hazard existed in the interior.

Thermometer readings taken hourly at the Weather Bureau yesterday were:

6 a.m.	68 degs.
7 a.m.	72 degs.
8 a.m.	82 degs.
9 a.m.	91 degs.
10 a.m.	94 degs.
11 a.m.	91 degs.
12 noon	93 degs.
12:30 p.m. (Max.)	95 degs.
1 p.m.	93 degs.
2 p.m.	91 degs.
3 p.m.	93 degs.
4 p.m.	93 degs.
5 p.m.	93 degs.
6 p.m.	86 degs.

Records of the United States Weather Bureau at San Diego gave the maximum temperature there yesterday as 96 deg., the hottest July 30 on record. The freakish hot wave there was accompanied by sprinkles of rain and thunder showers are predicted for today in the mountains back of the city.

A few drops of rain fell yesterday at Anaheim, hardly enough to wet the pavement but enough to lower the temperature. The maximum recorded at Pasadena was 103 deg.

The official forecast given last night read: "Cloudy and cooler Thursday; Friday generally fair, gentle to variable winds." The forecast for cooler weather was borne out last night with a rising wind.

SAN FRANCISCO HAS HOTTEST DAY OF YEAR

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30. (Exclusive)—The warmest day of the year to date was registered today when the mercury climbed to a maximum of 84 deg. shortly before noon. Readings of 100 deg. or higher were reported generally from the interior valleys.

Seaman Sees Pet Hobby of Air Burn Up

F. R. Burris, first-class seaman attached to Coast Guard Base No. 17, sadly rubbed a bruised head yesterday and watched the plane he had bought for $500 only a week ago go up in flame and smoke on the mudflats at the foot of Nineteenth street, San Pedro.

Burris and the plane had come down together on the flats in a forced landing with a dead stick. Then, when danger seemed over, the plane nosed over and caught fire.

The plane was a second-hand Eagle Rock, and Burris bought it as a private venture, to enjoy the thrills of flying when off duty in the Coast Guard. Landlubbers fly, so why not a seaman?

The motor went dead yesterday not long after Burris took off. He received a severe bruise over the right eye in the landing. He lives at 1405 South Grand avenue, San Pedro.

Hugh C. McGuire Again Honored

Hugh G. McGuire was re-elected president of the Board of Public Works yesterday and Carl B. Wirsching was re-elected vice-president. This will mark McGuire's sixth term as president in the ten years he has been on the board.

There are but four members of the board. Mayor Porter will not appoint a successor to E. J. Delorey until the Supreme Court settles the legality of his ousting and it was prior to yesterday's meeting that there was an even division over the election of officers.

RIDING AND WRITING RECONCILED

Columnist Installs Typewriter in Auto

Velva Darling at Her Traveling Typewriter

Writing with a pencil in a fast-moving car is no fun. Ask Velva Darling. She'll tell you.

Miss Darling, called the "modern girl philosopher," is the author of a daily column. She travels extensively and uses incidents she comes across on the road as subject matter. Finding that writing notes with a pencil while traveling proved impractical, she installed a portable typewriter under the dashboard of her car.

Now she says that writing is a pleasure, and that her notes are at least legible.

Miss Darling arrived here yesterday from San Diego, and will leave early this morning for her home in San Luis Obispo.

LAST RITES OF LISSNER CONDUCTED

Former Federal Shipping Board Member's Funeral at Wee Kirk

The body of Meyer Lissner, former member of the United States Shipping Board, who died Tuesday at his home, 644 South June street, after a short illness, was laid to rest at 11 a.m. yesterday at Forest Lawn Memorial Park after services were conducted in the Wee Kirk o' the Heather.

Mr. Lissner, a native of California, was prominent in both State and national politics. For many years he was active in civic affairs and was one of the organizers of the Los Angeles City Club. He was also a member of the Los Angeles Municipal League and vice-president of the National Municipal League, as well as a member of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco.

In 1909 he served as president of the Los Angeles Board of Public Utilities. Lissner was made a member of the State Industrial Accident Commission in 1915 and in 1928 was appointed head of that organization by Gov. Young. He held that post until his death. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Ermine Greenhood Lissner, two sons, Louis M. Lissner, a Los Angeles attorney, and Jay G. Lissner, also of this city, and a daughter, Miss Aline Lissner, a student at Stanford University.

VINEYARDIST IN NEW POST

Leo C. Monahan, vice-president of the California Vineyardists' Association, has resigned his position in order to become affiliated with the North Ontario Packing Company at Los Angeles as sales manager.

TWO CHAIRS OF AVIATION SET UP HERE

Local Air Lines Endow Courses in Aeronautics at Trojan University

With the opening of the fall semester, September 15, next, two courses in aviation education will be established at University of Southern California through generosity of corporation executives, it was announced yesterday. They are the Harris M. Hanshue chair of commercial aviation, endowed by Western Air Express and named for its president, and the James A. Talbot chair of aeronautical engineering, endowed by Richfield Oil Company and named for the chairman of its board of directors.

The course in commercial aviation will include study of airplane transportation management, selection and layout of airports, problems of operation embracing traffic surveys, public relations, advertising and legal matters, and principles of insurance as applied to aviation. It will be in charge of Earl W. Hill, lecturer in the college of commerce and business administration, in which it will be listed as a major subject.

The chair of aeronautical engineering will provide a professorship for instruction in principles of aviation, aerodynamics, design of engines, propellers and structure, and airport management. Supplemental courses in shop and laboratory work will be given at flying fields. This chair will be filled by James M. Shoemaker, professor in the college of engineering, assisted by Capt. Douglas Keeney, chief ground-school instructor at Standard Flying Schools.

Dark Angel Blocks Trip to Old Home

Many years had elapsed since Mrs. Ella Cannon, 78 years of age, had left Iowa City, Iowa, to come to Los Angeles. Her early recollections were centered in that midwestern city. The friends she had made in girlhood were there and after all it was home.

So Mrs. Cannon was greatly excited at the prospect of leaving Los Angeles yesterday on a visit to Iowa City. There were a great many things to attend to; tickets to buy, all sorts of preparations to be made, all of which were a little trying for anyone several years beyond the biblical three score and ten.

The train for Iowa City left, but at 517 West First street lay a tired, crumpled little old woman who would never make that journey. The strain of getting ready and the excitement of going back home had been too much for Mrs. Cannon.

"Heart disease," declared the physician, after examining the dead woman.

COUNCIL VOTES COLISEUM FUND

Provision of $227,000 will Complete Enlargement

Work on Unfinished Portion will Begin at Once

Special Cash Allotment Avoids Budget Grief

Appropriation of $227,000 by the City Council yesterday assured the completion of the enlarged Coliseum which will give Los Angeles one of the largest stadia in the world and raise the seating capacity of the structure to 105,000.

Work on the unfinished portion will be started immediately and the massive structure will be complete in all details for the Olympic Games of 1932. Most of the improvements will be ready for the use of the public in November, and will probably be thrown open for the big football games late in the season.

SPECIAL FUND USED

Action of the Council in appropriating the fund and setting at rest reports that an incomplete and unfinished stadium would rear its ugly head above the gridiron contests this year and possibly mar the appearance of the structure in 1932 when athletes from all over the world gather within its gates, came with a vote on the report of the Finance and Legislative Committee.

The money comes from a special fund and is not affected by the budgetary troubles of the city government. Contracts for the construction of Unit B will be awarded in a few days by the Board of Public Works, it was announced.

Opposition to the appropriation dwindled after some of the insurgent Councilmen visited the unfinished structure, and only four members, Councilmen McAllister, Randall, Martin and Williams, voted against the financing, the final vote being 11 to 4.

ONE UNIT COMPLETED

Work on the rebuilding of the Coliseum has been under way as two units. Unit A has just recently been completed, and allocation of funds by the Council to finish Unit B was urged by President Austin of the Chamber of Commerce, President Von KleinSmid of the University of Southern California, and many other leading citizens, when it appeared that opposition might develop which would leave the stadium in a dangerous and unsightly condition.

Councilman Cooke, chairman of the Finance Committee, and who had formerly opposed the appropriation, but who led the move along with Councilman Davis for the needed funds, said that an inspection of the bowl in its present state convinced him of the necessity of the additional work.

WILLIAMS OPPOSED

Councilman Williams, who voiced his opposition to the appropriation, said that he was against the improvement, charging no guarantee is given the city that profits will be derived from the operation of the stadium.

Other members of the Council pointed out provisions of the contract under which the Community Development Association will continue to operate the Coliseum for the next three years. This provides that the structure shall be operated on a nonprofit basis, all surplus to go to the city and county which are financing the improvements.

The Board of Supervisors have already signified their intention of providing $227,000 as the county's part of the financing plan. Action of the Council is final and only the awarding of the contract is now necessary to get the work under way and to complete the great bowl.

FLINT WILLS LARGE SUMS TO CHARITY

Of $750,000 Estate Left by Slain Man, $500,000 will Go to Help Needy

Of the $750,000 estate of Motley Flint, slain in a courtroom by Frank D. Keaton, more than $500,000 will go to charitable purposes, according to the will admitted to probate by Superior Judge Crail yesterday.

Attorney Henry MacKay represented the estate and Mrs. Gertrude Flint, widow of the murdered man, was in the courtroom. The will was dated September 12, 1924, and of three codicils the last was dated March 22, 1929. Friends and relatives were given $180,000 and the widow received $50,000 in trust, it being stated that financial aid previously had been given her. The Security-First National Bank of Los Angeles was appointed executor.

FORD WILL BUILD NEW STEEL UNIT

Addition at Long Beach Soon will Make Parts Now Shipped from East

Contracts were awarded yesterday by the Ford Motor Company for the erection of a large addition to the new Ford assembly plant at Long Beach. Work will start immediately and the addition will be completed by February 1, 1931.

The new addition, according to Ford officials, will be known as the pressed steel building. It will be used for the manufacture of pressed steel parts used in both Ford cars and trucks, such as wheels, running boards, radiator shells, etc. This will mark a new departure on this Coast as heretofore all such parts have been manufactured in the East and shipped here.

The structure will be 86 feet wide, 480 feet long and 48 feet high. Steel, brick and concrete will be used and it will be similar to the present building.

The Crinton Construction Company, which erected the present plant was given the general architectural trade contract which includes the piling and steel sides. Other contracts let include: H. H. Obermiller, electrical work; Fire Protection Engineering Company, sprinkler system, Consolidated Steel Company, structural steel.

The cost was not made public.

Dedication of Branch Library Building Held

The John Muir Branch Library Building was formally dedicated yesterday evening at 7:30. This new branch library is located at 1005 West Sixty-fourth street, and has been erected at a cost of $45,000, after plans drawn by Henry F. Withey.

Mrs. Otto Zahn, Library Commissioner, acted as chairman of the dedicatory program, which included an address on "California's Out of Doors" by Dr. Loye Miller of the University of California at Los Angeles, and a talk on the "Personal Recollections of John Muir" by Samuel Merrill of the Sierra Club.

The John Muir Branch formerly occupied a store building on Fifty-ninth street, near Vermont, which was donated, rent free, for two years by F. W. Braun.

LAUGHLIN TO HEAD ART COMMISSION

The Municipal Art Commission organized for the coming year yesterday, electing Stewart Laughlin president and Mrs. Jules Kauffman vice-president. Laughlin succeeds Mrs. William J. Wilson.

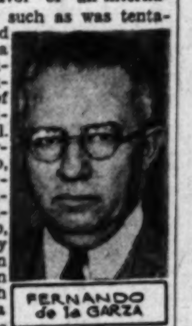
MEXICO FAVORS HIGHWAY PLAN

Visitors Say International Road to be Boosted

Governors Expect to Come Here in October

Officials Want Countrymen to Settle on Lands

Sentiment in Mexico is wholeheartedly in favor of an international highway such as was tentatively surveyed recently by a party of engineers of the Automobile Club of Southern California, Col. Eduardo Hernandez Chazaro, private secretary to President Ortiz Rubio of Mexico, said yesterday on his arrival in Los Angeles in company with Fernando De la Garza, superintendent of Presidential buildings in Mexico.



FERNANDO de la GARZA

Enthusiasm with which the project to construct the highway is viewed may be gauged from the fact that the governors of all the States through which the road would run will come to Los Angeles in October to attend a conference on the subject, said the visitor.

WORK ON HIGHWAY

"Work on a highway of approximately 1500 miles that will connect Laredo with Mexico City is practically completed," said Col. Chazaro. "The task will be finished before the end of the year."

Col. Chazaro said that the temperance movement under way in Mexico is making good progress. Evils of intemperance are being pointed out, he said, by the national health department. Schools and films are embraced in the campaign.

"As a result of the educational campaign," he said, "drinking has shown a decided decrease. I doubt if one could find a drunken man in the streets of Mexico City now."

INVITE COUNTRYMEN

One of the chief purposes of the visitor's trip to California is to determine how many Mexicans will respond to the invitation of their country to return to Mexico. Recently completed irrigation projects give assurance of ample supplies of water on 500,000 acres of land, which will be allotted to Mexican colonists. The vast tracts of land will be irrigated by water stored behind the San Martin Dam in Tamaulipas; the Xicotencatl dam, which will furnish water for lands in two States; Zacatecas and Aguascali and the Calles Dam in Tamaulipas.

The President has completely recovered from the effects of an attempt to assassinate him, the visitors said.

Col. Chazaro and Senor De la Garza expect to be in Los Angeles four or five days. They were greeted here by a number of leading Los Angeles Mexicans, headed by Consul Pesqueira.

VETOING OF PAVING JOB OVERRIDDEN

Council Votes Without Dissent for Improvement of Tenth Street

Without a dissenting vote the City Council yesterday overrode Mayor Porter's veto of the final ordinance for the paving of a two-and-one-half mile link of Tenth street between Rimpau and Robertson boulevards, known as the Olympic Boulevard and Stanley avenue improvement district.

The Board of Public Works now can advertise for bids for the construction of the street and the work can be completed in a few months, whereas, if the Mayor had had his way, the whole project would have been delayed for an indefinite term.

MINNESOTANS TO MEET

The monthly social of the Minnesotans will be held tomorrow evening in Music Arts Hall, 233 South Broadway.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

The loveliest thing that happens during the whole year in California is the annual August fiesta in Santa Barbara. It does much to keep alive the traditions and memories of that most charming period of American history.

CHEERED FOR BOTH SIDES

Santa Barbara has always been that kind of town.

In the days of trouble and strife when revolutions stormed against first the Spanish; then the Mexican flag; when the American flag swept them both away and soldiers came tramping through her streets, Santa Barbara welcomed them all.

At the De la Guerra house they gave a grand party for the invader; then a grand party for the soldiers who chased the invader out.

Anything was an excuse for a party. The De la Guerras hired an orchestra by the year and the guests of the house and the senoritas of the family (who were many and lovely) often began dancing before breakfast and never stopped until bedtime.

BATTLING COUNCILMEN

As to the two City Councilmen battling over the Pershing Square sidewalks, why didn't they battle over something worth while—as, for instance, taking some of that terrible municipal statuary away—those dropsical babies at the fountain, and that dinky little memorial to the World War veterans, and that ghastly-looking atrocity of art erected to the memory of the Spanish War veterans? Our soldiers deserve something better by way of memorial.

ART MEMORIALS

Before it is too late, plans should be adopted for something worth while in the way of art memorials in Los Angeles. When you see the magnificent memorials in Mexico City and think of ours, you don't know whether to snicker or blush.

I think there should be three great memorials in Los Angeles; one to each of three epochal periods of our history.

One should be a statue to the pioneers—to our Pilgrim fathers—Cabrillo, who discovered California; Jedediah Smith, the first American to touch California soil; Juan Bautista de Anza, the first to cross the plains to California; De Neve, who founded the city; and Portola and Father Serra, who together brought civilization. Obviously this memorial should be in the old Plaza.

There should be another to the memory of the middle period when the American flag was first erected over the little pueblo, and it became American soil; and a third to the modern period.

HONOR THE BUCK PRIVATE

I hope they have memorials of other kinds than statuary—which is unrestful and tiresome. Every time I pass that Stephen M. White statue in front of the Courthouse I am hoping that he has taken his gesturing arm down since I last saw it.

Why a statue to a man, anyhow? Why name a park after Pershing when it is probable that many an unknown flat-footed buck private did more to win the war? The statue to the Unknown Soldier started a great idea. One of the finest statues in Mexico—if I may mention it again—is the mild, timid figure of an old lady who saved Morelia's life—just an old housewife who did her part.

There is too much hero stuff

Numerous Officials Take Part in Ceremony at Weldon Canyon Highway Dedication

Contrasting the day more than half a century ago, when Phineas Banning sat perilous and alone on the hurricane deck of a plunging stage coach and after hours of sweating, swearing and toil, finally triumphed through the mountains, a long string of modern automobiles headed by one in which sat Gov. Young, yesterday negotiated the newly completed Weldon Canyon road without a sigh from any of the motors.

The occasion marked the completion of the new road which not only eliminates a long-congested bottle-neck on the inland route to the north in the vicinity of Newhall and Saugus, but materially shortens the route over the ridge as well.

Officials of the State, representatives of three counties, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the Automobile Club of Southern California participated in the brief ceremony.

As the first unit of work being sponsored by the State Department of Public Works to improve the road through San Joaquin Valley and materially lower the percentage of curvature on the ridge, the Weldon Canyon road turns from the main highway just before the Newhall tunnel is reached after leaving San Fernando. The road has few turns and follows an almost straight course to Castaic, where the ridge section begins.

Yesterday's program was in charge of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce in recognition of the part the organization has played in urging the building of the new highway.

H. R. Brashear, traffic manager of the Chamber, appeared first on the program and introduced B. R. Holloway, director of the organization, who served as master of ceremonies. B. B. Meek, director of the State Department of Public Works, told briefly of a few of the engineering details of the project and also made a plea for noninterference with the present gas-tax sys-

"HELL'S ANGELS" OWNER ASSAILS "DAWN PATROL"

Asserting that the larger portion of the motion picture "The Dawn Patrol" was taken from "Hell's Angels," the Caddo Company, Inc., headed by Howard Hughes, yesterday filed suit in United States District Court against Warner Brothers, Inc., and First National Pictures.

It is charged by the plaintiff company that the defendant companies, their subsidiaries and various individuals infringed the copyright on "Hell's Angels." The plaintiffs seek an injunction against further presentation of "The Dawn Patrol," released about three weeks ago.

In the complaint it is asserted that Robert MacKay in 1922 originated a composition called "Somewhere in Mexico," selling the rights to Marshall A. Neilan, producer, in 1927. It is stated that Neilan and Benjamin Glazer adapted the story and called the production "Hell's Angels," selling the right to the Caddo company.

It is asserted by the plaintiff company that it spent $3,000,000 in producing the picture and that the picture now is worth $5,000,000. "The Dawn Patrol" was directed by Howard Hawks and written by Joe Monk Saunders and parts, it is charged, were taken from other pictures.

DAM QUIZ BOARD NAMED

Noted Engineers to Figure Cost of Dirt Removal as Echo of Row Over San Gabriel Site Work

Concluding a week of intensive study, the county grand jury committee appointed to select experts to investigate asserted overpayment of contractors for excavations on the abandoned San Gabriel dam site, last night announced the appointment of three engineers of national and State prominence.

The men, who already have accepted the appointment and are ready to begin work at once, are Porter H. Albright, president of the Los Angeels chapter of the American Association of Engineers; R. V. Meikel, chief engineer of the Turlock Irrigation District, and Franklin Thomas, professor of engineering at the California Institute of Technology, Pasadena. Mr. Thomas also is a national director of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

All three of the men, according to the grand jury committee, have years of successful engineering experience and at present occupy responsible positions in the engineering world.

Announcement of the appointments was made public in a letter addressed to the Board of Supervisors, and mailed last night by the grand jury committee headed by Thomas O'Neill. Other members of the committee are Frederic I. Morris, Homer J. Carr, A. W. Townsend and C. S. Thompson.

In calling the Supervisors' attention to the matter, the committeemen stated:

"The survey will begin promptly and be completed as rapidly as possible consistent with the result required, namely, to determine with the greatest degree of accuracy the volume of material excavated at the San Gabriel Dam site. The engineers selected have agreed among themselves and with the committee as to the methods under which the survey shall be conducted.

"The grand jury has decided that all records of the survey and final report will be open for examination to any party interested in the con-

Love Letters Spur Hunt for Missing Daughter of State Official and Sweetheart

CLEWS POINT TO ELOPEMENT

Romance of Schoolgirl and Deaf Youth Revealed

Parents Speed to Border in Move to Catch Pair

Couple Corresponded with Help of Servant

LONG BEACH, July 30.—Elopement of 15-year-old June Stevenson, Berkeley High School senior, with Stephen N. Nieto, 20-year-old Mexican, former student at the State School for the Deaf and Dumb, directed by the girl's father at Berkeley, is suspected by police, who are investigating the disappearance of Miss Stevenson from the temporary home of her parents here last night.

Nieto, who is deaf, resides at 123 West State street here. He also is missing, police reported.

PAIR LEAVE NOTES

Miss Stevenson left the apartment of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Stevenson, 1311 East Ocean Boulevard, last night, leaving a note which stated she was going to Los Angeles to be on her own for a week. Nieto left a note to his parents last night stating he was going to Mexico City.

Mrs. Williamson, head of the police mising person detail, reported today the discovery of letters from the girl to the Mexican student revealing a romance betwen the daughter of the State School superintendent and the Mexican student.

The parents of the girl departed for Agua Caliente today in the belief that the pair have gone to Mexico to be married.

ON VACATION VISIT

The Stevenson family is spending the vacation in Long Beach. Miss Stevenson is declared by parents and friends to be an attractive girl and a brilliant student.

She is 5 feet 5 inches in height, has blue eyes, reddish-brown hair and fair complexion.

Discovery by police that the pair have been corresponding for some time through an arrangement whereby letters from Nieto to the girl at Berkeley, since he returned to his home here in May, were delivered by a servant, was reported in the inquiry today.

LOOKS LIKE FILM STAR

Nieto, in his message to his parents, is reported to have admitted taking money from his mother's purse to finance his trip to Mexico.

In departing the girl took extra clothing. The police description of the missing youth declares "he looks like Ronald Colman, is 5 feet 9 inches in height and weighs 140 pounds."

troversy which has arisen over this matter."

The San Gabriel Dam inquiry was precipitated six weeks ago when charges were made that contractors were overpaid nearly $800,000 for excavations at the abandoned dam site. Certain engineers who interested themselves in the matter asserted that only approximately 600,000 yards of earth was removed while the county had paid for the removal of 713,000 yards.

Because of the technical nature of the investigation, a complete report is not expected from the engineering committee until after September 4, next, when the grand jury will resume its sessions following a summer vacation.

SEARCH FOR PAIR TURNS TO DESERT

Salesman and Seamstress Missing Week Believed on Possible Vacation

Search for Mrs. Emma Simpson, seamstress, and Fred Carter, middle-aged salesman, missing together since the 23rd inst., turned late yesterday to a desert locality near Los Angeles where the man is said to have a ranch. Sterling Simpson, the woman's son, and Powell Carter, the man's stepson, left for the vicinity, which they declined to designate, on the strength of a statement made to police earlier in the day by a druggist.

The druggist told Detectives Cowart and Gilette the couple had purchased sandwiches in his store at Normandie avenue and Hollywood Boulevard on the day of their disappearance and that he had overheard them make mention of going to the desert. This led young Simpson and young Carter to believe the couple may be vacationing at the ranch. They told police they would return here early today with any information they may obtain.

Mrs. Simpson lived at El Cortez Hotel, Santa Monica Boulevard and Wilton Place, and Carter at 1717 North Alexandria avenue. Investigation, launched when Mrs. J. Bailey of 427 North Normandie avenue reported their disappearance, revealed that Mrs. Simpson drove away with Carter after visiting her son, although she had complained of the salesman's persistent offers of marriage.

CHAIN STORE OWNER DIES AS SUICIDE

Albert John Clark, Head of Southland Company, Hangs Self in Beach Home

LAGUNA BEACH, July 30. (Exclusive)—The lifeless body of Albert John Clark, head a chain of stores in Southern California, was found this afternoon in a clothes closet of his summer home here.

Clark, who resides at 180 South Mansfield avenue in Los Angeles, came here two months ago from Texas where he has been undergoing treatment in a sanatorium. He was accompanied by Mrs. Clark and James Ryan, a male nurse and attendant.

About 3 p.m. today Ryan returned from a trip to Balboa Beach, and on reaching the home was unable to find Clark. He searched through the house, according to his story to police, and found the body hanging from a hook in the closet. The cord from a dressing gown had been tightly tied around the neck and then pulled over the hook.

Authorities were summoned by Ryan and Chief of Police Johns and Sheriff Jernigan took charge of the body and investigation. Dr. E. D. Day examined the body at the Laguna Beach undertaking parlors and declared that he believed the suicide was accomplished about 2 p.m. Police are attempting to locate Mrs. Clark, who is spending a few days in Balboa Beach, to notify her of the suicide.

Identification of Clark was made by police from letters and cards in his desk at the home, and a complete list of the addresses of his fourteen stores and their managers.

Police reported they found nothing that would indicate a reason for the self-destruction.

JESSE JAMES'S SON SEEKS QUIET LIFE

He Denies Youthful Bandit Suspect's Claim to Kinship

JESSE JAMES JR.

WHATEVER bandit ambitions may have existed in the James family died with Jesse in 1882, according to Jesse E. James, the son of the famous bandit, now a Los Angeles resident. Yesterday Mr. James, a retired attorney, complained of the assertions made by a Chicago youth arrested on suspicion of a petty theft that he is a grandson of the original Jesse James.

"I am the only son of Jesse James and I have four daughters, but no son," Mr. James declared. "This Chicago boy simply picked on the name because he was arrested. He is certainly no relation."

Jesse E. James has been a resident of Los Angeles for four years. He came here from Kansas City and for a time practiced law, but retired about two years ago on account of poor health.

Recently his wife and four daughters opened a cafe at 11950 Washington Boulevard, stocked it with mementos of the man whose name once spread terror through the Middle West and have named the place "Jesse James's Cabin." It was built as a replica of the original James farm cabin near Kansas City, and visitors to the place can inspect the boots the elder James wore when he was shot on April 3, 1882, can heft the old Winchester rifle and rattle the spurs that once goaded the James horses.

The daughters are all employed in Los Angeles, two of them holding responsible positions with banks.

A half brother of the original Jesse James, John Samuel, is living in Long Beach and is writing a history of his famous kinsman.

One Killed and Two Injured in Traffic Mishaps

One man was killed and two persons were perhaps fatally injured in auto crashes yesterday. Howard Anderson, 35 years of age, 1844 Belclaire street, San Gabriel, died of his injuries en route to the San Fernando Health Center. Carl P. Abayta, 926 Palm street, San Gabriel, who was riding with him suffered a basal skull fracture and is expected to die. Harry A. Husted, 31 years of age, 645 1-2 South Sydney street, a messenger, while riding a motorcycle collided with an auto and received injuries which probably will cause his death.

Anderson was killed and Abayta injured when their car struck a truck on San Fernando Road, driven by Otis Price, employee of a Van Nuys produce company.

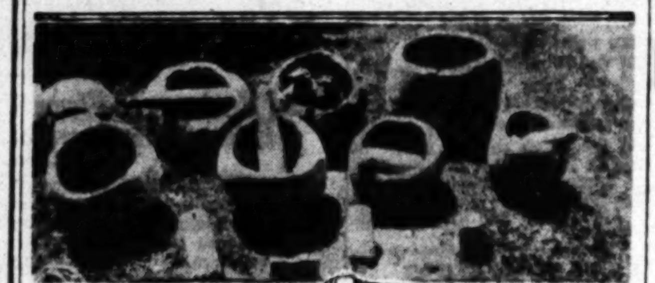
Husted collided with a machine driven by C. T. Williams, 1839 Randolph street at Slauson avenue and Wilmington Boulevard.

Billie Taylor, 11-year-old roller skater of 1616 Effie street, was given Emergency Hospital treatment last night as the result of his skidding from the sidewalk and being hit by an auto.

REVISION OF TAX LAWS ADVISED BY LOLLIER

Revision of legislative control of special tax assessment laws with suggested changes for more even distribution of this burden was advocated yesterday by W. H. For the past decade Lollier has been connected with the Fox West Coast Theaters in an executive capacity, which gave him an insight into the special-assessment evil.

RELICS OF ANCIENT INDIAN GRAVE FOUND BY DIGGERS



Objects Discovered Seven Feet Deep

Old Indian mortars and pestles, and many undefinable, oddly shaped stones were unearthed recently when pipe-layers constructing a sewer in the yard of Mrs. Barbara Boyde, 1145 East Seventy-seventh Place, discovered them at a depth of seven feet. Workmen first noted the unusual stones when their shovels struck hard rock material in what was supposed to be soft dirt territory.

Southwest Museum officials, on investigation, reported that the Indian relics are those ceremonially placed around the body of an Indian at burial. The fact that one of the mortars has a hole punched in its bottom, in keeping with the Indian belief that all property of the deceased must be shattered to release the spirit, indicates that the stoneware actually was used for that purpose. The probable age of the rock utensils is placed as between 2000 and 3000 years.

More extensive diggings to search for additional material will be carried on soon by Southwest Museum investigators. The entire collection is on display at Mrs. Boyde's home.

HARRY MELOSH CONVICTED

Found Guilty of Extortion Attempt and Faces Possible Sentence of Twenty-five Years

Harry Melosh, who once figured as a witness in the Aimee Semple McPherson kidnaping case, yesterday was convicted of five counts of attempting to extort money from Abe Morris, Spring-street broker.

The man was tried before Superior Judge Wilson after he waived a jury and announced he would act as his own attorney. When the prosecution, headed by D. H. Clark, rested its case after calling numerous officers and handwriting experts, Melosh followed suit and rested his defense without calling a witness in his own behalf.

Judge Wilson fixed Monday, next, as the date for sentence. The defendant faces a possible maximum sentence of twenty-five years.

Melosh was charged with writing numerous notes to Morris demanding various sums of money, the largest amount being $25,000. The notes were delivered to Morris by girls who had answered Melosh's advertisement for an office assistant and entered the asserted extortion plot unaware of its character.

Old-Timers of Hollywood will Picnic Saturday

For the seventh time in as many years pioneers of Hollywood will gather Saturday afternoon for the annual Hollywood Old Settlers' Picnic and live over again the days when Horace Henderson Wilcox, noted Kansas prohibition leader, came out from Topeka during the early eighties and with Mrs. Wilcox bought a 160-acre ranch at the present corner of Hollywood Boulevard and Cahuenga avenue and called it Hollywood.

GEORGE GREENWOOD

As in the past, Saturday's reunion will be held at Plummer Park, Santa Monica Boulevard and Vista street, with Mr. Plummer again acting as host and George G. Greenwood, vice-president Hollywood and Cahuenga branch, Security-First National Bank, as sponsor and master of ceremonies. Mr. Greenwood originated the Old Settlers' Picnic in 1923. He expects to speak on Hollywood as he knew it a quarter of a century ago when it had a population of 1000, and hitching posts rather than parking space.

Other speakers will include George H. Dunlop, only surviving Mayor of Hollywood; William Horsley, founder of the first motion-picture studio there, and Mrs. E. B. (Grandma) Wakeman, who once planted a large orange orchard at Hollywood Boulevard and Western avenue.

Laurette Taylor used to play in ten-twenty-thirty-cent melodrama on Main street.

"Peg o' My Heart" was first played in Los Angeles at the old Burbank Theater as a filler-in because the manuscript of a play coming from New York was delayed in the mails.

Frank Bacon ran an unsuccessful stock company in Los Angeles and played in many versions the character who became world famous in "Lightnin'"—Old Bill.

Ann Nichols, who made an enormous fortune out of "Abie's Irish Rose," wrote it while a second-rate actress in Los Angeles.

WAVE OF CRIME STARTS TO EBB

Robberies, and Burglaries Decline Slightly

Larger Police Squads to Get Real Test Saturday

July Totals Greater than June or Year Ago

While Chief of Police Steckel's action in reinforcing the robbery and burglary squads throughout the fourteen police divisions with 150 plain-clothes officers, drafted principally from the vice divisions, will not be given a fair test as a precautionary measure in combating the present increase in crime until this week-end, the first night the reinforcements were in action, Tuesday night, ended with one less robbery than the night before and ten less burglaries.

Monday night there were five robberies and thirty burglaries reported. On Tuesday there were but four robberies and twenty burglaries.

Records show that on Saturday night and early Sunday morning there are more than twice the number of robberies and burglaries reported than on any midweek night. The reports on this class of crime for the coming week-end will therefore tell the tale.

CRIMES INCREASE

The report on crime for this month to date released yesterday by Chief Police Statistician Cross reveals an unusual increase in all classes of crime. Outstanding was the increase in robberies. The total for this month is 130; same period last month, 106, and the same period last year at seventy-nine.

Burglaries for this month total 408, as compared with 379 for the same period last month and 380 during the same month last year.

Thefts of automobiles reached 770, as compared with 731 last month and 612 for the same period last year. In this class of crime the police showed unusual activity, reporting 543 cars recovered, or 70.6 per cent.

Petty thefts for this month totaled 567, for last month 513 and for the same period last year 474. In the report sixty-seven purse-snatchings were included in petty thefts.

Seventy-nine cases of worthless checks being passed were reported this month, an increase of thirty over the preceding month and forty-two over the total for the same period last year.

THEIR ASIGNMENTS

There are 191 captains and detective lieutenants assigned to Central division, twenty-eight to Hollywood, twenty-two to Wilshire, twenty-six to Georgia-street, twenty-two to University, thirteen to Hollenbeck Heights, nine to Lincoln Heights, five to Highland Park, six to West Los Angeles, seven to Venice, eighteen to Seventy-seventh-street, six to Van Nuys and ten to San Pedro.

Besides strengthening these divisions, the reinforcements assigned to special duty by Chief Steckel during the late night and early morning hours place more police automobiles in the motor patrol service on the streets. In many of these cars the officers are in uniform, while in others, cruising about where burglars or bandits have been periodically active, they are in plain clothes. All are equipped with sawed-off shot guns besides the regulation arm of the department, the .45-caliber revolver.

Each member specially chosen for the work has qualified in the police shooting tests as a marksman, while the majority are sharpshooters and a few experts.

Doom of Pets in Will Scored

The putting to death of the five pet animals of Mrs. Nellie Winterman, as ordered in her will, was decried in a resolution adopted yesterday by the Humane Animal Commission of the city government, and the commission added that if the court action started to save the lives of the pets is successful it will offer its co-operation to interested parties in securing homes for the pets.

Former Inglewood Constable Faces Ten Charges in Connection with Escape of Prisoners

Ten felony charges of permitting prisoners to escape from custody yesterday were filed against Harry Amend, former Inglewood constable, by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Sullivan. The complaint was sworn to by Harry Owens, District Attorney's investigator.

The complaint accuses the former officer of accepting bail money from numerous defendants, permitting their release and then failing to prosecute them. A total of $1200 was collected from ten persons in this manner, according to Owens.

Amend also is awaiting a preliminary hearing in Municipal Court today on a charge of defrauding a woman of $1000, representing that the money would be used to "fix" a charge of driving while intoxicated pending against her son.

NEW HOSPITAL PLANS REVISED

Report Made to Supervisors on Specification Changes

Material Substitutions Made to Hold Down Cost

Board to Consider Altered Design Next Monday

Revised specifications to bring the cost of building the new Los Angeles County General Hospital back to the original estimate of $11,810,000, from a rise to $16,000,000 after work was begun, drafted by county officials and a committee of architects, will be considered by the Board of Supervisors Monday.

In a letter from the architects sent to the Board of Supervisors yesterday with the new specifications the main changes are set forth.

CHANGES OUTLINED

"In general, cement finish has replaced the alberene on all roofs and stairways; composition marble has replaced the alberene of the base and borders, sinks, recessed linings and window stools; and wood painted with acid-resisting paint has replaced the alberene on the majority of the counter tops, table tops and drainboards. The stainless steel door frames and bottom rails of the doors have been changed to painted steel frames and casings and steel wainscot caps have been omitted entirely. A large proportion of the doors, particularly those to wards, have been changed from steel doors to wooden doors.

"Generally, the marble has been changed to a composition marble and sound-proofing of the partitions has been omitted.

"The steel fence, similar to the one now around the present hospital, has been cut down to a steel wire mesh fence. The construction of some of the equipment has been lightened and simplified. Galvanized steel has been substituted for a large proportion of the kitchen counters and linings of the equipment. The number of separate contracts has been increased from sixteen to thirty-nine.

OLD BIDS CANCELED

"We believe that the specifications and the revised drawings based thereon represent the minimum quality of finish and workmanship that should be incorporated in the building."

The original specifications adopted by the Board of Supervisors for the building of the new hospital called for an expenditure of not more than $11,810,000. Following adoption of the plans the estimated costs reached $16,000,000.

During the early part of the year Supervisor Shaw, at a meeting of the board, made a motion that all bids be canceled and thrown out and that the chairman of the board, the county architect with a committee of outside architects confer with a view of revising the specifications to keep the cost of the hospital down to the original $11,810,000 estimate. The motion was passed and the conferences were begun June 1.

PLEA MADE FOR LOWER GAS RATES

City Attorney Sends Brief to Rail Board as Sequel to Recent Investigation

In a brief submitted yesterday to the State Railroad Commission in connection with the recent investigation of rates charged by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, City Attorney Werner contends that there should be a large reduction in charges and that the consumer should be allowed "to share in the prosperity brought about by a supply of natural gas such as the world has never known before."

Werner asks why the company should be allowed to charge from 72 to 80 cents per m.c.f. for natural gas delivered by a subsidiary for 17 1-2 cents, and why a dividend of 21 per cent be permitted on common stock in 1929. He also contends that the stand-by plant, no longer in use, should be eliminated from the rate base.

Werner was assisted by Assistant City Attorney Von Schrader and Deputy City Attorney Clarke in the preparation of the brief.

Richard Crooks to be Featured at Bowl Tonight

With Richard Crooks in the featured role of a special program, the 275th performance of the "Symphonies Under the Stars" will be celebrated at the Hollywood Bowl tonight, Bernardino Molinari directing.

Crooks made his first appearance here two weeks ago. Bowl officials induced him to remain for another appearance, and he leaves tomorrow morning for the East by airplane. Crooks will be heard in two numbers from Wagner's "Lohengrin" and one each from Massenet's "Manon" and Donizetti's "L'Elisir d'Amore."

The anniversary program features Honneger's "Pacific 231," the musical story of a railroad locomotive. Molinari is now in the second week of his four-week engagement.

Tomorrow night another novelty program has been arranged with Miss Antonia Brico, 28-year-old California girl conductor, and the Albertina Rasch ballet of sixty dancers sharing the honors.

Today's Bible Text

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory.—Col. iii, 3-4.

WORLD ON WHEELS

In the whole world more than 6,300,000 motor cars and trucks were turned out last year and 85 per cent of the whole is credited to American production. It begins to look as if Henry Ford had something to do with this.

PICK YOUR OWN MEAT

The butcherteria is being introduced in the East. This is a self-service meat market. The meats are nicely cut and trimmed and presented in neat, transparent packages. Also they are shown in glass refrigerators, so that customers may readily see everything on hand. The idea seems to be popular where it is tried although it does not appear to have caught on here to any great extent so far, although this is the home of the cafeteria, which was the pioneer in self-service.

ICING MARVELS

Refrigerated ships have reached that degree of perfection whereby the perishable products of California may be sent clear around the world without losing their form and flavor. Our buxom fruits may roll upon the tables of Germany, India and Japan without any serious impairment of their lovable qualities. This is great stuff for our grape and orange growers. The temperature is kept below the freezing point and there is no chance to spoil or over-ripen. It is a wonderful system.

EMBASSY LIQUOR

The edict has gone forth that our ambassadors abroad must buy their own booze. At most of the embassies it is still the custom to have wines on hand for formal dinners and other functions. Usually Uncle Sam has quietly settled the bill for this refreshment, but he will do so no longer. An ambassador who wishes to give his guests a drink will have to foot the bill from his own pocket. This is in accord with our prohibition policy. Those who would eat, drink and be merry must foot the bill.

RUBBER SUBSTITUTES

The Department of Agriculture is experimenting in California with the so-called Madagascar rubber plant, which bears the Latin name of Euphorbia intisy. It grows to a height of twenty feet or more and is almost leafless. It needs little water, having a capacity for storing up a supply when it rains. Its value as a substitute for present rubber production is still to be demonstrated, but it is said to offer excellent prospects. Nevertheless, Thomas A. Edison is going ahead raising golden rod fifteen feet high, which he thinks will supply a lot of rubber.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD

Although it has reached the age of 100 years, that staunch old representative of New England culture and honest worth, the Boston Transcript, does not look in the least as if it were in the sere and yellow leaf, but seems a sturdy old fellow, strong of limb and resonant of voice.

In announcing its centenary, the Transcript does no crowing, though it says concerning its first period of existence that it was "plainly determined to be a decent and inspiring influence." This it certainly has been. Boston would hardly be Boston without the Transcript.

Since the issuance of its first number in 1830, when Daniel Webster was at the apogee of his fame and Ralph Waldo Emerson was beginning to publish his famous essays, it has had a constituency of which any newspaper might well be proud. Its columns conveyed to the world many of the messages of the old New England school of philosophy and after the passing of the revered members of that famous school it continued to publish the best current sentiment from year to year.

For years the Transcript has covered the news field quite thoroughly and its editorials have been honest and fearless. By not going in for those sensational "scare heads" and picturesque features displayed by many other metropolitan newspapers it has preserved an old-time savor. It has been one of those journals which deserve long life.

WILBUR AND OBSTRUCTION

That the Federal government will proceed with the construction of Black Canyon, or Boulder, Dam with little regard for obstructionists was made plain Tuesday by Secretary of the Interior Wilbur, who made it known that actual construction on the by-pass tunnels to carry the river's flow around the dam site will be begun within this fiscal year, if humanly possible. Considering the vast amount of preliminary work that must be done, railroad building, assembling of men, machinery and materials, completion of plans and the like, this is making speed.

"It is my belief when two Presidents and two Congresses have put their approval upon a project it will be pretty hard to stay the hand of the administrator of such project with any judicial action," the Secretary said.

While he did not mention it specifically, the Secretary spoke with full knowledge of the brief filed by Atty.-Gen. Peterson of Arizona objecting to disbursement of any of the $10,600,000 appropriation made by Congress to begin Boulder Dam, which filing may or may not be taken to indicate that Arizona will overlook no possibility of hampering and obstructing Colorado River development, rather than seeking a clean-cut definition by the Supreme Court of the various rights involved in the question and accepting that court's ruling. To the suit which the State has announced it expects to file in the Supreme Court, seeking an injunction against the construction of Boulder Dam on the ground that the Boulder Dam Act is unconstitutional and violates Arizona's rights, there can be no objection. In fact, a court determination of the questions involved may be genuinely useful.

But this technical and hairsplitting objection to the form of contracts between the government and the various California organizations which, in the long run, will supply the money, is not that sort of an action. The interest of Arizona in these contracts is of the remotest kind. Strictly speaking, the arrangements between the United States and California, already formally approved by the Attorney-General, are no more Arizona's affair than they are the affair of Maine or New York or New Jersey. These contracts do not trespass upon nor affect Arizona's rights in any particular. They are predicated upon the completion of the dam and the power plants and the water storage—and if there is any trespass upon Arizona's rights it is in the Boulder Dam bill and not in these contracts. That is the proper point of attack—the enactment of Congress.

It goes without saying that valid and enforceable contracts between the government and the California corporations, public and quasi-public, which will be the government's customers for water and power, are essential and that if the present contracts are found to have technical flaws they will be amended. California needs this water and will pay for it, and for the power which it is necessary to take in order to get the water; Arizona need have no fears on that score and in fact has none. The good faith of the city of Los Angeles and of the Metropolitan Water District is pledged in the matter and there is no reason whatever to believe that either will fail to meet its just obligations. Yet Arizona appears in the attitude of intervening to protect the United States Treasury from a possible loss of money. The United States Treasury is generally able to look out for itself, without Arizona assistance, and that State's solicitude seems to be misplaced.

Arizona does not worry about other amounts which are appropriated by Congress for various purposes. It leaves their proper disposal to the properly constituted guardians of the funds.

A proper and legal testing of the Boulder Dam Act is one thing and efforts to embarrass and delay through raising of technicalities and pettifoggery are quite another. California could not consider the injunction suit an unfriendly and unneighborly act—that represents a genuine effort to settle a difference of opinion. But mere harassment is something very different.

Secretary Wilbur appears to be not much impressed with the possibility that either harassment or the injunction suit will stop work. Undoubtedly he has had the best of legal advice on the matter and is confident that the Boulder Dam Act and the contracts he has made will stand all tests. His attitude is reassuring. California has seen so many delays in Colorado River development it can hardly credit the fact that something tangible is actually being done right now. It is almost too good to be true; yet Secretary Wilbur says it is true and brushes aside the doubts as amounting to little.

Wilbur and obstruction are not compatible. When they clash, it is not Wilbur who will get the worst of it.

A CYNIC ON COOLIDGE

Writing in the Forum, Edward Campbell Aswell, "that keen analyst," as he is described by one admirer, attempts to show that Calvin Coolidge is a man of mediocre mentality, without an adequate philosophy, "whose utterances are full of well-worn platitudes."

Of course the utterance of a platitude is as alien to the temperament of the keen, analytical Mr. Aswell as to that of Mr. Mencken or any of the others of the "intelligentsia" group of polemical iconoclasts. These writers always stand ready to say of this or that estimable man of note: "You deem him somebody worthy of high consideration? All right—we'll show you that he is nothing of the sort."

In treating of Mr. Coolidge, who, in the estimate of Mr. Aswell, is just "a little average man of an essentially commercial age," who never has acquired "a broad philosophical attitude of mind," Mr. Aswell says that as a political figure he did not accept the challenge of leadership, but was carried away in the midstream of events.

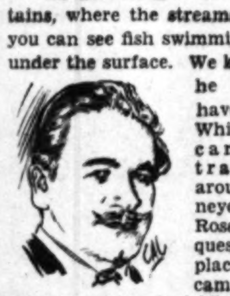
To contravene in words such an estimate of a man who as President stood so stoutly for the essential good of the people, who was so strong for national economy and efficiency and so alert for the welfare of his country abroad would be a superfluous task. Friends of Mr. Coolidge will pass this sort of polemic over with a smile. What obtrudes itself in the Aswell article in a really provocative way is the weird insistence of the writer upon the Coolidge "platitudes" as "well-worn" and "inept," and also the statement that it is largely due to such utterances that he "remains the most pathetic figure in public life"—a fact which none of the rest of us had even remotely suspected.

Mr. Coolidge's "platitudes" have been used to extol the virtues of honesty, thrift and ambition and to strengthen the position of our best institutions. They are platitudes of the class found in the most venerable, valuable and inspiring philosophical writings and they are just the kind of utterances most needed in this artificial age as an antidote for the smart-Aleck, wise-cracking cynicisms of the school of which Mr. Aswell is so conspicuously representative.

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

NOAH BEERY is a burly Missourian. He used to love the Ozark Mountains, where the streams are so clear you can see fish swimming thirty feet under the surface. We know just how he felt, for we have floated down White River and camped and tramped all around Lake Taneycomo, even to Rose O'Neill's sequestered country place. We have camped there beside a rushing "crick" which flowed about three times as much water in a night as the Los Angeles River does all summer—and that's what we call sweet music, the rushing of a stream through murmuring forests.



So when California captured Noah a strange dissatisfaction gnawed on him. He yearned for the soothing murmur of musical streams. While other actors were investing their sudden prosperity—we almost said unearned increment—in Wall street and boulevard real estate, Noah hied away to look for water.

Back in the Sierra Madre Mountains he found it—springs which gush out of the earth in streams as big as your two fists together—or even as big as our two fists. There was even a waterfall.

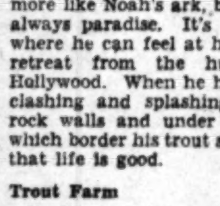
"If we could just bring a whole lot of these heah streams together," speculated Noah, "it would sho' be paradise."

Noah's Paradise

So he brought together the water from 120 springs—water which gushes out of the earth at a temperature of 55 deg., if you want to know how cold it is—and created Noah Beery's Paradise. Sometimes during week-ends, when a large section of Moviedom moves up there, it may seem a little more like Noah's ark, but to Noah it's always paradise. It's the only place where he can feel at home. It is his retreat from the hurdy-gurdy of Hollywood. When he hears the water clashing and splashing between the rock walls and under the fine trees which border his trout stream, he feels that life is good.

Trout Farm

Noah's mountain paradise really is a trout farm. We have all sorts of farms hereabout—lion, alligator, ostrich, monkey, moron, and so on, but Noah has the only trout farm we know of. His hatchery hatches 1,500,000 trout each year which are turned into quiet pools when big enough, and advanced from those to other pools as they grow bigger, until, when they are nine or ten inches long, they are put in pools in which fishing is allowed.



Trout are so plentiful there that they are always on the menu, besides which large quantities are supplied to the trade in Los Angeles. They are milk-fed trout, reared almost as carefully as babies. No fish from the hatchery are sold for the stocking of other streams. The are all put into the stream made by those 120 mountain springs, from which they are caught for sport, for the table and for the market.

The Ways of Fishermen

Henry and Charles, Nos. 1 and 2 of our twenty-mule-team quartet of boys, were with us when we dropped in at Noah's Paradise, and were invited to fish. Anyone may drop in there, but only members of the Paradise Trout Club or their guests may fish. Neither of the boys had ever fished, but they were led to the pool where the least expert do their fishing and in a few minutes each had caught a fine trout. When Charles, aged 7, landed his the fish flopped right at him and in a moment of panic he almost dropped the rod.

"I thought it was going to bite me," he explained afterward to his mother. "Why, it had teeth that long." He measured a distance just about as long as the whole fish.

You don't have to teach fishermen to exaggerate. It just comes to them naturally, like breathing.

How to Be Happy Though Alive

Oh, this will be a happy world
Which each existence mellows
When we esteem our blessings as
We do the other fellow's.
—Tennyson Mabie.

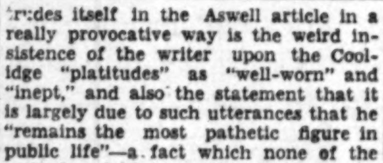
Dollar Novels

The first of the new dollar novels which are so upsetting the book world to come to our desk is "The Affair of the Gallows Tree," by Stephen Chalmers, the Laguna author whose stories are so exciting they take the curl out of your hair in a single night. "The "Affair of the Gallows Tree" reads just as well to us as if we had paid $2 for it, and we're just Scotch enough to enjoy it a little more because of that fact. Except for the horrific jacket the publishers put on the book, we find it a very satisfying piece of work. Speaking as one of the great common people, we always were a little readier to pay $1 than to pay $2, and we would much rather have the publishers cut each other's throats than ours.

Distressing Idea

Speaking of Scotchmen, two Scotch friends of ours—brothers in the contracting business—decided to take up termite extermination as a side line, feeling that builders ought to know all about the subject, anyway. They're a clever pair of chaps and really became quite scientific, but after the first flurry when the mere name of termites made all of us quake in our shoes was over, they returned to their old standbys and no longer pursue termite jobs. We asked them why.

"Well," said one, "'twas this way. We had to treat a foundation here, and treat a roof there, and treat the underpinning yonder. And it was just too much for a pair of Scotchmen to have to do all that treating."



APPEARANCES

By James J. Montague

The python, I've been often told,
Within him hides a heart of gold,

And when you stroll the jungle through
Is very much afraid of you.

The shark, though nimble and alert,
Will never bite unless he's hurt,

And though his face is clad in sneers
Is not as bad as he appears.

The centipede prefers to crawl
Along the ceiling or the wall

Instead of walking through your hair
And planting dabs of venom there.

This creeping friend of humankind
They say is very much maligned.

The Bengal tiger chiefly cares
About his personal affairs,

And for your blood he does not thirst
Unless perchance, you bite him first.

And even men of evil looks
Are seldom either thieves or crooks.

Appearances in man or beast
Should not misguide us in the least

As this queer world we journey through,
But just the same they always do!

WHAT OTHERS THINK ABOUT IT

WAR OF THE CLOCKS

[Portland Oregonian]

New York University's hall of fame is discussing a niche for Dr. Charles F. Dowd, for twenty-five years president of a ladies' seminary in Connecticut, who standardized time in the United States. Few pause to remember that at the time of the Civil War and for years afterward, individualism extended to the field of time. The towns and cities of the country took pride in their individualism. The time of Albany, N. Y., differed by one minute from that of New York City. A railroad ordinarily adopted the time of the city in which it had its headquarters, and the engine tooted its derision of the bucolic clocks of the villages through which it passed. A villager had to be a mathematician in order to figure out when he should be at the station to catch a train.

Suppose a traveler set his watch in Portland, Me., and then journeyed to Buffalo, N. Y. In the latter city, when his own watch showed the time to be 12:15, the New York Central clock would show 12; the Lake Shore clock, 11:25, and the Buffalo city clock, 11:40. Thus was he bedeviled and at a loss as to whether he should go to lunch or not. The clocks had so bewildered his stomach that he didn't know whether or not he was hungry.

Such a mixed-up situation troubled the good Dr. Dowd, who was of an orderly nature and liked to have his dinner at the proper hour. As early as 1869, he was presenting his plan to railway conventions. It was, in effect, the zone plan of the present day—the Eastern, Central, Mountain and Pacific times on which present timetables are based. Not until 1883 did the major railway lines adopt the new system. Unhappily, Dr. Dowd died in 1904 in a railroad wreck which he might have escaped if his watch had been wrong and he had missed the train.

SENATORIAL TARGETS

[Washington Post]

Any man who has ever owned a security other than a government bond, or who has ever expressed an opinion on a controversial subject or who has won distinction, may expect opposition whon nominated for a government position of trust and responsibility. The President seeks "$100,000 a year men" for the tariff and power commissions. But where can a "$100,000 a year man" be found who has not at some time in his career owned securities other than government bonds or expressed an opinion on a controversial subject? Men of the caliber the President seeks will not, in addition to accepting large income cuts, voluntarily present themselves as targets for Senate mudslingers.

BOYHOOD OF FAMOUS AMERICANS

II.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHARLES EVANS HUGHES

BY J. V. FITZ GERALD

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

[This is the second of eighteen articles outlining the boyhood of famous Americans and telling how they got their start in life.]

Kindergarten certainly wasn't any place, even for a boy of 5 when the lad was able to outline a plan of study for the classics to his father. Rev. David Hughes, Baptist minister in Oswego, N. Y., made up his mind to that effect when his son, Charles, presented such a plan to him shortly after he had been entered in the infant class.

The result was that the boy was taken out of school and tutored by his mother and father. Mrs. Hughes had been a schoolteacher before her marriage. Few parents were so well equipped to teach a bright lad at home.

Charles Evans Hughes was a precocious child, as his formulation of a plan to study the classics when he was in kindergarten will bear out. He was born in 1862 in Glens Falls, N. Y., where his father had a small congregation. He was delicate as a child and didn't romp and play much with other little boys and girls.

Perhaps because he was not particularly robust his parents devoted more time to him than might ordinarily have been the case. His mind developed rapidly. He showed a decided interest in books as soon as he was able to talk. He was reading nursery rhymes when he was 3½ years old. He was five when his father was transferred to a church in Oswego when Charles was summarily removed from kindergarten.

When he was 8 and the family was living in Newark, N. J., the lad was able to translate the Bible from the Greek. He was also a wide reader of Shakespeare's works at this age.

He later went to school in New York City, where he was graduated from high school in 1875 at the age of 13 as salutatorian of his class. His oration, because of its scholarly tone and the fine delivery of the small orator, surprised a big crowd that attended the exercises in the old Academy of Music in that city.

While attending high school he wrote essays on such subjects as "Limitation of the Human Mind," "Self Help" and "The Evils of Light Literature." He was marked even then as a deep student and thinker.

Rev. Mr. Hughes wanted his son to become a clergyman, if the boy felt a real call to the religious life. Young Charles had not made up his mind definitely as to his future career when he entered Colgate at the age of 14. He was a slight boy at the time and timid, save when it came to questions of scholarships. Then he would talk well and enthusiastically, even with his elders. Mentally he was more mature than his classmates.

The boy spent two years at Colgate. From there he went to Brown University, entering as a sophomore in 1878. He immediately showed all the promise indicated in his high school days. He was a brilliant student, but modest and retiring in disposition.

He gained many scholastic honors at Brown. He won the prize for the highest standing in English literature when he was a junior. Upon graduation, at the age of 19, he was awarded the prize as the student showing the most all-around promise. He was honor man in his class.

By this time he had finally made up his mind not to become a clergyman. Deciding against following the career for which his father had hoped, he went from Brown University to Delphi, N. Y. There he taught mathematics in the Delaware Academy.

He studied law at Columbia University at night after returning to New York City and was admitted to the bar when he was 22 years old.

While the young lawyer had been sickly as a child he showed great physical capacity for work in the next three years. He was engaged as a clerk in a law office during the day. At night he acted as a teacher and tutor at Columbia.

Finally his health suffered under the strain. He was ordered to take a vacation. He spent it as a teacher of commercial and contract law at Cornell University.

The up-State climate agreed with him. When he returned to New York City he was able to throw himself vigorously into the duties of his profession as a practitioner. He first attracted wide public attention as counsel for the gas investigation committee. He added to his reputation as an outstanding lawyer by his conduct of the insurance investigation, another New York State inquiry.

Later he was elected Governor of New York and re-elected, resigning to become a United States Supreme Court Justice. He retired from the bench to be his party's candidate for the Presidency. He lost the highest office within the gift of the American people because of a factional squabble in California. Later he served as Secretary of State and is now Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

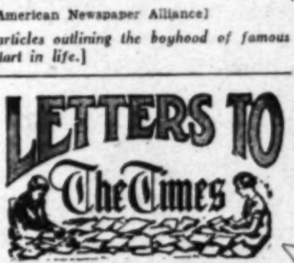
Olives Harvested by Air

The olive growers of Tunis, Africa, threatened by a lack of labor, the situation became so critical that they banded together and offered a prize for some method of gathering the fruit, which must be handled rather carefully. The contest brought out three outstanding methods, each having some merit, and the prize was shared among the three inventors. The first prize went to the designer of a harvester which made use of a jet of air for picking the fruit. The process, however, was not all that could be desired, and another prize has been offered for its further improvement.



LETTERS TO The Times

[Name and address of writer must accompany all letters for this column. Letters of a personal nature or involving contentious religious questions are not acceptable.]

A Modern Archimedes

LOS ANGELES, July 28.—[To the Editor of The Times:] What is the sense of this growing sentiment against the Rev. Bob Shuler? What is the idea of so many people starting to throw sticks and stones at our purifier? People should not lose patience just because the Rev. Shuler has not been able to accomplish their complete purification within so short a period. Give the man time. Just lately he has been occupied with our civic purification. Alone and single-handed he cannot do everything at once. After Rev. Shuler has completed our civic purification, then he will presumably have time to take up our social, sartorial, literary and movie purification. The Rev. Shuler is like Archimedes, who said, "Give me a place to stand and I will move the world;" like Marshal MacMahon, who, in the trenches before Sebastopol, declared, "I am here, I shall remain here;" like Louis XIV, who interrupted a judge by exclaiming, "I am the State."

All praise to Rev. Shuler. His motives are as pure as the foamy waters of a babbling mountain brook. His modesty is a common household word. His Sunday plea for free speech, accompanied by his request for a generous collection, was a gem of purest ray serene. He is, indeed, our genuine talkie pearl of great price.

JESSIE BIRDSALL WARBASSE.

"Quickest and Kindest"

PASADENA, July 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Why is it that suddenly two or three people "can't seem to think of three dogs and two cats being killed for a whim" when their owner, just before her death in the presence of three witnesses, left instructions to have them "destroyed in the quickest and kindest way" because she wanted them with her in the spirit land?

Just what bearing on the case has the fact that a few people in the world think animals have no souls? Why hadn't this humane and kindly woman who loved her pets, the right to do as she pleased concerning their future, knowing that because of their monetary value they would be separated and sold to the highest bidder? The answer is, "the estate would be considerably depreciated by the death of her valued animals, two Irish setters, worth $1000 each, and a cocker spaniel, worth $350, cats value considerable!"

All real humanitarians are hoping that instructions of Mrs. Winterman will be carried out to the letter and that more owners of pets will put in writing the same instructions before witnesses while there is no thought of immediate death.

FANNIE THOMPSON KESSLER,
President San Gabriel Valley Humane Society.

Drinking Among Students

SANTA MONICA, July 26.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The colleges of our land are training large numbers of our youth of today for the responsibilities of professional and business life tomorrow. The moral conditions in these colleges is of concern to us all. A recent questionnaire sent out to the colleges of the country on the matter of drinking among students was answered by 255 presidents of colleges as follows:

Three reported drinking conditions worse under prohibition.

Seven reported drinking conditions among students "bad."

Eight reported no change.

Ninety-one reported no drinking among students.

One hundred and forty-six reported a decrease under prohibition.

Total, 255.

To sum up the results:

Ten reported conditions bad or worse.

Eight reported no change.

Two hundred and thirty-seven reported improvement under prohibition.

These figures should mean something to every thoughtful person in our land.

FREDERICK W. HATCH.

TREE SITTING

Since boys in various parts of the country have begun to take literally to the tall timbers in order to stage tree-sitting endurance contests, several people have suggested spankings as cures for their summer madness. Perhaps that sort of remedy may be practical in some instances. But we do not feel sure whether it should be applied to the yonugsters or to their parents. The former certainly ought not to be blamed too heartily. After all, it is normal for children to ape their elders and as long as pole sitters and other "endurance test" champions strut around the country and cash in on notoriety, it is to be expected that the craze will infect the juvenile world.

As to the fear of Surgeon-General Cummings about the physical and mental effects of tree sitting on those that indulge in the pastime, the likelihood that a healthy boy will suffer any serious deterioration of health from squatting in the crotch of a tree like his monkey cousins doesn't seem very great. The human anatomy has great recuperative powers in the savage period of its development. As to mental effects, they can probably be best combatted by telling juveniles what little fools they are.—[Detroit Free Press.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Graining and Painting?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

During August enrollment will be open to all men in the painting trade for a free course in graining and painting on furniture, interior woodwork of houses and on metal. This course is taught by Charles A. Hadlett, a skilled craftsman in the painting and enameling trade, who has had experience in planning and making estimates of fine decorative paint jobs.

Those interested may receive a free pass at the office of the Frank Wiggins Trade School, 216 West Venice Boulevard, to allow them to visit the class this summer and get an idea of the type of work that is being done. As there is usually a long waiting list, men in the trade who wish to improve their chances of securing long periods of work should enroll at once and should keep in touch with the school from week to week, to secure a place in the class. The only expense is $1 enrollment, payable when the student is admitted to the class. Only experienced craftsmen are admitted to the class, so that it is possible at all times to keep the work up to a high standard.

Enrollment is at the office of the school any Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 1 to 9 p.m. The present class meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 7 to 9 p.m.

Of Interest to Women

Society

by JUANA NEAL LEVY

Of much interest in collegiate circles of the Southland is the announcement made by Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Leitzel of 721 South Crenshaw Boulevard of the engagement of their talented daughter, Miss Beulah Lucile Leitzel, to Laurel Boyd Baker, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Baker of 2827 Griffith Park Boulevard, the news being told at an informal at home given by Mrs. Leitzel and her daughters, Misses Beulah, Edna and Hazel Leitzell.

Both Miss Leitzell and her fiance were graduated from University of Southern California and are prominent in the teaching profession. Tiny parchment scrolls attached to rosebuds by pink tulle ribbons given to each guest at the door revealed the news of the engagement. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of gladioli and delphinium, harmonizing with the blue gown worn by the bride-elect, whose costume was enhanced by a shoulder corsage sent by Mr. Baker. Emphasizing the bridal motif the tea table was decorated by a center piece with two hearts surmounted by a ring containing the pictures of the betrothed.

During the afternoon the guests were entertained by a program of musical numbers presented by Mrs. Lillian Backstrand Wilson, Miss Elizabeth Mottern and Miss Margaret Ray.

Being graduated with honors from the college of music, University of Southern California, Miss Leitzell was a prominent member of Phi Beta, national professional sorority of music and dramatic art; Phi Phi, honorary music sorority, and Pi Kappa Lambda, graduate honorary music fraternity. She has been a member of the faculty of Riverside Junior College for the past two years. Mr. Baker has been a faculty member in the architecture department at Los Angeles Polytechnic for the past seven years and is a candidate for the Master of Arts degree from University of Southern California.

No date is set as yet for the wedding.

Wedding Data

Announcement is made of the wedding tomorrow of Miss Esther Irene Blair, charming daughter of Mrs. Ella T. Blair of Balboa Beach, and Bruce A. Findlay, the ceremony to take place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the gardens of the home of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Blair, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, at 1928 South Harvard Boulevard, with Rev. Holland Burr of Oneonta Congregational Church officiating.

Mrs. Fred Lohman will assist as matron of honor, while Dr. Blair will give his sister in marriage and Gordon Findlay will serve his brother as best man.

The bride-elect entered University of California at Los Angeles from Hemet High School in 1920 and was graduated from the university with honors, subsequently teaching in Venice High School, for several years, resigning last June contemplating her marriage.

Mr. Findlay is the son of Mrs. Emma A. Findlay of 1634½ Winfield street. Following the ceremony, Mr. Findlay and his bride contemplate a motor trip up the coast to Canada, with frequent stops at various points of interest. Plans for their future home here have not yet been completed.

Honoring Out-of-Town Visitors

Honoring a number of out-of-town members of the Delta Theta Tau Sorority who are visiting in the city, Miss Maxine Yeakey entertained with a bridge party at her home Wednesday evening. The members of the Delta Iota chapter of Los Angeles were participants in this delightful event. The decorations and prizes were carried out in the sorority colors of green and white. The guests included Miss Angela Pictor and Miss Margaret Bryan of Laurenceville, Ill.; Miss Helen Larrimore and Miss Mary Ozment of Harrisburg, Ill,; Miss Christine Welch of San Francisco, Mrs. Vesta Vesnard of Oakland, Miss Hazelle Fleck, Miss Dorothy Brod, Miss Helen Sprague, Miss Margot Pulfer, Miss Betty Fancher, Miss Freda Hawkins, Miss Erma Neville, Miss Anna Stehula, Miss Doris Lindsey, Mrs. Gladys Lynch and Mrs. Robert M. Smailes of Los Angeles.

Betrothal Tea

Miss Helen Armstrong of Toronto, Can., was guest of honor at a bridge tea, given Saturday in the Cortile Lido room of the Hollywood Knickerbocker Hotel by Miss Olga Beatrice Horner, 1944 North Argyle avenue. The guests were surprised by the announcement of Miss Horner's engagement to Julius O. Leuschner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Leuschner of West Adams street.

Miss Horner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William John Horner. Mr. Leuschner was graduated from the School of Pharmacy at the University of Southern California. He is a lieutenant in the Reserve Militia of Chemical Warfare, and past-president of the Native Sons of California. The wedding will take place September 6 in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Hollywood.

The bride-elect has chosen Miss Nina Blanche Horner for her maid of honor, and Mrs. Lester B. Murrell and Mrs. Arden Moffett Lusch as other attendants. Little Jean Facey will be flower girl.

Dr. Frank L. Adams will serve as best man, and Herbert Leuschner and Elmer Engelbracht will usher.

At the announcement party refreshments were served at a U-shaped table decorated with spring flowers and pink candles in crystal candelabra.

Bridal Shower

One of the attractive bridal showers of recent date was the garden tea given by Mrs. J. Reagan Walker, Miss Elaine Buttred and Miss Betty Wilkinson at Mrs. Walker's home, 1928 West Santa Barbara avenue, in honor of Miss La Verne Dages, married Harry Mabry Monday at the Church of the Angels. The co-hostesses and the honoree are all members of Lambda Chapter of Phi Beta, national professional fraternity of music and dramatic art.

Among the other guests were Mrs. James Humes, Mrs. Sanford L. Porter, Mrs. F. W. Savage, Mrs. Keith Carlson and the Misses Catherine Stone, Alberta Dudley, Gladys Scott, Pauline Mather, Arlowyn Hohn, Pauline Foster, Doris Hochmuth, Margaret Thomas, Alice Kramer, Jean Maschio, Helen Sauber, Doris Montgomery, Dorothea Purcell, Jean McGavney, Janet McGavney, Lois Eby, Dorothy Yoder, Doris Yoakum, Margaret Huse, Dorothy Delavan, Margaret Swan, Dorothy Rayner, Margaret Ewart and Grace Taecher.

Interesting Heirloom

Miss Pauline Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Maxwell of Cahuenga Park, was married to Everett G. Barnes of Hollywood at the home of her parents last Sunday. The loveliness of her bridal gown of old ivory satin was augmented by a hand-carved gold and coral set which her great-grandmother had worn at Abraham Lincoln's inaugural ball. Her corsage was of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Lillian Gibson, was gowned in shell pink satin and carried a corsage with flowers of corresponding colors. Lonie M. Maxwell, the bride's brother, served as best man and Rev. Sarquararson performed the ceremony.

ATTRACTIVE VISITOR IN EAST

She Will Play in Tennis Tourneys

[Philip Newberg studios]

Miss Carolin Babcock

ONE of the charming members of the younger set who is enjoying a delightful trip in the East is Miss Carolin Babcock, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Chapin Babcock of 310 South Lorraine Boulevard. Miss Babcock, who is prominent in athletics, left last Monday for the East where she will take an active part in the tennis tournaments during the season there. Miss Babcock was graduated from Marlborough school this last June.

Women's Finery of Eighties will be Shown Today

The corset, bustle and shroud of the 80's and 90's will vie for honors with the lacy finery and much depleted intimate unmentionables of 1930, in the "Fortyniner" lingerie revue for women only, which will be a special feature of the May Company's nineteenth anniversary celebration to be held in its exposition hall today at 2 p.m.

The petticoats and pantelets will be modeled by some of the members of the cast of "Our Blushing Brides" which features M.-G.-M.'s beauty trio, Joan Crawford, Dorothy Sebastian and Anita Page, and which has its premiere at the Criterion Friday.

A special feature to precede the lingerie revue will be a lecture on "How Talkies Are Made," Douglas Shearer. He will be accompanied by an expert from the Max Factor make-up studios, who will show the methods of make-up.

JIM CROW RECEIVES VISITORS

The sulky are in state of mind
Temptation dearly loves to find.
—Old Mother Nature.

Jim Crow was in disgrace. His master having found the stolen clothespins had to admit Jim Crow's guilt. Therefore, Jim Crow had to be punished. So for two whole days he was shut up in a pen in the barn.

"I surely don't suppose," said Farmer Brown's Boy, "that Jim understands he is being punished, but just the same I am going to punish him. He is probably wondering what it is all about. One thing is certain, and that is that he will have to be shut up on washdays. It won't do to have him pulling the clothespins and dropping the washing on the ground again."

When after a couple of days Jim Crow was once more given his liberty, he was very much out of sorts. He scolded Farmer Brown's Boy roundly. Farmer Brown's Boy chuckled. "I wish I could understand what he is saying," said he. "I presume he is telling me just what he thinks about me."

Having given his master a thorough scolding, Jim Crow went off by himself and sulked. Farmer Brown's Boy went down to the cornfield to join his father at work there. Jim Crow didn't go along as usual. His master tried to coax him down, but Jim refused. He just sulked. He flew up on the ridgepole of the barn and continued to sulk.

It was while he was up there that Blacky the Crow, his father, and also his mother, some of his brothers and sisters, and a lot of their friends, came flying over. They saw Jim Crow sitting on the ridgepole of the barn and they also saw that no one was about. So they decided to pay Jim Crow a visit. Presently that whole flock of Crows was gathered on the barn and other buildings. They were very quiet. Blacky alighted beside his long lost son and began to talk to him in a low tone. He was urging Jim Crow to join the flock and go back to the Green Forest with them.

Jim Crow's mother flew to the other side of him and she also began to talk. The other Crows looked on and said nothing. Jim Crow said nothing. But Blacky and Mrs. Blacky said enough for all the rest. At first Jim Crow was a little frightened. You see, he didn't know that Blacky and Mrs. Blacky were his father and mother. It had been so long since he fell from the nest and was found by Farmer Brown's Boy, and he had been so young at the time, that he just didn't remember his parents. Of course, he didn't remember his brothers and sisters and he never had known any of the other crows. So he was rather afraid of all these black strangers.

Probably if he hadn't been feeling sulky and out of sorts, he wouldn't have listened to what they had to say. But he couldn't forget how he had been shut up for two days. No, sir, he just couldn't forget that. If he should go with these folks of his own kind, he never again would be shut up. Presently, some of the other Crows began to urge him to join the flock. It sounded as if it would be very wonderful to go off with these black companions of his own kind and be free to as he pleased. It didn't occur to him that he was free and had been free right along.

Finally, at a signal, all the Crows took to their wings and began circling above Jim Crow, all calling to him to come with them. Then they headed for the Green Forest. It was more than Jim Crow could resist. "Caw, Caw, Caw!" he cried. The flock turned and came back. Jim Crow spread his wings. Two minutes later he was on his way to the Green Forest.

Chef Wyman's RECIPES

The Times' free cooking school conducted by Chef Wyman has been discontinued for the summer. Date for resuming has not been set but will be announced later.

TOMATO PRESERVES

One pound of tomatoes, sliced, four cupfuls of sugar, two ounces of Canton ginger, or a few pieces of the ginger root, one large lemon. Scald the tomatoes and peel them, slice and cover with the sugar and let stand overnight. Pour off the syrup and boil until clear and quite thick, skim, add the tomatoes and the ginger and the lemons sliced very thin, and cook until the fruit is clear.

GREEN TOMATO PRESERVES

Eight pounds of green tomatoes, six medium-sized lemons, six pounds of sugar, one tablespoonful of preserved ginger. Wash all the tomatoes and remove the spots or discoloration. Cover with boiling water and let stand for fifteen minutes. Drain and slice into a preserving kettle, placing a layer of the tomatoes, then a layer of sliced lemon, then a layer of sugar, and sprinkle with ginger. Let the mixture stand overnight. Drain in the morning and boil the syrup for ten minutes, skim, add the tomatoes and cook rapidly until clear. Pour into sterilized jars and seal.

BURGUNDY PLUM PRESERVES

Two pounds of Satsuma plums, one pound of blanched almonds, the grated rind of three medium-sized oranges and the pulp of the three oranges, two lemons. Quarter the plums, discard the pits, chop the almonds, add the rind and pulp of the oranges, and the two lemons chopped fine. Measure, and add an equal amount of sugar, place on the fire and stir until the sugar is dissolved, then cook until a little will jell on a cold plate, pour into sterilized glasses and seal.

CUP CAKES

One-third cupful of shortening, one cupful of sugar, two eggs, one and three-fourths cupfuls of sifted flour, two and one-half teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, two-thirds of a cupful of milk. Cream the shortening, and add the sugar, a little at a time, beat until light, then add the well beaten egg yolks, and beat again. Sift together the baking powder, flour, salt and add it to the first mixture, alternately with the milk, add the egg whites, that have been beaten until stiff, and fold them in. Add a half-teaspoonful of any desired flavor. Place the mixture in muffin tins, and bake for fifteen minutes in a moderate oven, then increase the heat and bake fifteen minutes longer.

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

SEASONABLE FRUITS AND VEGETABLES MAKE IDEAL SUMMER DIET

With summer fruits at the peak of their desirability the child should be given the advantage of them. Some fruits bear a bad reputation because children have overindulged in their use, rather than because the fruit itself is harmful. Excruciating stomach-aches and violent diarrhea may be due to eating unwashed fruit, while the fruit itself is blameless. If one is in the slightest doubt as to the harmfulness of any fruit, it can still be used by cooking and sieving, thus ending all question as to whether baby or child will suffer from it.

Most seedy fruits are best excluded from the diet of the child under 8 years. Watermelon and cantaloupe have little to offer except a delightful flavor and cellulose, so that as a part of any but the adult's menu they are valueless and sometimes distressing.

THE DESIRABLE FRUITS

Despite these exceptions, the list of desirable fruits is a long one. The older child may have ripe pears, ripe peaches, fresh ripe pineapples, ripe bananas (with this reiteration of "ripes," one must be sure that the fruit isn't too ripe, which makes it as dangerous as if it were too green,) white grapes, sweet apples, apricots, grapefruit, oranges and tomatoes (which are rightfully classed as a fruit.)

The baby or child under 2 years may have his apples, peaches, apricots and pears stewed and sieved, in addition to the tomatoes and oranges, which are such an essential portion of his diet and must not be omitted from the menu of any child taking any bottled or canned foods. Oranges and tomatoes offer him in greatest abundance the vitamins which are destroyed when milk is pasteurized, boiled, evaporated, dried or condensed. Without them he is all too apt to develop scurvy.

FRUITS AND ACIDITY

As all present-day authorities warn of the danger of raw milk, it behooves the mother to safeguard her children by giving them pasteurized or boiled milk and make up the loss of vitamins by the daily addition of oranges or tomatoes until the child is on a general diet containing other raw fruits. For only a self-addressed, stamped envelope readers may have our leaflet on "Fruits and Vegetables Suitable in the Child's Diet."

All fruits, with the exception of prunes, rhubarb and cranberries, are, despite their seeming acidity, really alkaline after digestion and thus contribute to the alkalinity of the body. We know many mothers who on being told that the child is suffering from an overacid condition immediately stop giving fruits, thus intensifying the very condition they are so anxious to eradicate. Fruits and vegetables are the outstanding foods with an alkaline ash, while the seemingly bland foods, such as cereals, breads, eggs, meat and fats, are those with an acid ash. We must have both to balance the diet. In hot weather, however, it is well to see that the child has an abundance of fruits and vegetables so as to automatically cut down his consumption of heating and acid-ash foods of which he might otherwise overindulge.

Health and Diet ADVICE

by DR. FRANK McCOY
Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

PASSING MIDDLE AGE SAFELY

If you have not paid attention to your health before middle age you may then find it necessary to make a study of this important subject. The time spent in understanding and practicing the habits of health at this particular age not only prolongs the golden period of middle life, but acts to prevent a bedridden old age.

During middle age the poor habits of living which have been carried on for years begin to take their toll. Little mistakes in eating begin to cause indigestion. Slight over-fatigue begins to bring on headaches. The patient becomes aware that his bodily forces are not being renewed as in youth.

One of the worst features of middle age is the constipation which so often accompanies it. Due to years of wrong diet, without enough roughage, and to the flabby abdominal muscles, which are the result of indoor work of today, the colon, after 40 is, in most people, not able to perform its full work of elimination.

High blood pressure and arterial hardening are also common hazards at this time. Patients with high blood pressure complain of pressure in the head, ringing in the ears, and inability to sleep. When the arteries become hardened and thickened, they do not carry blood freely to the various organs, and in severe cases these blood vessels may even give way and cause hemorrhages. By keeping the blood pressure down and keeping the arteries flexible, many serious attacks of apoplexy could be avoided. Heart trouble, kidney trouble and rheumatism are other disorders which should be guarded against during middle age.

The gradual decline in physical strength after 40 is due, to a large extent, to changes in the ductless glands. Suddenly taking on weight, or becoming thin and wrinkled, after 40, are signs of harmful changes taking place in some of these glands. One of the best methods for improving the condition of the glands is to take short fasts, as this tends to normalize their secretion. Sir Arbuthnot Lane, the noted English physician, says, "An occasional fast is beneficial for the middle aged, and especially if there is a tendency to obesity."

Women have learned to fear this period of life. However, nearly all of their troubles might be avoided if the proper dietetic and hygienic rules were followed. Almost everyone of this age has some degree of prolapsus of the stomach and other visceral organs which press down upon the large intestine, further hampering its action and elimination. The chemical result is that toxic material finds its way into the blood stream and the body thus poisons itself.

After 40 you should cut down on the starches and meats and use more fresh vegetables, raw salads and fruits. More systematic exercise is needed after 40. The body rusts out more quickly than it wears out, and regular exercises and the right diet will keep it flexible and ward off the rusting process.

Mental exercise is just as important as physical exercise. A man or woman makes a great mistake who tries to retire from active mental work. Proper mental activities without undue strain promote happiness at this time of life. Your accumulation of knowledge and experience should enable you to enjoy the maturer years of your life if you will make the effort to preserve your health.

HOW
WHITE?
WE USUALLY think of newly laundered things as pure white. But the truth is that most of the time they are not white at all. Sometimes they are gray, sometimes they are yellow, and sometimes they are even blue. It all depends on the soap.
White things will emerge from washing absolutely white if they are washed with a soap that is absolutely pure. And White King Granulated Soap is pure. No "filler" or foreign matter—nothing but the finest vegetable and nut oils, good enough to eat!
It's economical too! Because White King is condensed, a little of it goes a long way. One teaspoonful in a wash basin, one cupful in the washing machine—plenty, even in hard or lukewarm water. Safe and swift for blankets . . . dishes . . . delicate colored fabrics. Your grocer has it.

HOLLYWOOD GIRL WINS AS ORATOR

Miss Mitzie Wilmer

Miss Mitzie Wilmer, 12427 Moorpark avenue, a Hollywood business girl, now is the champion "building- loan" orator of the United States.

According to advices received from Grand Rapids, Mich., Miss Wilmer yesterday was declared the winner of the national five-minute speaking contest which was conducted by the United States Building and Loan League, now in annual convention in the Michigan city.

Miss Wilmer's victory carries with it the award of the national league's silver trophy cup, which is retained by the winner for one year. Recently Miss Wilmer, who is private secretary to Gilbert H. Beesemyer of the Guaranty Building and Loan Association, won first prize and the Ben Hazen cup in the speaking contest conducted by the savings, building and loan associations of the Pacific Coast, which qualified her to represent California in the national contest. Ten Western States had entries in the Pacific Coast contest.

TROJAN PLAY-WRITING COURSE ANNOUNCED

Dr. Frederick H. Koch, founder and director of the Carolina Playmakers, professor of dramatic literature at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and author of "Carolina Folk Plays," is to head a three weeks' college course in play writing which will open at the University of Southern California when the twenty-day post summer session starts on August 8, next.

DRAPERY THEFT SUSPECTS HELD

Police Recover $20,000 of Asserted Plunder

Two Merchants Arrested on Purchase Charges

Other Seizures Expected in Burglarly Case

Rounding up a gang of suspected drapery thieves, Detective Lieutenants Jamison and Massey of the Georgia-street division yesterday took two merchants into custody on suspicion of receiving stolen property, arrested a clerk on suspicion of burglary and recovered $20,000 worth of draperies and curtain material which they say has been identified as having been stolen from the establishment of S. Harris Company at 712 South Los Angeles street.

Search for the persons responsible for purloining the goods is under way, and will result, detectives expect, in the arrests of several former employees of the establishment today or tomorrow.

The merchants arrested are Maurey Witz, proprietor of a retail drapery store at 2237 Brooklyn avenue, and David Grossman, owner of a similar store at Hollywood Boulevard and Highland avenue. The detectives say they found some of the recovered property in their stores, and traced other goods sold by them to other merchants. The clerk arrested is David Lifshin, 6918½ Melrose avenue.

Lifshin, the detectives declare, was an employee of the S. Harris Company and is suspected of having been associated with the persons believed responsible for the theft. He denies the charge. Both merchants assert they did not know the goods they purchased were stolen.

Grossman will appear in Municipal Court tomorrow for preliminary hearing. Formal charges against Witz have not yet been filed.

FITTS SAYS TAX BURDEN ILL DIVIDED

Home Industry Stated to Have Been Discriminated Against Under Young

That California home industry has been discriminated against and foreign corporations favored under California's new tax law sponsored by Gov. Young was charged by Buron Fitts, in addresses at Chico, Red Bluff and Willows.

"You would think that in any revision of our tax system, home industries would get a break," he said. "Instead the new administration has put into effect a law whereby the tax rate of California's corporations has been increased 140 per cent over what they paid under the old law in 1928 while the tax rate of foreign corporations doing business in this State has been reduced 30 per cent."

Fitts asserted that California's tax system can be adjusted so as to eliminate this favoritism.

Locally, indorsements continue to pour in to the Fitts headquarters, the latest coming from the Junior Republican Club.

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from now until August 26, there will be a broadcast over KMPC at 11:45 a.m. There will be a daily broadcast over KELW at 6 p.m.

Yesterday, Mrs. Cora Deal Lewis, club woman, spoke over KMPC at 11:45 a.m. W. Turney Fox, assistant City Attorney of Los Angeles and formerly City Attorney of Glendale, was heard over KGFJ at 2 p.m. At 4:30 p.m. John R. Morris, attorney, spoke over KNX. City Attorney Erwin of Glendale was at the microphone at KELW at 6 p.m. while Cass Ecker, City Treasurer of Culver City, spoke over KMIC at 6:45 p.m. The final broadcast of the evening was made over KFWB by W. L. Pollard, Los Angeles attorney and member of the State Reapportionment Bureau.

Today, there will be a mass meeting at the San Pedro Fitts-for-Governor headquarters at 8:15 p.m., at which Mark Herron, formerly assistant City Attorney, will be the speaker. There also will be a Fitts - for - Governor meeting at Venice at which Leon Whittaker of the District Attorney's office will speak.

Attack Suspect Trial Tomorrow

Accused of wholesale criminal attacks upon eleven little girls, ranging in ages from 6 to 11 years of age, Sid Edging will be tried before Justice of the Peace Zaring in Belvedere Township at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Edging was arrested by deputy sheriffs, following complaints to their parents by six of the asserted victims. When he was arraigned for preliminary hearing before the same justice, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Tom O'Brien announced that additional complaints against the prisoner had been received and asked permission to amend the original complaint. This was granted.

Edging is represented by Attorney James B. Comer and is at liberty on bail pending the trial.

NIGHT WATCHMAN HELD FOR BURGLARY QUIZ

James P. Shelton, 35 years of age, night watchman, was arrested early yesterday morning on suspicion of burglary when Officer Hershberger, according to his report, caught him attempting to break into a Safeway store at Avenue 34 and Monte Vista avenue, Highland Park.

Shelton denied the charge but failed to explain, the officer said, why the lock from the front door of the store was found in his pocket. Hershberger added that when he approached the night watchman the latter made a motion to draw his revolver. This was taken from him by the officer and is being held as evidence. Shelton gave his home address as 5526 Monte Vista avenue.

The New in Stores & Homes

Novelties, Ideas, and Suggestions

By OLIVE GRAY

> Downtowning, these days, is positively thrilling! So many sales—real sales, in which savings are not merely small percentages, but so obvious as to need no computations. Big sales, for which we have waited and saved and planned, knowing their worthwhileness. More than ever worthwhile just now, are such economies, for those in the know, believe that prices will rise, as new tariffs go into effect. Aunt Jane still regrets her oversight in not stocking up, when years ago a similar situation existed, so she is warning us; and we are heeding.

Take Time to Appreciate

I hope, even during the rush of that great Birthday Sale, you will take time to admire the new and sumptuous fittings of that great store; for I doubt if anywhere, in any city, can be found anything more luxurious, anything in better taste, that the furnishings and accoutrements of the newly arranged salons. And there are many such salons, some situated in the new wing of the building, others which heretofore have been in existence, but which now are so rehabilitated as to seem new. Modernism in fitments has reached a supreme height in the effects throughout. And, following the ideals of store arrangement, there are many shops within the store, each for service along an especial line. There is the sports shop, savoured of sport by means of deft little touches, not only in display of wear, but by such accessories as miniature scenes reminiscent of the games for which apparel is designed. Atmosphere and its attainment in stores, has become an art in itself, and experts are engaged to devise the settings of first-class stores and shops; and in this recently enlarged great white store, this art has attained to notable effectiveness.

Novel Porchery

If you have observed and admired those queer metallic chairs, which came out last season, for porch use, you will find added cause for liking the new ones. These, while metallicly framed, with the frames turned, to fashion rockers, are softened by upholstery in woven grass, making for luxuriousness, as well as oddity.

New Ensembling

Having the hand-bag clasp and the bracelet match, is one of the latest ways of creating an ensemblage. The enamel, which lends color to this scheme, should match, or harmonize with the remainder of the costume.

Beau Bows

Back comes the bow, in millinery; but it does not, in coming back take a back seat upon the hat. On the contrary, it is posed at one side of the front, just under the brim, where it peeps forth so coquettishly as to deserve the quaint name given by its sponsors—the "beau bow."

Dutch Clocks

Much time must be consumed by clock-makers in the invention of novelties for, daily, we find something new in clockdom. One of the most interesting, recently shown was the Dutch clock bearing on its face not only the scenes usual to all productions of the Hollandish air, but at one corner having a tiny Dutch windmill outstanding; and this windmill actually works! It turns and turns with each tick of the clock—being, in some way, connected with the mechanism.

And Glass Ones!

With the vogue of glass, now so prevalent in all household appurtenances, it was not strange, perhaps, that clocks should go glassy. But here they are, just arrived from Europe, in the collection assembled for that brotherly store, during a recent prolonged visit by one of the brothers. These clocks of glass come in many different colors, in crystal-clear glass—small clocks for the desk, larger ones for the mantel and all are interestingly novel and pleasing. That they are good timekeepers, goes without saying.

Long Pastels

Silk gloves come in all the pastel shades and can be obtained to exactly match in tint, any ensemble. Others, there are, in the more heavy fabrics, some closely resembling suede, which are equally varied as to color. The fit of such gloves has been greatly improved during recent seasons, so that one can scarcely detect the difference between the real suede and the fabric—except in price.

The Spool Lady

Her face is pretty as any doll's, her arms are fashioned from spools run on a heavy cord; her frock is of crinkled paper and her "neckwear," also of paper—or is it cloth?—extends in a long panel from chin to frock hem and here becomes a pocket in which is concealed a thimble. The skirt of her dress is upturned all around and in it are set tiny spools of darning cotton in various colors. A very useful lady, she—as well as a dainty one, ready to welcome to the "spare room" the feminine visitor who may have come unprepared with darning appliances.

Cost Reduction Plan Adopted

A resolution setting forth the plan of the Board of Public Works for reducing the costs of its divisions by $640,000 to meet the budget deficit was adopted yesterday. All employees will take a half-day-a-week cut in salary.

SPEEDER OUT-TRAVELS FINE

A traffic tag for passing a busy intersection at sixty miles an hour isn't expensive in Municipal Judge Valentine's court.

In fact, Judge Valentine will order the city to pay for your board and room for several days if you plead guilty to that offense, as Orazio Misterly, 815 El Centro street, South Pasadena, discovered yesterday when he admitted traveling at that speed on Foothill Boulevard past Alosta Boulevard.

Misterly was taken to jail to serve a three-day sentence.

Face Full of Pimples For Two Years. Healed by Cuticura.
"My face was full of pimples and blackheads. The pimples were hard, large and red. They itched and burned and when I scratched them it made them worse and caused eruptions. They surely disfigured my face. I had the trouble two years.
"I tried other remedies but they did not help me. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in a week I could see a great difference. I continued the treatment and after using three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and two cakes of Cuticura Soap I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Marie Bernal, Box 63, Lake Arthur, N. Communist Defendants Draw Reprimand of Court

"Laws Not on Trial," Replies Judge to Arguments

Riot Suspects Call Police to Witness for Them

Efforts of the Communists on trial before Municipal Judge Willis for their parts in the Plaza riots of February 26, last, to put into the record the police policy toward street speaking, proved unavailing yesterday. Leo Gallagher, attorney for most of the defendants, called Police Captain Ammen, Deputy Chief Davis and Chief Steckel as defense witnesses to establish the police attitude.

After many questions asked by Gallagher, Frank Spector and Carl Sklar, the latter two Communist leaders now serving terms in State prisons, who are acting as their own attorneys, were objected to by Deputy City Prosecutor Hornaday, Judge Willis called to Gallagher's attention that no city ordinance is in question in the case.

"The theory of the defense has evidently gotten away from the complaints," Judge Willis said to Gallagher. "These defendants are not charged with violating any city ordinance, but with offenses against sections of the Penal Code, rioting, refusing to leave the scene of a riot and interfering with officers. Even if an ordinance were in question, the testimony of a police officer is not competent as to the interpretation of a law and such testimony could not be accepted by this court."

Gallagher announced last night that he will recall Chief Steckel as his first witness today to tell of any special orders given to the police concerning the Plaza demonstration and also that he will call all members of the Police Commission as witnesses to define their stand on Communist activities. Several of the defendants took the stand yesterday and told of the rioting as they saw it and their arrests.

BENEDICT'S LAST RITES TO BE TODAY

Former State Official Who Died in London to Rest in Forest Lawn

Funeral services for H. Stanley Benedict, one-time holder of California State offices who died in London on the 24th inst., will be conducted at 10 a.m. today in Wee Kirk o' the Heather, Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Mrs. Benedict and their daughter Margaret who were with Mr. Benedict on a tour of Europe returned with the body Monday.

The Benedicts lived at 309 North Las Palmas street. They left June 1, last, for a journey to improve Mr. Benedict's health. He was a sufferer from heart disease, especially since the fall of 1928. He was 54 years of age.

Mr. Benedict served in the State Assembly, State Senate, State Board of Control, State Railroad Commission and was prominent in legislation assisting Los Angeles to develop for a decade after 1910. His last active business connection was as an officer in California Building and Loan Association, now extinct. He was born in Missouri, but lived virtually all of his life here.

BOYS CARVE OUT OWN CAREERS

Home-Made Golf Links Money-Maker

Pennies Just Roll In

Youthful customers patronizing course built by playmates.

THE "own-your-own-golf-links" movement is spreading. Just go out to 4917 East Sixtieth street, Maywood, if you are not convinced. Ask for Tommy Malone and Jimmie Turnwall. They will probably be too busy to talk to you more than half an hour or so because of the fact that they have gone into the baby-golf business, and will have to attend to the wants of a lot of customers.

They are the proprietors, lessees, architects, builders and sole owners of a nine-hole course which they believe with proper advertising and correct business methods will launch them into a career, even though they are but 12 years of age.

"LOTTA FUN"

"Even if it doesn't," said Jimmie, "lookut the fun we are having."

"That ninth hole would puzzle Bobby Jones," said Tommy.

The idea started this way. It costs money to play baby golf—a lot of money—25 cents, Jimmie and Tommy explained. Now if they owned their own course, they could play all they wanted for nothing and could charge the kids for playing. So they built their course over back of Mrs. Jack Payne's woodshed, with her full consent and permission. It costs a penny to make the course with a par of twenty-eight. Grown-ups are assessed 5 cents.

BUSINESS BOOMING

Despite adverse business conditions everywhere in the country they found a white spot in Maywood, they said.

The boys went to the bottoms of the Los Angeles River and secured bushels of the soft fleece of the cottonwoods. They have used this instead of felt for their course. It works superbly. It was all arduously gathered and carried half a mile and then laid out and pressed down. There are water hazards, too, and if you are not careful you will drop the old pill into a can of water. There are long tunnels of pipe and rock and bumps and dizzy stances.

Tommy lives at 4911 East Sixtieth street and Jimmie at 4917 East Fifty-ninth Place.

FOUR-FOOT BLOND HAIR ON MAN DISRUPTS JAIL

Four feet of wavy blond tresses on the head of a prisoner in the men's department of the County Jail yesterday halted operations for nearly an hour.

New arrivals were being subjected to the customary search by "Tommy" Till, personal property inspector, when he noticed that one of them still was wearing a hat.

"Take off your hat and stay a while," ordered Till. The prisoner obeyed, rather reluctantly, and four feet of flossy blond tresses tumbled into view. Thereupon the searching ended just as it was about to begin.

"Lady," began the embarrassed official, "it seems there has been a mistake—you're on the wrong floor!"

The searchee tittered and blushed.

"I'm a man—honestly I am! My name is Earl Steed and I'm a female impersonator," was the reply in a distinctly masculine tone. "I prefer letting my hair grow to wearing a wig."

"Well, maybe you're right," rejoined Till, still skeptical, "but somebody else will have to finish the search. Send for a matron!"

Steed is held on a charge of suspicion of grand theft, and all because he took a ride in his brother's car without telling him of his intentions. The brother reported the car stolen and the youth was arrested when he was found driving it.

The impersonator said he is 17 years of age and gave his address as 2624 East One Hundred and Ninth street.

Gasoline War Doesn't Bother One Motorist

At least one motorist in Los Angeles county is not affected by gasoline price wars.

He has been obtaining his supply from the Los Angeles County Garage at 4437 Hammel street without cost save for the annoyance of waiting on himself.

For several months, according to a report on file at the Sheriff's office, the motor fuel has been vanishing between sunset and dawn. At first the quantities taken were small. Gradually they increased to twenty-gallons per visit, and yesterday morning Lee Page, custodian, discovered that eighty gallons had vanished during the night. The lock was broken and a screen had been cut by the thief in gaining admittance.

Some of the stuff was taken away in red containers which bore the inscription, "L. A. County Road Department," in bold lettering.

Deputy sheriffs of Belvedere substation No. 2 found the imprints of a rubber-soled shoe leading from the garage to a near-by road where the thief apparently had parked his car.

BERMAN MOVES FOR NEW TRIAL

Arguments on Motion Set for Next Week

Notice of Appeal to Follow if Plea Fails

Permission Given Him to Face Grider

A motion for a new trial to be followed by notice of appeal will be argued for Jacob Berman, former business associate of S. C. Lewis in the Julian Petroleum Corporation, August 8, next, before Superior Judge Schauer, who last week found Berman guilty on three counts of forgery resulting from the stock operations which went just before the Julian crash in 1927.

Berman, with Deputy Public Defender Hill, who acted as defense counsel, appeared before Judge Schauer yesterday for sentence, but upon motion of Hill, the entire matter was put over until next week when the court was notified that the motion for a new trial would be argued at length.

In the meantime permission from the Attorney-General of the United States was obtained yesterday for Berman to appear as a prosecution witness against Frank Grider, a member of the first Julian jury, and now charged in an indictment with having accepted a bribe from Berman through Louis Krause, already convicted as Berman's go-between. Grider is scheduled to stand trial next Monday morning before Superior Judge Wilson.

Berman, although he will probably be placed on the witness stand against Grider, yesterday announced that he will refuse to testify against the former juror as he believed him innocent of the charges against him.

The former oil man who is here from the Federal prison at McNeil Island, where he is serving a seven-year mail-fraud sentence, cannot be forced to testify, as he is in the custody of Federal guards and already in prison.

WIDOW GETS FORTUNE OF KERCKHOFF

Lumber and Realty Man Has $17,360,041 Estate; Daughters Share, Too

Inventory of the estate of William G. Kerckhoff, lumber man and real-estate owner, filed in Probate Court yesterday, showed the decedent was worth $17,360,041.09.

Of this estate, the widow, Louise E. Kerckhoff, gets one-half as a community share and the residue after certain other bequests. Chief of these are $1,000,000 each to two adopted daughters, Mrs. Marion K. Holmes and Gertrude K. Young. Their husbands, Gerald C. Young and Webster B. Holmes, get $100,000 each. Henry Kressman, secretary of Kerckhoff, inherits $50,000, his assistant secretary, J. H. Kennedy, $5000, and his stenographer, a Miss De Muth, $1000.

The estate consisted of $13,521.45 in money, 270 shares of the Terre Haute Corporation of Los Angeles, $259,616.45; one share of the Bolsa Land Company, $150,000; 30,000 shares of the William G. Kerckhoff Company, $16,184,200, and memberships in the Midwick and Los Angeles country clubs, and the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Appraisers of the estate were F. Burton, J. H. Martin, and Henry Morrissey. Attorneys of record are the firm of O'Melveny, Fuller & Myers.

New Trial Plea Won by Doctor

Dr. George E. Darrow, convicted in Superior Court on a second-degree murder charge for assertedly having performed an illegal operation with fatal results to a patient, was granted a new trial yesterday by Division 1, District Court of Appeal. Court error in ruling on objections by the defense to the admission of certain testimony were responsible for the reversal. The woman died while in the physician's office. The doctor testified that he merely was examining the patient at the time.

DANCE HALLS CASE ARGUED

Mayor Only Speaker Favoring Their Closing to Appear at Council Committee Hearing

Only one speaker in favor of the proposal appeared at a hearing of the City Council's Police and Fire Committee yesterday on the proposed ordinance to put all the taxi dance halls in the city out of business. The hearing was called as the result of a request to the Council from Mayor Porter that such an ordinance be adopted. The single speaker was the Mayor himself.

Councilmen Ingram and Williams insisted that the Mayor should be asked to give his reasons for suggesting the ordinance. Ingram declared that there seemed to be, from the testimony of the witnesses heard, sufficient teeth in the present dance-hall ordinance to cope with any abuses.

"The Mayor, through the Police Commission, has the power to put an end to any ills in the conduct of dance halls without the passage of new laws," Ingram said.

Williams then suggested that the Mayor be asked to explain his views.

The Mayor appeared within a few minutes and told the committee he was impelled to make his suggestion because of numerous complaints concerning the dance halls. He said he had first submitted these complaints to the Police Commission, but that body evidently had been unable to gather sufficient evidence to close any of the places concerned. He disclosed that several of the commissioners had made personal investigation of the dance-hall situation.

Williams said closing all the taxi dance halls would throw at least 500 girls out of work, many of them the chief support of families. The Mayor replied that, while he does not wish to take any action which would make the unemployment situation worse, his paramount interest is in law enforcement. He added that he is not insisting on the blanket ordinance if the abuses he believes exist can be ended in any other manner.

Three members of the police dance-hall detail said conditions existing in the six taxi dance halls now being operated in the city are remarkably good. Three others, against which there were definite complaints, have been closed recently, and there was no particular difficulty in closing them, as the Police Commission merely revoked their licenses. One of the officers said there have been only two arrests for any cause in taxi dance halls within the past four months.

Many representatives of the dance halls appeared to defend their enterprises, and expressed willingness to co-operate in any further regulatory measures which might be adopted.

The question of the girls dancing with Filipinos was injected into the proceedings and it was brought out that there are only four halls where this is permitted. Two representatives of Filipino organizations spoke in protest against any discriminatory measures.

The committee took the matter under advisement at the end of the long hearing.

CENTER OF DISPUTE OVER HIS PARENTAGE

John C. Davis, Jr.

DAVIS BOY QUIZZED ON PATERNITY

Youth Sheds Little Light on Controversy Involving Pseudo Belgian Count

Ten-year-old John C. Davis, Jr., was questioned by Blayney Matthews, chief of the District Attorney's bureau of investigation, yesterday in an effort to determine whether he is a son of John Davis, Sr., of Alhambra or of Eugene Reique, who, at times, has posed as a Belgian count.

The boy was unable to aid the officers in their inquiry. He stated, however, that Reique had never told him he is his father.

The matter has been under investigation by Dist.-Atty. Fitts for nearly a week resulting in the arrest of Reique and Mrs. Myrtle A. Nisbett Davis, the boy's mother. The pair were charged with perjury and making a false affidavit concerning the boy's paternity.

Though she has been questioned repeatedly, Mrs. Davis still maintains that the boy is the son of Reique. Officers, however, contend that they have found evidence which indicates that this contention is impossible.

Reique is to be questioned today concerning the affair.

CITY HOST TO FAMILY OF TALENT

Sir Dudley De Chaire and Son of England Win Fame in Different Lines

There seems to be quite a bit of talent in the family of Admiral Sir Dudley De Chaire, former Governor of New South Wales, who arrived in Los Angeles yesterday from San Francisco, en route to his home in England.

ADMIRAL SIR DUDLEY DE CHAIRE

During the World War Sir Dudley commanded the third British battleship division, has had a lifetime of service for the crown, as a diplomat, a sailor, naval attache and Governor of a province.

Somerset De Chaire, Oxford freshman, 18 years of age, has written a book, "The Coming Storm," which has attracted considerable attention in England and has been translated into five languages on the continent. Another brother, Lieut. H. G. D. De Chaire, is in the British navy. Lady De Chaire and her daughter, Miss Elaine, completed the members of the family, which is stopping at the Ambassador.

"We are bathing in the reflected glory of son's book," said the Admiral last night. "Certainly we are proud of him."

"What do you think of the naval treaty admiral?"

"Just as soon as I get the time I am going to read it, and make up my mind," he said smilingly.

"I was stationed at Los Angeles twenty-five years ago as naval attache and it is like getting back home to be here again. The town of course, is not the town I knew but it is good to see the gum trees which are natives of Australia.

SOMERSET DE CHAIRE

"We feel that Australia is a second United States in the making and that there are tremendous possibilities ahead for the country. Fifty years from now it will be a really great commonwealth, ranking with the best and the largest in the world."

The De Chaire party will be in Los Angeles for a week and will spend most of the time on Catalina Island as the guest of their friend Maj. Fred R. Burnham.

Admiral Sir Dudley De Chaire was Governor of New South Wales for more than six years. He has retired from public life and expects to pass the remainder of his days in England.

SLIM CLEW ENDS CHASE OF FUGITIVE

Police Find Wanted Man at Address Known Only to Them as "Room 650"

Pursuing a clew provided by the vague designation, "Room 650," detectives yesterday arrested an asserted embezzler wanted in Newark, N. J., on seven indictments returned two years ago. The suspect is Ira Benjamin Glueckfield, 40 years of age, a former practicing attorney of the New Jersey city. He is booked on a fugitive warrant pending further advices from eastern authorities.

Yesterday morning the police department received word from Newark police that they had intercepted a letter mailed in Los Angeles and addressed to Glueckfield's wife. It was worthless as a clew, however, except for the sentence, "I am moving my office from Room 612 to Room 650."

Detective Lieutenants Armstrong and Bligh made an all-day canvas, in which a photograph of Glueckfield aided the search. In Room 650, Subway Terminal Building, they found their man. As B. C. Fields he was employed as general manager of a collection agency.

Since coming to Los Angeles Glueckfield has been living at 516 South St. Andrews Place.

CANDY SHOP HELD UP

A man with a gun took $33 from Miss F. Bergman, attendant at the See Candy shop, 2011 West Seventh street, last night and made his escape, police report. Miss Bergman was locked in a back room by the bandit to aid his escape.

FIGHT ON PARALYSIS GAIN

Health Director Reports to State Council on Meth Used in Battling Epidemic

"There is an indication that the peak in the prevalence of infantile paralysis in California will be reached soon," Director Dickie the State Department of Public Health reported at Gov. Young's ty State Council meeting which came to an end in the City Hall day. The disease made its summer increase earlier than season, Dr. Dickie said. Since the first of the year to the middle month 607 cases were reported, that is, about ten to each population.

"It may be definitely stated," the director said, "that every possible known attribute in the control of the disease is in use and there is every reason to believe that it will return to normal prevalency in a short time."

SOUTHLAND GUARDS HEALTH

Speaking of Southern California in particular in regard to general disease prevention and handling work, Dr. Dickie said:

"It is doubtful if any section of the United States is more active in caring for the health needs of its residents."

It came out in the report of the Department of Natural Resources to the council that in Kettleman Hills gas and oil field in June 460,405,000 cubic feet of gas was produced, of which 369,007,000 was wasted; Santa Fe Springs, 324,926,000 production, 179,880,000 wasted; Elwood, 43,825,000 production, 34,103,000 wasted; Ventura, 147,997,000 production, 27,800,000 wasted; Long Beach, 197,564,000 production, 9,215,000 wasted; State total, 1,437,806,000 production, 639,520,000 wasted.

FIRES IN STATE LISTED

Open-area fires in the State to the 20th inst were numbered in the report as 746, burning over 27,057 acres, causing $124,250 damage.

The Metallic Vogue

—a new asset to autumn "elegance"

—there is a new individuality in the metallic motif this autumn; fabrics are more supple—their shimmer less obvious—and often they are very sheer—as elegant as ever, but with more restraint

—sometimes there is just a little metallic accent in collar, sleeve or other lovely detail—again the metallic note may be in the blouse—and when the entire dress is of metallic fabric, it may even have a tailored appearance like the model sketched ($135)

KANSAS CITY, July 30. (AP) Eastwood Hills golf course here will be lighted for night playing, one of the first, if not the first, golf club in the country to try the nocturnal game. A test of one lighted hole has proved a success. A contract calls for installation of lights on the first nine holes to enable play after sundown by next week.

YANKEES WIN TWO FROM SOX

Gehrig's Homer Breaks Up First Game, Pipgras Stars in 10-1 Nightcap

BOSTON, July 30. (AP)—The New York Yankees slugged their way to a pair of victories over the Red Sox today, but it took them ten innings of the first game to get started. Lou Gehrig's home-run drive over the left-field fence in the tenth, his thirty-second circuit wallop of the year, broke up a pitching duel in the first game and led to an 8-to-2 victory for the Yanks. George Pipgras pitched a good game in the second contest and New York won, 10 to 1.

Referee Halts New York Go at End of Ninth

New Zealand Boxer Handed Severe Lacing

Old Tom Helpless as Arbiter Stops Fracas

TUFFY GRIFFITH

Heeney, nearing the end of a career that reached its height two years ago in an unsuccessful duel with Gene Tunney for the heavyweight title, fought gallantly to stave off the rush of the husky youngster and did fairly well until the ninth.

A right to the chin that almost drove Griffith through the ropes in the first round gave Heeney an edge in that session and a fierce rally gave old Tom the eighth round.

In the ninth, however, Griffith caught Heeney near the ropes in a bitter exchange and rapped a right to the left side of the veteran's face that cut his eyelid. Another right smash puffed the flesh about the eye, another cut it deeper, and in a few seconds Tom reeled helplessly around the ring. The bell rang before Griffith could floor his man.

Heeney was steered to his corner and his seconds worked frantically to mend the damage. In their excitement they appeared to have splashed some of a blood-stopping solution in the eye and Tom couldn't see when he answered the bell for the tenth. The referee quickly stepped in and awarded the match to Griffith on a technical knockout before Tuffy could strike a blow.

The weights were: Griffith, 187; Heeney, 205½. A crowd of 8000 saw the show.

UP IN THE AIR TO ELLSWORTH VINES

Here we have a flash from the match between Francis T. Hunter, veteran internationalist and Davis Cup star, and youthful Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena for the metropolitan tennis championship. Vines won in a thrilling five-set match after dropping the first two sets. Yesterday he turned back another former international star, R Norris Williams, in the annual Seabright classic. GAINS SEMIFINAL ROUND OF TITLE NET TOURNEY

Sydney Wood Also Moves Up After Hard Tilt With Jones, 7-5, 7-5; Virginia Hilleary Wins

SEABRIGHT (N. J.) July 30. (AP)—Playing the same brilliant game that has marked his triumphant march through eastern tennis ranks, Ellsworth Vines, 18-year-old Pasadena (Cal.) star, today eliminated 39-year-old Richard N. Williams of Philadelphia in advancing to the semifinal round in the Seabright invitation tournament. The score was 6-0, 4-6, 6-2.

The lanky Californian having won the first set without losing a game, ran three in the second before Williams's drop volleys began to count. The veteran soon ran out the set with the loss of only one more game. Vines, however, again made the pace in the third set and showing a variety of strokes, won with ease.

ELLSWORTH VINES

Advancing to the semi-final round with Vines were Frank Hunter, No. 2 ranking on the national list; Clifford Sutter, 19-year-old Tulane student, and Sydney B. Wood, Jr., another youthful star from Pasadena. In tomorrow's match Vines meets Hunter in one-half of the draw, while Sutter and Wood match strokes in the lower bracket.

Hunter, whom Vines defeated in the finals of the metropolitan turf tournament last week, was extended today by Julius Seligson, New York, Lehigh tennis ace. Hunter won in straight sets, but the scores were 7-5, 8-6.

Wood advanced at the expense of David N. Jones of New York after an hour of battling, the scores being 7-5, 7-5, while Sutter took over J. Gilbert Hall, South Orange, N. J., 6-3, 6-3.

Equaling Vines's sensational performances, Miss Virginia Hilleary of Philadelphia accounted for her second victim among America's first ten women players, when she defeated Miss Sarah Palfrey, Brookline, Mass., who is ranked No. 4, by 6-4, 5-7, 6-4. Previously on Tuesday the Philadelphia miss had disposed of Miss Marjorie Gladman, ranked No. 9.

Going into the semifinals along with Miss Hilleary were Mrs. L. A. Harper and Miss Edith Cross of San Francisco, and Miss Josephine Cruickshank of Santa Ana, Cal. Mrs. Harper, who meets Miss Hilleary tomorrow, eliminated Miss Marjorie Morrill, Dedham,

STARS TAKE DUCKS INTO CAMP AGAIN

Mails Strikes Out Ten, but Support Fails and Team Loses, 7 to 3

PORTLAND (Or.) July 30. (AP)—Hollywood beat Portland tonight, 7 to 3, despite some fine pitching by Walter Mails, who struck out ten but saw his work go to waste through horrible support.

WALTER MAILS

"Junk" Walters played third base for Portland and made three errors. In the seventh the Stars made two runs and tied the score without a hit.

Portland has now lost six straight and is tied with Seattle for basement honors, while Hollywood went into a tie with the Missions for first place as a result of tonight's victory. The score:

PEDLEY POLO SENSATION

Famous Midwick Star Scores Seven of Team's Sixteen Goals in Cup Tryouts

LOCUST VALLEY (N. Y.) July 30. (AP)—The "Whites" led by Capt. Tommy Hitchcock, Jr., again defeated the "Reds" in the fourth of a series of matches today to select a team to defend the Chester Cup in the international matches with the British in September. The score was 16 to 11.

Eric Pedley, sensational Californian, playing at No. 1, scored seven of the Whites' sixteen goals. The Reds, bulwarked with a six-goal handicap, remained on even terms until the match entered the fifth period. At the time Hitchcock, whose play previous had been erratic settled down. He and Pedley, aided by an occasional goal contributed by J. P. Mills, No. 3 on the Whites, were beyond the reach of their Red rivals.

ERIC PEDLEY

E. J. Boeseke, Jr., the other Californian striving for a place as an international poloist and riding at No. 2 for the Reds, never could get started. He scored a goal, but missed completely many shots in the general play.

SHIELDS MEDALIST IN WASHINGTON EVENT

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) July 30. (AP)—Johnnie Shields, Seattle, won medal honors in the eighteen-hole qualifying round today of the Washington State amateur golf tournament at the Bellingham Club, when he scored 72, one over par.

Bud Ward, Olympia, and Hugo Haakons, Seattle, tied for second place with 73 each.

SHAMROCK V SAFELY AT AZORES ON LONG JAUNT

HORTA (Island of Fayal, Azores) July 30. (AP)—The Shamrock V, Sir Thomas Lipton's pride, upon which he pins his hope of capturing the America's cup this September, was safe and sound in Horta Harbor tonight after having been out of contact with her convoy for five days.

The Shamrock was proceeding in company with the steam yacht Erin five days ago, when mist and rain swallowed her from view. The trim craft carries no wireless and all attempts to regain touch with her were fruitless.

The Erin ultimately steamed on to Horta to take on coal. She arrived this morning and the confidence of her crew in the Shamrock was proved well founded when this afternoon the white sails of the cup challenger were seen billowing over her dark hull as she rounded Pico Point and came into port reporting all well.

Both vessels plan to continue their voyage tomorrow night.

YOUNG STRIBLING "DOPED" BEFORE PHIL SCOTT FIGHT

LONDON, July 30. (Exclusive)—It has now been revealed that a local anesthetic had to be administered by a specialist to William (Young) Stribling an hour before he entered the ring to fight Phil Scott. Since his fight with Otto Von Porat at Chicago, Stribling has had a weak left hand. An hour before the fight he called in a doctor to administer novocaine to deaden the pain. It was with this left hand that he knocked out Scott.

ARMOUR DEFEATS DIEGEL IN PLAY-OFF TO CAPTURE CANADIAN OPEN TOURNEY

ANCASTER (Ont.) July 30. (AP)—Tommy Armour, great Scotch stylist, today won the open golf championship of Canada, by defeating Leo Diegel, unorthodox American pro, 138 strokes to 141 in a thirty-six-hole play-off for the title.

TOMMY ARMOUR

LEO DIEGEL

In the championship proper at 72 holes last week the two pros tied with scores of 277. Armour turning in a sensational 64 on his last round to 67 for Diegel.

The scoring today was higher, Armour making the two rounds in 69 each, a stroke under par for each 18, while Diegel, after keeping pace with his friend in the morning, slumped to 72, two over par, in the afternoon.

Diegel faltered at the eleventh hole of the afternoon round, the twenty-ninth hole of the day, when he took a 7, three over par, while Armour holed out in the conventional 4. The three strokes gained here marked Armour's margin of victory.

This hole proved the Nemesis of Johnny Farrell Saturday and today it cost Diegel the title he had won four times. Leo hooked his drive into bushes, took two strokes to go ten yards coming out, was short with his approach and, finally on the green in five, took two putts. Armour, in the meantime, drove straight

FIVE CROWNS NOT DEFENDED

Gladys Patz Withdraws from Titular Event

Dolph Muehleisen Favored in Men's Play

Violet Doeg Out to Retain Junior Laurels

With five of the six championships undefended, the seventeenth annual Los Angeles county tennis tournament starts today at the Palomar club courts. Violet Doeg, junior girls' titlist, is the only defending champion. Gladyz Patz, women's singles queen, was expected to play, but has temporarily withdrawn from tournament competition.

GLADYS PATZ

In the absence of Sydney Wood, Dolf Muehleisen has been made the singles favorite, and opens his campaign at 9 o'clock this morning with C. Tisdale. He may play three matches.

Elizabeth Deike, Pasadena queen, is the favorite in the women's singles, and plays Sarah Freeman in her first match. Muehleisen and Bob Muench, national collegiate doubles champions, are favorites in that division.

More than 200 players will take part in the tourney. The finals are scheduled for Sunday. Today's schedule:

and true, sent his second on the green, and holed out in two putts for his par.

Diegel scored two birdies and went one over par on one hole going out in the morning and played every hole coming home in par for a score of 69. Armour had one birdie on the first nine and one hole over par, but he picked up a birdie coming home to leave matters all even at luncheon.

The first nine in the afternoon was played in thirty-three strokes, two under par, and the twenty-eighth, too, failed to give an advantage when a pair of fours were scored. And then came the turn in the tide, resulting in the eventual swamping of the long-hitting Diegel.

Armour, who won the title in 1927 and has twice been runner-up, outplayed Diegel, on the whole. Long putts threatened to drop constantly throughout the morning round, approach putts from twenty to twenty-five feet stopping inches from the cup seven times in the first eighteen holes.

VINES SCORES TENNIS UPSET

Mass., 2-6, 8-6, 6-3, while Miss Cross turned back Miss Penelope Anderson of Richmond, Va., 6-3, 6-4.

Miss Cruickshank disposed of Miss Ethel Burkhardt, also of San Francisco, by the scores of 8-6, 6-4.

Tomorrow's schedule includes semifinals men and women's singles and women's doubles.

COMPLETE CARD FOR MAIN STREET SHOW

Carlo Curtis has completed the boxing card to be staged at the Main-street Athletic Club Saturday night. He has lined up seven four-round bouts, with Joe Borola and Johnny Chrismas boxing the main event.

Henry Gaitanez and Ralph Green, 165-pounders, will box the semi-wind-up. Other bouts scheduled are: Marcus Morales vs. Lawrence Brown, 140 pounds; Norman King vs. Frankie Martin, 135 pounds; June Lagera vs. Angelo Fuste, 112 pounds; Lucky Baldwin vs. Tony Gaitanez, 135 pounds; Delfin Buayaben vs. Tony Ross, 118 pounds.

GREAT BRITAIN is said to be just as well pleased that two Georgia delegates have concluded their summer visits to the land of the lion. The two Georgians have removed most of the golf cups and Phil Scott's scalp—but they left the Thames and Piccadilly.

Is Football Slipping?

"Do you believe," writes H. L. F., "that football is actually slipping among the undergraduates?"

Football isn't slipping as far as the spectators and the alumni go, but it is among the undergraduates of the East. It is also starting to slip among the undergraduates of the Middle West. As great a game as it is, it has become overemotionalized, a trifle too rich a diet for many undergraduates to face.

Last fall there were at least two large eastern universities where over twenty promising football players, who had played the game in preparatory schools, refused to come out for the two teams. There was another case where four or five members of a crack freshman team announced their retirement from intercollegiate play. The pressure had become too heavy—the intercollegiate game had been overbuilt in the way of general importance.

Football isn't slipping yet in the South and the Far West. But if the heavy pressure is continued and the national importance of victory or defeat is carried on any further, it will also start slipping in these two sections—among the undergraduates.

Most of the sanity shown in regard to football is with the undergraduates. They are beginning to get a trifle wiser to the situation as it is. They are beginning to look toward games that have more fun and less drudgery, less heavy criticism and less fulsome praise.

Football will always remain one of the best of American games, but some way will be found to reduce its big overplay, where it has become more of a sport for the spectators than it has for the players. In time, the undergraduate will take good care of this phase.

Hack Wilson must like the glitter of diamonds in the Babe's crown. Hack is still after the coronet of clout which the Babe considers his personal property. And Hack is a persistent cuss.

Few Champions

The point has been advanced as to why, with all the tennis now played in the United States, far more than ever before, no successors to Tilden, Johnston and Richards have been developed.

One would think that where five are playing a game against one of ten years back there would be at least three or four ready to step into the gap left by Big and Little Bill. But champions in any sport are far apart. It took France several generations to bring out a La Coste, Cochet and Borotra. There is now more tennis played in France than ever before. But there is no Cochet—no La Coste in sight.

The many qualities that make a Tilden or a Cochet—in tennis—are extremely rare. A million boys might pick up tennis and not one develop into an outstanding star. There must be a touch of genius to bring on a Bobby Jones, a Tilden or a Cochet. Or a Helen Wills.

Polo Squads Meet Sunday

In a polo match at the Uplifters' Club on Beverly Boulevard next Sunday afternoon, the Buccaneers, captained by Lionel Pedley, are slated to clash with the Rovers, led by Capt. Brunson. The game is intended as a try-out for the various player who are being considered for the club team which meets the strong Santa Barbara four on August 10 and 17 on the local field. The tentative team will line-up with Lyell Puckett at No. 1, Snowy Baker at No. 2, Lionel Pedley at No. 3 and Clair Brunson back. In Sunday's game, these players will be divided between the Buccaneers and the Rovers. Hugh Blue, referee, will throw in the first ball at 2:30.

The line-ups:

Buccaneers		Rovers
Will Rogers, Jr.	No. 1	Dr. Rex Duncan
Lyell Puckett	No. 2	Snowy Baker
Lionel Pedley	No. 3	Clair Brunson
Carl Beal	Back	Dick Smith

ACE HUDKINS PLAYS POLO NEXT SUNDAY

With Ace Hudkins, noted fighter, leading the attack from the No. 3 berth, the Glendale polo four will attempt to hand the Hollywood Polo and Hunt Club quartet its second defeat in eight contests Sunday on the Ventura Boulevard field. The contest will feature a benefit program for the family of the late Ben F. Dobbins, champion all-around cowboy and movie double. Besides the polo game, a wild west rodeo featuring trick roping, bronco busting, and trick riding will also be staged.

In a preliminary contest a team of Dudes led by Buddy DuBrock will clash with a cowboy squad in a spectacular four-chukker battle.

CULVER RING DARK

Promoter "Cy" Saenz announced yesterday there will be no bouts at the Culver City Stadium tonight. The new policy is to hold events every second Thursday instead of weekly as heretofore. This policy has been in effect for the past month.

BANNER BRIGHT WINS

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—The Audley Farm silks again showed their way in front at Latonia, when Banner Bright, a two-time winner at the Kentucky meeting, defeated a field of 3-year-old fillies over a mile and seventy yards in the Mills Point Purse today.

SHAW PREDICTS ROUGH MAT GO

Salt Lake Grappler will Face Nick Lutze

The finish mat battle between Nick Lutze and "Wild" Bill Shaw, the Mormon redhead, scheduled as one of the feature events of the all-star wrestling card at the Olympic Wednesday night, is expected to develop into the roughest seen here this year.

Shaw is regarded as the roughest of the new crop of young heavyweight mat stars. When he broke into the game as a pro a few years ago he showed great possibilities of developing into a clever and scientific wrestler. After being roughed and pounded about by veteran heavyweights for about a year, the fiery redhead decided that he would use the same tactics himself.

Shaw went east recently, meeting the best grapplers around New York and Pennsylvania. He won six straight bouts, and had a match with Richard Shikat which he was not able to go through with because of a shoulder injury suffered in training.

Marin Plestina, the giant 240-pound Jugo-Slav who meets Don George in the feature, was scheduled to arrive here from San Francisco this morning to prepare for his finish match. Plestina won a three-fall match from Lee Wycoff in San Francisco, Tuesday night. Wycoff's opponent on this card will be Pietro Bacini, Italian mat king. They will meet in the opener.

Walker Stops Oster in Third

NEWARK (N. J.) July 30. (AP)—Mickey Walker, middleweight champion of the world, knocked out Willie Oster, New England champion, in the third round of their scheduled ten-round bout at Dreamland Park tonight. The referee stopped the fight after Oster hit the floor for the third time.

Walker, weighing 163, looked trim and full of fight. Oster came in eight pounds over the class limit.

Mickey got down to serious work toward the end of the second round, landing a smashing right to the heart that marked the beginning of the end. He used only his left in the third session, smashing the New England boy to the floor three times with jabs to the chin.

On the first trip, Oster got up without a count, the next time he took four, and the third time eight. When he fell again, Referee Gene Roman waved Walker to his corner and picked up Oster without the formality of a count.

Although a New Jersey boy, Walker had not fought in this State for five years. A crowd of 18,000 cheered him tonight.

Reds Prefer Sun to Arcs

INDIANAPOLIS, July 30. (Exclusive)—The Cincinnati Reds, first major-league baseball club to play a night game, tried the arc lights against the Indianapolis American Association team here tonight and decided emphatically they prefer the sun.

Campbell and Ash, Cincinnati pitchers, were pounded hard by Indianapolis and the Reds piled up numerous errors to give the Indians a 17-to-5 victory. Indianapolis has won a good majority of its night games, but has failed miserably on the road.

Dan Howley, Cincinnati manager, said after the game the arc lights will never go in the major leagues. He regarded them as a box-office life saver with the minors. Howley found the arcs especially deceptive on hard-hit balls close to the ground. Bob Meusel, Cincinnati outfielder, said fly balls looked like aspirin tablets when they approached his vicinity.

RITCHIE KING PICKED OVER YOUNG REISTER

Ritchie King, veteran lightweight boxer who recently gave Goldie Hess a great battle at Hollywood, will be favorite over Bobby Reister, the sensational young knocker-out, in the ten-round main event at Pasadena tonight.

Morrie Cohan has lined up a preliminary card of five four-round bouts. Jack Haywood and Jack Gilmore, a pair of hard-hitting 175-pounders, will box the semi-wind-up.

SONNENBERG VICTOR

MANCHESTER (N. H.) July 30. (AP)—Gus Sonnenberg, claimant of the world's heavyweight wrestling title, was awarded the decision over Cowboy Jack Wagner, Providence, R. I., in a wrestling match here tonight when Wagner was disqualified for kicking his opponent. Each man had secured a fall when the bout developed into a fistfight.

AIR NINE WINS

SAN PEDRO, July 30. — Behind airtight pitching of Lefty Sickinger the air artillery of Fort MacArthur defeated Ford Universals of Wilmington, 5 to 2, here today marking the soldiers fifth win in six starts. Mulgannon with homer and single accounted for three earned artillery tallies.

MONTREAL (Quebec) July 30. (AP) Al Foreman, lightweight champion of Great Britain, gained a ten-round decision over Maurice Holtzer of France here tonight.

Soccer Title to Uruguay

MONTEVIDEO (Uruguay) July 30. (AP)—Uruguay today won world supremacy in soccer football for the third time, defeating Argentina, 4 to 2, in the final of the international tournament here after trailing, 1 to 2, at the end of the first half.

HEAVYWEIGHTS WIND UP WORK

Emanuel, Morro Complete Training for Clash

Armand Emanuel and his young opponent, Al Morro, Jim Jeffries's heavyweight hope, wind up their training this afternoon for their ten-round battle tomorrow night at the Hollywood Legion Stadium. Both fighters are on a keen edge for the clash and they need nothing but a slight tuning today to fit them for the contest. Morro has been working at the Jeffries ranch at Burbank, while Emanuel has done his chores in town.

The Jewish heavyweight, of course, will enter the ring favorite to defeat the youngster. Morro has had but one pro fight here. Emanuel has fought the best in the business. Emanuel is the same type of boxer that Jim Corbett was in his day. He will box the Burbank boy's ears down, the experts claim, if everything goes according to Hoyle.

Jeff believes Morro will upset the dope and beat Emanuel soundly. The former champion will second his fighter at Hollywood. Morro in his only start beat Tony Stabineau in impressive fashion.

Tom Patrick, Mike Gorman's light-heavyweight, battles Fred Cullen in the semi-wind-up. Patrick has been coming along in nice fashion lately and his handler expects to have him in the first flight locally before many moons.

Ora Smith and Pete Petecho clash in the special event over the six-round route. Morrie Eagleson and Jack Tremain meet in a four-rounder, as do George Hamilton and George Akis.

DEVLIN KNOCKS OUT MORINO IN SEVENTH

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30. (AP)—Chick Devlin, 156½, halted the fistic climb of a local rival, Al Morino, 152½, when he knocked the latter out in the seventh round of their ten-round bout tonight at National Hall.

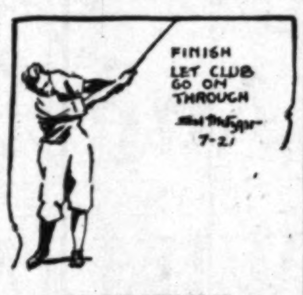
Devlin, more rugged and a harder puncher, floored his opponent twelve times during the bout, once in the third, seven times in the sixth round and four times in the seventh. Devlin won every round easily.

Johnny Costello, Oakland welterweight, won a decision over Kid Capley, Sausalito, in their six-round event.

BOWEN SETS MARK IN SPRINT AT OSLO

OSLO, July 30. (AP)—Pete Bowen, Pittsburgh star, won two events in the track-and-field meet here today, taking the 100-meter in 10.1s. and setting a new record of 48s. for the 400-meter. The old meet record for the distance was 49.2s.

Sweetser at Finish of Odd Lofted Shot



BY SOL METZGER

Here is Jess Sweetser, 1922 national amateur champion and the first American-born golfer to win the British amateur, at the finish of his plopped cut shot to the pin. You go through on this shot, just as on any other, and if you'll recall my sketch of him at the top for this shot you'll see that his follow through about balances with his backspin.

That isn't a bad rule to remember. After all, all golf shots are like the swing of a pendulum. Your finish is a balance with your position at the top.

Now that shot I've described, as played by Sweetser, is a handy one to have in your bag. But don't get the idea you can execute it right off. None requires more practice. Delicacy with speed always does. Don't play with it. If you are going to master it give a lot of time to doing so.

People are continually asking Sol Metzger "Why can't I make my approach shots stick on the greens?" Metzger has answered the question in his newest leaflet, "The Art of Pitching." If you wish this leaflet send stamped, addressed envelope to Sol Metzger, in care of The Times.

Indians Thump Missions, 4-3

SEATTLE, July 30. (AP)—The Seattle Indians took the second game of the series from the Missions here tonight, winning a 4-to-3 victory after the Missions had tied the score at 3-all in the sixth inning. Seattle's winning run resulted from a combination of Cox's double, Knothe's single and a wild heave into the grand stand by Rodda in the last half of the ninth.

SHERIDAN STOPPED BY JOE PEREGRINA

Joe Peregrina scored a seven-round technical knockout over "Poison" Homer Sheridan in a scheduled ten-round main event at the Wilmington fight arena last night. Peregrina had previously been defeated by Sheridan in a close go at Hollywood. Johnny Gonzales won a six-round decision from Richey Thomas in the semi-wind-up and Georgie Hanford won on a technical knockout over Bell Wells in the special event. In the preliminaries Russ Beach decisioned Jimmy Rogers and Al DeNave stopped Henry Pitts in the first round.

TILDEN REVIEWS CUP PLAY

"Big Bill" Says French Superiority in Davis Net Event Less This Year than Last

BY WILLIAM T. TILDEN II

PARIS, July 30. (NANA)—Though we won one less match this year than last in the Davis Cup challenge round the margin of superiority of the French team was less than in previous years.

BILL TILDEN.

Jean Borotra had played me so close at Wimbledon that the French were confident he would win. The confidence seemed well founded when he, playing steadily and volleying well, won the first set at 6-2 and ran into a lead of 5-2 in the second set.

Up to that point I had been missing my ground strokes in returning his while my passing shots either failed or went into Borotra's hands. Suddenly the change came. I found control of three passing shots off his service which gave me the vital break, and, once I had pulled even, the edge of superiority was mine for the rest of the match.

Borotra made a gallant effort at 5-1 down in the fourth set, but, though he rallied to 5-all by great volleying, he could not quite pull out. Henri Cochet outclassed George Lott to win three straight sets and make it one match all the first day of play. Lott was soft and uncertain, so that Cochet was never extended.

BRILLIANT EXHIBITION

The crucial match of the tie, the doubles, went most unexpectedly to France due to a remarkably brilliant exhibition by Jacques Brugnon who partnered with Cochet against Allison and Van Ryn, the Wimbledon champions. Allison was in unexpectedly bad form and Brugnon never played so well. His usually weak overhead was a tower of strength while his return of service and his delivery itself were the best of the four. Cochet played well but not remarkably.

John Van Ryn single-handed kept the United States in the match for three sets, but Allison could do nothing right either off the ground or at the net and it was his wildness that cost United States the vital point.

Lott made a gallant and very nearly successful effort to put us on even terms in the fourth match against Borotra. Lott played magnificently, quite well enough to win and probably would have done so if the foot fault judge had enforced the rule. Borotra continually foot faulted, especially in the last three sets, but the judge watched him and called none.

LOTT PRAISED

Lott drove magnificently, lobbed perfectly and volleyed and served well. He played a really great match—one for which he deserves great credit. Only hard luck kept him from victory. I feel that Lott definitely showed that he has the game that may beat Borotra at any time now.

The cup was won by France when Cochet and I took the court, so neither player was very keen in the final match. Cochet played well to win in four sets in a match that showed his undoubted genius.

The largest galleries in French tennis history saw all three days' play, in which each match was keenly contested, with both Lott and Van Ryn showing themselves greatly improved match players since last year.

HUGE TURNOUT SEES CONTEST

Carrol Yerkes Hurls Seraph Band to Victory

MOORE, DITTMAR SHINE

Magician Zamloch used three Oakland pitchers, Jim Edwards and Herb McQuaid following Daglia to the mound. Daglia, however, was responsible for only two of the six runs scored off him, poor support helping the Angels in the fifth and sixth when they counted five times.

Pete Read, Oakland catcher, hurt a finger on a foul tip off Schulmerich's bat in the seventh, so Ernie Lombardi finished behind the log.

Yerkes started off badly by walking Uhalt and the Oaks turned the pass into the first run of the evening. Martin, who bats right-handed against southpaw pitching, struck out. Vergez came through with a single to center and the fleet-footed Frenchman scampered to third. Vergez was out at second, Hannah to Sigafoos, on an attempted double-steal, but Uhalt dashed home on the play. Sigafoos was late getting over to cover second so decided to play sure and tag Vergez instead of throwing to the plate and taking a chance of missing both men.

The Angels tied it up in the second after Schulmerich had been retired when Jacobs singled to center and, with the count three-and-two on Haney, Fred doubled to center to bring Jake across the plate. Haney took third on Statz's out, but perished when Arlett got under Hannah's fly for the third out.

Both sides threatened in the third, but neither could put across a run. A great play by Dittmar retired Daglia to start the Oakland half, but Uhalt followed with a single. Martin hit to Jacobs, whose throw to second pulled Dittmar off the bag, but the Angel shortstop returned the ball to first in time to convince Umpire Powell that Martin was out. Most of the fans in back of first disagreed with the verdict for it appeared that Jacobs was off the bag. Vergez then lofted to Moore for the third out.

ARLETT THRILLS FANS

Yerkes opened the Angel third with a double but died on second when Daglia disposed of Sigafoos, Moore and Dittmar.

Arlett gave the fans a thrill in the fourth when he drove one over the left-field wall but it went foul by inches. Buzz then came back to the plate and grounded out, Haney to Jacobs. Fenton also went out but Dean and Deviveros singled. Read skied to Moore for the third out.

Yerkes fanned the side in the Oakland fifth, Daglia, Uhalt and Vergez going down on strikes.

Daglia ran into trouble in the fifth and three Angel hits and two Oakland errors gave the Cherubs three runs and a 4-to-1 lead. Truck Hannah led off with a single to left and took second when Yerkes singled to right. The Angels have given up hope of sacrificing Truck around the paths and only hit straight away. Sigafoos drove a long fly to left center that Uhalt got under, but dropped, and Hannah moved his ancient, but honorable frame to third base, naturally leaving the sacks loaded. Moore singled to left and Hannah came home, the Angels considering it a great feat to move Truck around from first on two singles and a long muffed fly. In fact, moving Hannah around the bases compares favorably with moving a four-story apartment-house. But for all Truck's slowness of hoof he's having a great year and you just have to take your hat off to him.

Dittmar then forced Moore at second, Deviveros to Dean, but the latter's attempt for a double play resulted in a low throw to first and both Yerkes and Sigafoos crossed the plate before Fenton could retrieve the errant pellet. Schulmerich fouled to Vergez, who made a nice running catch down the left-field line and then whipped the ball to Dean in time to double Dittmar, who had attempted to take second after the catch.

DAGLIA ROUTED

Daglia was routed in the sixth when his own wildness, a couple of bunts, one of which Vergez bobbled, and a sacrifice fly produced two more Angel tallies. Jacobs walked for a starter and Vergez booted Haney's sacrifice bunt. Statz also bunted and beat Daglia's throw to first, filling the bases. Hannah popped out but Yerkes worked Daglia for a walk to force Jacobs across the plate. That was all for Daglia, Edwards coming to the mound. Sigafoos greeted the southpaw by driving a sacrifice fly to Arlett that scored Haney and sent Statz to third. Edwards then whiffed Moore for the third out.

Oakland got its final run in the seventh when Mellana, batting for Edwards, singled off the left-field fence, Moore's fine fielding keeping him from a double, took third on Uhalt's double and scored on Martin's infield out. Score:

Jones Closes Grid School

Howard Jones, famous Trojan football mentor, who has been sporting the title of "professor" since he began teaching summer football classes on June 9, last, will again become Coach Jones after tomorrow's session, when his coaching class at the University of Southern California closes after three weeks' instruction. The S. C. mentor plans to spend the remainder of the summer at home.

Chuck Klein Adds to Lead

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

The Big Six members had a busy day yesterday as four of them engaged in double-headers but the general trend of the batting averages was downward with Chuck Klein and Babe Ruth, the first and the last, furnishing the exceptions.

Klein hit three out of seven in his two games to add a point to his average and make it .408. Ruth hit four times in nine attempts and gained 2 points going to .358.

Frank O'Doul, Klein's leading rival, dropped a point to .403 with three hits in nine tries. Bill Terry and Al Simmons failed to connect safely and dropped 4 and 5 points respectively. Lou Gehrig held fourth place between them, dropping 3 points to .387 as he made three hits, one of them his thirty-second home run of the year, in ten tries.

Baseball Notes

Gordon Rhodes has chalked up four straight triumphs and has scored seven wins with only one defeat since returning to the Hollywood Stars. Rhodes has started in ten games and has pitched five complete games. He has been used as a starting pitcher exclusively.

Howard Craghead has been twirling sensational ball of late. The husky Oakland pitcher has won five out of his last seven starts, chalking up a couple of shutout victories. Craghead is the real "Iron Man" of the Coast League. He has started in twenty-seven contests this season, winning thirteen and losing fourteen. Craghead already has toiled through close to 200 innings.

Latest Coast League batting averages show more than forty players batting above the .300 mark. Of this total only six have failed to connect for at least one circuit clout.

LEE EISAN TO WED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30. (Exclusive)—Lee Eisan, quarterback of the University of California football team for the past three years, graduated last May, applied today for a license to wed Miss Edith M. McClelland of Honolulu. He is 24 years of age, and she is 22. They attended high school together. They will be married August 9, next, and live near La Verne University, where Eisan becomes football coach September 1.

"BULLET JOE" BUSH ILL

ALLENTOWN (Pa.) July 30. (AP)—"Bullet Joe" Bush, former major-league pitching ace and now manager of the Allentown Eastern League club, tonight was under the care of a physician at his hotel in Springfield, Mass., following a severe attack of ptomaine poisoning.

JOYOUS GREETING WINS

GOODWOOD (Eng.) July 30. (AP) Joyous Greeting owned by the American, Mrs. Corlette Glorney, won the Goodwood stakes handicap today by three lengths over Medarlin, owned by Sir. C. Hyde. West Wicklow owned by Lord Derby was third. Eighteen ran.

JONES, JENKINS SIGNED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30. (AP)—Suey Welch, manager of Gorilla Jones, Negro welterweight, of Akron, O., announced today he had signed his fighter to meet Ham Jenkins in a ten-round bout in Denver on August 15.

SHARP NEARING STANDING PEAK

Only Thirty Points Back of Francis Quinn

In spite of his pair of sensational victories in the past two weeks, Jimmy Sharp, the "sheik" of the western dirt-track auto racing game, has been unable to pass Francis Quinn in the battle for the 1930 championship, it was revealed yesterday by A. C. Pillsbury of the American Automobile Association.

Pillsbury's weekly announcement of the standings of the pilots competing for the title on Southern courses shows that, although Sharp has been taking first money in the forty-lap feature events, Quinn has been piling up points by grabbing second place in the longer races and first honors in the [illegible] dash and sprints.

Only about 30 points separate the pair in the reckoning and a victory for Sharp in two events at Ascot Saturday night will enable him to pass the veteran Quinn.

Walt May, who is holding third position, is undecided on whether or not he will compete this week. May overturned with his Pedro Special a week ago. Word received from the East is to the affect that little "Stubby" Stubblefield may return soon for the fall and winter season here. Standing of the leading ten throttle thumpers, eight of whom will face Fred Wagner's starting flag Saturday night are:

Dado Suffers Injured Arm

Speedy Dado, Filipino flyweight, will be shelved for at least two months as the result of a broken left arm, according to an announcement made yesterday by Frank Churchill.

"On being examined by physicians yesterday following his fight with Midget Wolgast at the Olympic Auditorium on Tuesday night," said Churchill, "Dado was found to be suffering from a broken arm."

The upper bone of Dado's left arm was fractured at a point where the muscles are attached to the arm. This will necessitate Dado carrying his arm in a plaster cast for a month.

The fracture, according to Churchill, occurred in the second round, and reports that Dado was suffering from throwing his shoulder out of place were erroneous.

BARRACUDA, HALIBUT RUN AT SANTA MONICA

Charter fishing boats have been in demand daily by the many anglers making Santa Monica their fishing mecca this summer, it was learned today from Cliff and Jack, operators of the ships W. K. and Lark.

The schools of barracuda and halibut are still close to shore off the bay city and hundreds of big fish have been caught during the last week. The regular [illegible] bat boats Thrush and [illegible] have been carrying close to capacity crowds on week days and returning with huge catches of [illegible] fish.

CHISOX FLOP

CHICAGO, July 30. (AP)—The St. Louis Browns today got revenge for beatings administered by the White Sox in St. Louis, winning games of a double-header, 3 to 1 and 6 to 1. The first game ten innings.

The Browns did not get an earned run in the first game, seven by the Sox infield accounting for the hostile runs. The winning run in the opener was scored when Ryan dropped Jolley's throw, which would have retired the side.

RABBIT PUNCHES
By PAUL LOWRY

JUST A PLEASANT DAY

"WHY, this isn't hot," quoth Mr. Frederick Morrison as he proceeded to snag three birdies in the first four holes at his home course, Midwick, yesterday morning.

"You should have been at Interlachen when the boys were fighting for the national open golf championship.

"It was HOT then.

"Today is very pleasant.

"On the first day of play at Interlachen I weighed 204 pounds stripped.

"When we started the final rounds on the third day I scaled 184.

"I changed shirts three times in the course of each eighteen holes of play.

"Water ran out of the bottom of my knickers.

"When I leaned over to putt, perspiration rolled off my face like Niagara Falls.

"The heat wrecked many a good player at Interlachen.

"Walter Hagen never hit shots better in his life, but it got him like many of the others.

"At the end of the first thirteen holes I thought I would have to quit. Black specks floated before my eyes, and I had to grasp a tree for support.

"That was real heat for you."

A NEW McLOUGHLIN?

PASADENA'S Ellsworth Vines has moved up from the brevity class to banner line reports.

The 18-year-old kid from the Crown City has played such superlative tennis in his first year in the East as a senior that it smacks of the days of Maury McLoughlin, the old California Comet.

Vines, a slim youngster with only a background of junior play, has bumped off three outstanding stars of the East.

He has beaten Frank Shields twice, upset Frances T. Hunter, the former Davis Cup star, in five sets the other day, and yesterday disposed of R. Norris Williams.

Williams is another of the Davis Cup vets and once a national singles and doubles champion.

NIGHT BASEBALL CONFLICT

A WEEK ago the Olympic moved its weekly fistic date ahead one night in order not to conflict with the opening of night baseball.

It was felt that the boxing event would suffer. It did—on Monday night, and the ball game was on Tuesday.

This week the Olympic went back to its regular schedule.

Midget Wolgast and Speedy Dado outdrew the L.A.-Oakland night game more than two to one.

Hereafter the Olympic will not worry about conflicts.

BREAKERS AHEAD

IT LOOKS as if the bottom is about to fall out of the miniature golf course market.

The city and county are about to enforce a midnight curfew law, and the mushroom spread of the baby links is making existence tough for all except the better courses.

It is plainly a case of the survival of the fittest, and with the coming of winter months the pickings probably will be slim.

PRIZE FOR HEAVIEST DEER DRAWS INTEREST

A great deal of enthusiasm is again manifested by hunters in the heaviest deer competition started by the Dyas Company. Dyas's have put up a Savage rifle to be awarded to the hunter who personally brings in, weighs and registers the heaviest killed this year in California. All deer must be weighed at the log cabin information bureau at Dyas's downtown store at Seventh and Olive. Also, a merchandise trophy will be given to the hunter or huntress who brings in the first deer (any weight) of the season.

Pirates Stage Late Rally to Trim St. Louis

PHILADELPHIA, July 30. (AP)—The Brooklyn Robins took advantage of the idleness of the Chicago Cubs today to increase their lead in the National League race to two and one-half games by twice defeating the Phillies in a double-header. The scores were 9 to 5 and 9 to 4.

In each game the Robins took the lead early and coasted along to victory. Watson Clark, Robin southpaw ace, finished the first game for Ray Moss when he showed signs of weakening near the end and then pitched the entire second contest. The Robins piled up a total of thirty-one blows in the two games, including homers by Hendrick and Wright in the second. The double defeat ran the Philadelphia string of defeats to eleven straight. GIANTS BEST

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—The combined pitching and batting of Fred Fitzsimmons was too much for the Boston Braves today and the Giants defeated Boston, 5 to 2.

Fitzsimmons allowed the Braves eight scattered hits, hit a home run with one on base, a double and a single and drove in three runs. Eddie Marshall was the second Giant star, making four hits in as many times at bat and turning in some neat fielding.

Bob Smith kept pace with Fitzsimmons until the eighth inning when the Giant pitcher's homer put the finish on a three-run rally that settled the game. The score:

ELIMINATION OF SPRING GRID WORK WANTED BY WISCONSIN

MADISON (Wis.) July 30. (AP)—Elimination of spring football and out-of-season basketball practice has been proposed to the Big Ten by the University of Wisconsin Athletic Council. Such a move, Badger athletic leaders believe, not only would permit athletes to gain higher scholastic standings but would materially diminish the so-called "overemphasis" on college athletics. The proposal is expected to meet with little opposition except possibly in the case of several Big Ten members which have several intersectional games on the 1930 schedule.

KID BROWN TRAINS HARD FOR TOWNSEND RING GO

Harry (Kid) Brown is training with light-heavyweights for his ten-round bout next Tuesday with Billy Townsend, Vancouver slugger. He picked out Young Billy Papke, who weighs 170 pounds, for his initial workout yesterday at the Manhattan gymnasium.

Papke's father was not present yesterday but will be on deck today. The former middleweight champion believes his 18-year-old boy will learn more working with a smart boxer.

Brown has had ten fights since the first of the year, scoring two knockouts and losing but one decision. He had four fights within a period of fifteen days in June, stopping Sammy Harris, losing to Johnny Smackey and beating Johnny Sacco and Jimmy Abbott.

Townsend, who has had fifty fights with twenty-five knockouts, is back in harness. There is talk that he may box Jack Thompson here if he defeats Brown. Thompson and Brown have fought twice, both bouts being staged in San Francisco.

The Olympic has Midget Wolgast and Chato Laredo booked for August 19 and Armand Emanuel with Leo Lomski August 12.

The Grand-avenue club had its best summer gate last Tuesday night when Wolgast defeated Speedy Dado. The house was a little over $12,000.

Si Masters announced yesterday that ladies with escorts would be admitted free to the Townsend-Brown fight next week. This applies to the reserved sections only—not the gallery.

DEER HUNTERS ALL SET FOR SEASON'S OPENING

Deer hunting season opens tomorrow in Districts 2, 2½ and 3 of the California coastal counties north of Ventura county with good prospects offered in many districts, nimrods are advised by the outing bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California, which has just made a reconnaissance of the east and west sides of the high Sierra range.

Among the likely places where deer may be found, declare the club outing experts, are the Manzana and Sisquoc districts reached by trail out of Los Olivos in Santa Barbara county, in the western part of Lockwood Valley, partly in Kern and partly in Ventura county, which is reached via the Ridge Route, and in the Cuyama Mountains reached from the Santa Maria-San Joaquin Valley road.

Another good place for deer, it is believed, is in the Monterey range of the Santa Barbara National Forest in the vicinity of Cambria, Jolon and Big Sur.

Fishing for golden trout has been excellent of late in some of the higher Sierra lakes and waters, such as Cottonwood Lake and Creek, Rock Creek and Rock Creek Lake, Golden Trout Creek and Whitney Creek in the Lone Pine district.

Golden trout of the larger sizes have been caught in fine quantities recently in the high lakes out of Independence, the outing bureau reports. Good golden trout angling has also been found in the high lakes, especially Lake Dorothy and Lake Genevieve, above Convict Lake.

Fairly good trout fishing has been reported during the past week from the Mammoth lakes, June, Silver and Grant lakes, while Virginia, Green and Twin lakes of the Bridgeport district have offered very good fishing.

Ocean fishing from the live bait boats and barges has been exceptionally good in Santa Monica Bay of late, barracuda, bass and bonito coming in in large quantities. This is also true of the banks off Hermosa, Redondo and Balboa beaches.

Several large broadbill swordfish have been hooked off of Balboa Bay during the past week, it is reported.

Surf fishing for corbina has been picking up along the shore region between Sunset Beach and Oceanside.

Bad Boy Wins Race Feature

AGUA CALIENTE (Mex.) July 30. Bay Boy, 4-year-old Paicines gelding, scored his second straight victory for Frank Rinehart, his owner, this afternoon when he came home in front in the La Playa. The race was a six-furlong affair and Bad Boy never left the issue in doubt. He dashed to the front with the rise of the barrier never to be headed. He won by two lengths from Ethel Sherlock with Bonnie Kay getting the show.

Apprentice Willie Johns went on another winning spree this afternoon, accounting for three of the seven races. He won the second, fifth and sixth events. Results:

First race, five and one-half furlongs, claiming—Motor Bell, first (West;) Herokeina, second (Turk;) Hawkshaw, third (Woolf.) Time, 1:07 4-5.

Second race, five and one-half furlongs, claiming—Joellen, first (Johns;) Loyde, second (Hart;) Virginia Morse, third (Moran.) Time, 1:07 3-5.

Third race, five furlongs, claiming—Golden Oriole, first (Lennie;) Nadia, second (Johns;) Harshaw, third (West.) Time, 1:00 2-3.

Fourth race, five furlongs, claiming—Maurice D, first (Lennie;) Chief Pontiac, second (Turk;) Hereina, third (Fischer.) Time, 1:00 4-5.

Fifth race, six furlongs, claiming, the La Playa—Bad Boy, first (Johns;) Ethel Sherlock, second (Stransku;) Bonnie Kay, third (Moran.) Time, 1:12 4-5.

Sixth race, six furlongs, claiming—The Miss, first (Johns;) Perrichon, second (Jones;) Deep River, third (McHugh.) Time, 1:13 1-5.

Seventh race, one and one-eighth miles, claiming—Silent Jack, first (Moran;) Wee Girl, second (Johns;) Play Hour, third (McHugh.) Time, 1:54 2-5.

Honor Trojan Track Stars

Honoring members of the 1930 University of Southern California track-and-field team which won the I.C.4-A. and N.C.A.A. championships during the past season and members of United States Olympic teams, the Santa Monica Breakers Club will be the host at a dinner-dance to be given at the beach club tomorrow at 7 p.m.

Headed by their famous coach, Dean B. Cromwell, and Frank Wykoff, holder of the world's 100-yard dash record, the S.C. track stars who are expected to attend are Milt Maurer, Vic Williams, Art Woessner, William McGeagh, Cliff Halstead, Lee Hansen, Jeddy Welsh, Captain-elect Ernie Payne, William Carls, Bob Hall, Dick Barber, Howard Paul, Peter Chlentzos, William Livingston, William Hubbard, Bob Van Osdel and Jim Stewart.

Among the former Olympic track stars who have accepted invitations to attend are Dr. Clarence (Bud) Houser, Charley Paddock, Lee Barnes and Otto Anderson.

MARLIN SWORDFISH HOOKED

AVALON (Catalina Island) August 30.—The first marlin swordfish of the season has been taken here by Robert Mankowski, fishing from his new cruiser the Samoor. Mr. Mankowski fought his sworded adversary for twenty-five minutes before bringing the great game fish to gaff. His catch weighed 262 pounds and was gaffed by Clyde Van Marter.

SEALS TROUNCE SOLONS AGAIN

Elmer Jacobs Wins Over Sacramento Outfit

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30. (AP)—San Francisco's Seals made it two straight over Sacramento's Senators today with a 6-3 victory.

Successive two-base hits by Donovan, Wingo, Baker and Oana scored three runs after the visitors had tied the count in the seventh.

The Senators nicked Elmer Jacobs for fourteen hits, but bad base-running, coupled with good support by the local outfielders, brought the veteran right-hander through safely.

FRESNO WANTS ANGELS AND REDS FOR GAME

FRESNO, July 30. (AP)—Negotiations are under way here to book the Los Angeles and San Francisco Mission ball clubs of the Pacific Coast Baseball League for an exhibition game in Fresno the night of Monday, August 25, the date of the launching of night baseball at the Firemen's Park. The Angels will be traveling south and the Missions north on that date.

The local park is being equipped with night lighting facilities costing $11,000. Sponsors of the project plan to foster a movement to bring Class B ball to the San Joaquin Valley with Fresno holding one of the franchises. President Harry Williams of the Coast League will be invited here for the opening.

DUCKS SELL SUMMA TO PHILADELPHIA A'S

PORTLAND (Or.) July 30. (AP)—Thomas L. Turner, president of the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League, announced today Homer Summa, outfielder, had been sold to the Philadelphia Athletics. He will leave Portland tonight.

Portland gets Roger Cramer, Philadelphia outfielder, and an unnamed amount of cash, Turner said.

Plymire Upset in Ocean City Tennis Event

OCEAN CITY (N. J.) July 30. (AP) Harold Colborn of Philadelphia created an upset today in the annual Atlantic Coast tennis championships at the Ocean City Tennis Club by defeating Harry Plymire of California, in the third round after three hard-fought sets. The scores were 4-6, 8-6, 7-5.

Plymire was seeded sixth in the tournament, while Colborn was not in the selected list.

Bertram Hammel, former captain of the Swarthmore College tennis team, and seeded No. 2, advanced to the fourth rounds by a 6-2, 6-1 victory over John McDiarmid, University of Texas. H. Y. Culley, California; Earl Taylor and Jake Hess, University of Texas, and Henry Clabaugh, Baltimore, also reached the fourth round.

Mickey Riley and Crabbe in Oriental Swim

HONOLULU, July 30. (AP)—The Hawaiian Association A. A. U. has accepted the invitation of the Japanese Swimming Association for Clarence (Buster) Crabbe, Maiola Kalili, Manuela Kalili, all of Honolulu, Mickey Riley, Los Angeles, and Alberto Zorilla, Argentine Olympic swimmer, to compete in Japan's national swimming championships beginning August 23.

Subject to approval of the foreign relations committee of the National A. A. U., the swimmers plan to leave Honolulu August 7, returning in December. D. C. Conkling, vice-president of the Hawaiian A. A. U., will accompany the swimmers as manager.

The five mermen have competed in various meets here recently.

DEAUVILLE STARS TO ENTER SEATTLE SWIM

Led by its amateur coach, Tom Pierce, three stars of the Deauville Beach Club swimming team will enter the annual northwestern A.A.U. one-mile swim at Seattle Friday and are conceded a fine chance of taking top honors.

Norman Skeete and Tom Medlicott are the two other members of the squad and have been among the leaders in the recent ocean swims in the Southland. Both athletes are at the top of their form and trained en route for the race.

enjoy all of your cigar...

the "Last Inch" test shows you how

USE the "Last Inch" test to select your regular smoke. Strong, bitter, hot cigars can't pass this test. But cool, mild, mellow cigars will pass—they are the cigars that give you extra pleasure, for you can smoke them down to the last inch.

Admiration easily passes the "Last Inch" test. Fine 100% Havana fillers that have aged a full year create Admiration's mellowed-mildness...Admiration's expert handworkmanship creates its delightful freedom in drawing—the secret of its coolness. Today, try Admiration, you'll enjoy it to the last inch.

EVEN THE LAST INCH IS MILD AND MELLOW

The "LAST INCH" Test

Here's the evidence of Admiration's superiority. Smokers everywhere are proving that Admiration is as cool, mild and mellow when the last inch is reached as when it was first lighted...MAKE THE "LAST INCH" TEST TODAY.

HARBOR BOARD RENAMES ALLEN

He Will Head Commission for His Sixth Term

Crawford Vice-President by Re-Election

Growth in Post Revenue and Efficiency Reported

Walter B. Allen was elected to serve his sixth term as president of the Harbor Commission at the organization meeting of the commission yesterday and J. B. Crawford was re-elected vice-president. It will be the latter's second term.

Commissioner Andreani pointed out that during the past five years there has not only been a great increase in the business administered by the harbor department but there has also been a notable improvement in the efficiency of the department, as revealed in the fact that the expenses of the department were 40 per cent lower during the past year than they were five years ago.

The annual income of the department has increased in five years from $1,600,000 to $2,400,000. The number of vessels which cleared the part annually has increased from 5901 in 1925 to 7888 last year.

One of the most notable achievements of the department, according to its report, has been the unification of rail facilities at the harbor, as evidenced in the belt line agreement and the rail classification yard, with the result that the handling of freight cars at the harbor has not only shown a great improvement in speed and facility but is also less expensive than before the success of the unification program.

Title to Dobyns Fortune Granted to His Widow

Title to $350,000 left by the late Harvey Britton Dobyns was decided yesterday by Superior Judge Bishop in favor of the widow, Mrs. Florence M. Dobyns, in her friendly suit against the Security - First National Bank and others. The suit was instituted to determine title to $350,000, which was on hand when Dobyns died, November 12, 1929.

The bank, as executor, contended that much of the total stood in Dobyns's name, while some stood in the names of both husband and wife. Mrs. Dobyns asserted there was an oral agreement that all of their property be held in joint tenancy, the survivor to take all. Judge Bishop ordered a judgment for the plaintiff, holding that the oral agreement was sufficient, except as to real estate. Joined with the bank as defendants were C. Merwin Dobyns, Geraldine I. Waite, Grace Margaret Merill, Chester Huston Dobyns and John Alden Dobyns.

No Bond Vote for City Due at Primary

The City Council yesterday adopted reports of its legislative committee, submitted by Councilman Davis, chairman, disposing of a number of improvement matters. There will be no bond issues submitted on the August ballot, but space was reserved on the November ballot for the power bonds, $500,000 for a jail building and $2,500,000 for supplemental and relief sewers.

The County Affairs Committee also was instructed to take up with the Board of Supervisors the matter of turning over to the county the female detention home, which must be removed from its present location and reconstructed.

STUDIOS TO PRODUCE ABROAD

Anderson Lawler, Marie Astaire Return to New York; M.-G.-M. Signs Noted Viennese Actress for Long Term; Sharon Lynn, Noel Francis Cast in "Lightnin'"

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Never have the movies been in such a state of flux as they are today. With television in the offing, when one will be able to see and hear pictures in one's own home, but with the movie organizations naturally not eager for this state of things, with the foreign actors who also speak good English arriving on our shores and with foreign producers raging more than ever against American pictures, it looks as though pictures are in for an exciting time of it.

And now comes along another factor. This is the production of foreign language films in foreign lands by American producers, which an executive said yesterday was a state of affairs slowly taking shape. Universal and Fox already admittedly are preparing for production in France and Italy, while the Spanish versions will be taken care of in Hollywood. Fox is to establish studios in Rome and Paris, we hear. It is said that Warners also, as well as other concerns, will probably produce foreign language films abroad. Warners and First National have imported many German, French and Spanish actors for foreign versions, but it is likely that if these films are popular, expansion of production in foreign lands will take place.

In the meantime the securing of foreign actors goes on, with Fox announcing yesterday the signing of two Spanish players. Carlos Villarias and Juan Torena are the names of the players signed, both obtaining long-term contracts.

It is undestood also that as both speak English well, they will also appear in English versions of pictures. Villarias, who already has played in a couple of Fox pictures, including "The Valiant," was born in Spain in 1890, his father being a general in the Spanish army. He was graduated from the University of Valladolid, after which he went to Paris to study music; and he appeared on the stage in Paris. He came to New York and appeared in many Broadway productions, and was one of the founders of the Spanish Theater.

Juan Torena speaks good English, having been in mercantile and sporting life in San Francisco. At one time he was an automobile racer. He was born in Manila.

FILM PLAYERS GO BACK TO NEW YORK

Two Paramount players are leaving to return to the New York stage for a play before appearing in any more pictures.

ANDERSON LAWLER

They are Anderson Lawler and Marie Astaire, who are going back as soon as current roles are finished to take part in Zoe Akins's new play, "The Greeks Had a Word for It," which is going into rehearsal within a couple of weeks.

And here comes another bit of news. It is likely that Paramount will make a film of Miss Akins's play after it has been shown to Broadwayites. Also we hear that it is quite possible that both Lawler and Miss Astaire will have parts.

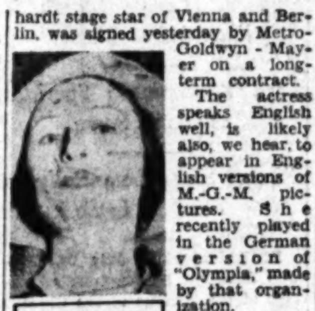
Skeets Gallagher In It

No less engaging a comedian than Skeets Gallagher will brighten up the Paramount Clara Bow picture which is called "Her Wedding Night." Charles Ruggles has a featured comedy lead.

Ralph Forbes is playing opposite Miss Bow, and Frank Tuttle is directing.

M.-G.-M. SIGNING VIENNESE ACTRESS

Nora Gregor, famous Max Reinhardt stage star of Vienna and Berlin, was signed yesterday by Metro-Goldwyn - Mayer on a long-term contract.



NORA GREGOR

The actress speaks English well, is likely also, we hear, to appear in English versions of M.-G.-M. pictures. She recently played in the German version of "Olympia," made by that organization.

Miss Gregor has for several years past been starred in outstanding Reinhardt productions, and was specially brought to America for the German production of the Molnar play. She is considered one of the most beautiful women of the continental stage.

Two for "Scotland Yard"

Two actors whom everybody likes have just been signed for important roles in the Fox picture, "Scotland Yard," starring Edmund Lowe.

They are David Torrence and Lumsden Hare. Both are well known to the stage. Hare was leading man formerly with Ethel Barrymore, Maxine Elliot, Maude Adams and others, while Torrence also supported in leading roles such stars as Maude Adams and others.

Fox Signs Juvenile Leads

With Will Rogers and Louise Dresser in the leading roles of "Lightnin'," it really doesn't seem as though one need mention any more of the cast.

SHARON LYNN

But the fact remains that there is what press agents delight to call romantic interest in the story, and so, of course, there must be youth and innocence to portray these roles. Sharon Lynn and Noel Francis have been signed for the juvenile leads in the picture and others in important roles are Helen Cohan, J. M. Kerrigan and Ruth Warren. Henry King is directing.

City's Camps in Mountains Get Larger Crowds

That Los Angeles families are finding vacations at municipal camps more attractive than during preceding seasons was demonstrated yesterday by attendance figures for the first half of the summer vacation period, as announced by the City Playground and Recreation Department.

An increase of 41 per cent over attendance totals for the same period last year at the three municipal mountain vacation camps was shown by the compilation.

Camp Radford led all of these playgrounds in its gains over last season, registering an increase of 78 1-2 per cent. Camp High Sierra's gain was 27 per cent and Camp Seeley's 17 1-2 per cent. A total of nearly 2500 persons have enjoyed vacations from one day to two weeks in duration since the 1930 season began, the low-cost outings offered attracting persons from all stations in life.

SYNOD BARS MOONEY STAND

Presbyterians Vote to Strike Out Portion of Welfare Report Relating to Case

By a vote of 350 to 30, delegates to the synod of California, meeting at Immanuel Presbyterian Church, yesterday voted to strike from the synod's records that part of the moral welfare committee's report relating to the imprisonment of Mooney and Billings.

The report, presented by Dr. Willis W. Long of Stockton, did not pass upon the innocence or guilt of the convicted men, but made it plain that it is unfair to imprison or to keep in prison any person if the evidence upon which he was convicted has been disqualified.

The committee expressed itself as "in accord with those persons who protest against the thoughtless, but rather prevalent, attitude that a man may be kept in prison on the general principle that he is an undesirable citizen."

Those who voted to eliminate all reference to the report from the synodical records, declared that a vote in favor of the report probably would have been misunderstood and interpreted as an expression of undue sympathy for Mooney and Billings and, possibly, as lack of respect for the courts.

WOMEN HOLD ELECTIONS

Featuring the morning program were the elections by the women delegates of California and Arizona. Officers of the California Women's Synodical Society for Missions were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Margery Schuberth of Pasadena; first, second and third vice-presidents, respectively, Mrs. J. G. Clay of Long Beach, Mrs. W. J. Fisher of San Mateo and Mrs. F. H. Russell of Palo Alto; treasurer, Mrs. Charles E. Cornell of Oakland; secretary, assistant secretary and corresponding secretary, respectively, Miss Helen Judson, Mrs. Glenn Moore and Mrs. N. E. Douglas.

The Synodical Society for Missions of the Arizona Synod elected officers as follows: President, Mrs. J. W. Buchanan of Tucson (re-elected;) first, second and third vice-presidents, respectively, Mrs. L. Sinclair, Mrs. Jane Smith and Mrs. G. E. Richardson; secretary, Mrs. Isabel Irwin; treasurer, Mrs. H. E. Muldro.

A feature of the morning session was the adoption of a resolution supporting the proposed measure (to appear on the ballot) which provides for a law exempting from taxation all nonprofit hospitals. It was pointed out that such a law would be in accord with a similar law in forty-five other States.

MISSION HEAD SPEAKS

Speakers at the morning sessions included Dr. Robert S. Donaldson, secretary of the Board of National Missions, who told of the missionary work of the Presbyterian Church in America and abroad. According to Dr. Donaldson, the church operates 142 enterprises among the 350,000 Indians of America, 70,000 of whom have been converted to Christianity. The church also carries on hundreds of enterprises among the 200,000 orientals in the United States. More than 800 churches, missions and other enterprises are operated for the benefit of the 7,000,000 mountain people of the Southern States.

"Along with the national assumption of responsibility for the West Indies, the Presbyterian church assumed responsibility for the 5,000,000 people in those islands," said Dr. Donaldson. Among the 55,000 inhabitants of Alaska, the work of our church has been especially effective. One-tenth of the $5,000,000 contributed annually for Presbyterian national missions is devoted to work among negroes."

Another speaker was Dr. A. W. Mell, secretary of the Pacific Agency, American Bible Society, who said that the Bible has been translated into 886 languages and dialects and that 40,000,000 volumes of the Scriptures are circulated annually throughout the world.

The synodical sessions closed yesterday at noon with a sacramental service conducted by Dr. Charles Spaulding, moderator of the synod.

Whispers in the Wings

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

LEO CARILLO will bring a new comedy-drama called "Kebec," by Cyrus Wood, to Los Angeles for a tryout sometime within the near future, according to dispatches last night from Oakland.

Carillo, whom Los Angeles playgoers will remember affectionately for a lot of things, particularly "Lombardi, Ltd.," is now rehearsing this play at the Dufwin Theater, Oakland, where he has been appearing under the management of Richard Marshall and Carleton Miles, formerly of the Duffy organization.

"Kebec" is a comedy-drama, it is said, centering about the French Canadian Kebec's philosophy that no woman, if she pleases him, is too good for him—whether she be wealthy or of aristocracy.

Wood, the author, now writing for R.-K.-O. pictures in Hollywood, is due to go north shortly for rehearsals and to attend the opening in Oakland.

"Fata Morgana" Goes North

The production of "Fata Morgana" which Arthur Greville Collins now has adorning the Hollywood Playhouse is due to depart here a week from Saturday for Erlanger's Columbia Theater, San Francisco.

The play, with Elsie Ferguson and Tom Douglas, has been one of the summer boxoffice hits in Los Angeles. Collins plans, at this moment, to bring it back to a downtown theater, possibly the Biltmore, following the San Francisco run.

"Rebound" Closes in Week

Because Ina Claire must start eastward to prepare for her role in "The Royal Family" for the Paramount New York Studio, "Rebound" at the Belasco, closes August 9, according to announcement last night. This leaves the Belasco Theater dark for a week, or until August 18, when "It's a Wise Child," now at the Curran in San Francisco, arrives.

The latter is David Belasco's comedy hit of the season, which has played New York all year and is just now starting out on the road.

The whimsical Sidney Toler, who visits these parts pretty regularly in one comic role or another, has a leading part. Minor Watson, Harlan Briggs, Ralph Striker, Porter Hall, George Walcott, Mildred McCoy, Helen Lowell, Leila Bennett and Olga Krolow are others of the cast.

Carol Lombard in Luck

From New York last evening came a report that Carol Lombard, who traveled to New York to play in Paramount's "The Best People," has met with great good fortune.

She has attracted the attention of A. H. Woods and has been selected by him for his production of the dramatization of "A Farewell to Arms" by Ernest Hemingway in a leading role. Furthermore, it is said, the producer will defer rehearsals until he can claim Miss Lombard's undivided attention.

It was Mr. Woods, you may remember, who brought Ann Harding and Claudette Colbert to the fore.

Wallace Beery Plays Convict Role in Film

Wallace Beery, with head clipped, plays what is called one of the strangest roles of his career as Butch, the convict in "The Big House," film drama of prison life, starting today at the Boulevard Theater.

Beery is seen as the rough-and-ready trouble-maker of a large penitentiary who instigates a revolt against the authorities, ending in a riot of 3000 convicts.

Jackie Souders and his band will do a humorous travesty on the picture as the featured number of the stage show.

Aviators Will Judge Contest at Grauman's

Aviators of note will be guests of honor and will aid the Hunter brothers, endurance flight champions, in judging the dancing contest at Saturday's midnight matinee of "Hell's Angels" at Grauman's Chinese Theater, according to the management.

In addition to judging the contest with the aviator guests the Hunter brothers will describe their experiences in establishing the record of 553 hours in the air. They are making personal appearances twice daily at the Chinese.

Eily Malyon Has New Role

Eily Malyon, who is playing Sister Leonide in Francis Josef Hickson's production of Alice Pike Barney's play, "Mata Hari," now running at the Theater Mart, is well-known to Los Angeles audiences.

She will be remembered for her work as the secretary in "The Queen was in the Parlor," with Pauline Frederick, and as Lenore Ulric's mother in "East of Suez." Miss Malyon comes from England, where she won a reputation for her fine work.

"HEARTS IN EXILE" COMING TO TOWER

The colorful set was prepared under the supervision of A. Davidoff, Russian technical director, while the actual direction of the picture was in the hands of Michael Curtiz. Miss Costello's supporting cast includes Grant Withers, James Kirkwood, George Fawcett, David Torrence and Olive Tell.

Moderns Present a Film Drama

Joan Crawford

Stars in "Our Blushing Brides," the third of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer "Our" series in which the popular player has taken part. The picture opens at the Criterion Theater tomorrow.

Viola Dana to be Welcomed at R.-K.-O. Theater

Gala festivities are promised for the R.-K.-O. Theater tonight when a host of friends of stage and screen will be present to welcome Viola Dana, who makes her return to the local rialto in the R.-K.-O. vaudeville program.

VIOLA DANA

The diminutive comedienne appears in "The Inkwell," a farcical playlet written by Anita Loos. Acting before the footlights is no novel experience for Miss Dana, as she had starred in several productions before entering motion pictures.

The new screen attraction at the R.-K.-O. is "Inside the Lines," Radio's film of espionage during the World War. Costarring Betty Compson and Ralph Forbes, the cast of players includes Montague Love, Mischa Auer, Reginald Sharland and William von Brincken. Roy J. Pomeroy wrote the screen play and directed.

Haines Invades Cowboy Land in 'Way Out West'

William Haines in "Way Out West," is the screen fare, and over 200 persons, including the Meglin Kiddies, appear on the stage in the new Fanchon and Marco idea, "Modes," at Loew's State today.

"Way Out West" is Haines's first venture into cowboy land for comedy and romance. He portrays a tenderfoot role, circus barker who "works" the cowboys in a small town on the route for all their hard-earned wages with a roulette wheel.

Polly Moran and Cliff Edwards add comedy to the picture, and Leila Hyams provides the romantic interest. Francis X. Bushman, Jr., Charles Middleton and Buddy Roosevelt are others in the cast. Fred Niblo directed.

Spy Melodrama Closes Today at Downtown

"Three Faces East," Warner Brothers production, with Constance Bennett and Erich Von Stroheim, which has been showing at Warners' Downtown Theater for the past two weeks, ends its engagement today. It is a melodrama showing the operation of spies during the World War.

In connection with this production the Downtown Theater has presented a colorful Larry Ceballos revue.

Starting tomorrow Elsie Ferguson will be seen in "Scarlet Pages," a First National production, with Marian Nixon, Grant Withers and John Halliday. Another Ceballos stage show is scheduled.

'Border Legion' to be Screened

In the exact location where Black Bart and other early California outlaws perpetrated their deeds, Paramount filmed "The Border Legion," opening on the Million Dollar Theater screen today.

The current program also includes a stage revue, headlined by Joseph Diskay, versatile tenor. Others on the vaudeville bill are Rose Louise with a company of dancers, Al Abbot, Charles and Lea Fargo and the Eatons.

COMICS ON LOCATION

Amos 'n' Andy have been in pictures only a week and are still rehearsing their new Radio vehicle, but they have already made their first location trip, filming a traffic scene in downtown Los Angeles.

Current Warner Hollywood Bill to Close Today

Today is the last day of the personal appearances of Olsen and Johnson and their company with the Larry Ceballos stage revue at Warner Brothers' Hollywood Theater. This duo of funmakers have enjoyed success in their two-week stay, it is reported, and soon will appear in their second Vitaphone picture at the Warner studio.

"The Way of All Men," with Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Dorothy Revier, Robert Edeson, Noah Beery and William Courtenay, also closes a run today.

Tomorrow begins an all-comedy program with a bill headed by the film farce, "The Matrimonial Bed," with Frank Fay, Lilyan Tashman, Florence Eldridge and James Gleason. The stage show brings the Collegians direct from New York.

CHEVALIER AT BARD'S

Maurice Chevalier comes to Bard's Downtown Theater today in "The Big Pond." The French star is seen as a gay Parisian who arrives in this country and attempts to break into big business. Claudette Colbert is seen in the leading feminine role.

COMICS TO OFFICIATE AT CIRCLE

Robert Armstrong, James Gleason Chosen as Chief Masters of Ceremonies

Two popular stage and screen comedians, James Gleason and Robert Armstrong, will head the list of masters of ceremonies at the premiere showing of "Holiday," starring Ann Harding, at the Carthay Circle Theater, August 7. The pair will alternate with Freeman Lang at the microphone, in introducing the celebrities as they arrive. They will also be in charge of the introductions of the cast on the stage following the picture.

Gleason and Armstrong were first known to Los Angeles theatergoers when they appeared in their own stage production of "Is Zat So?" Later they appeared in a screen version of the same play as well as in many subsequent talking pictures.

"Holiday" was made by Pathe and directed by E. H. Griffith. The supporting cast includes Mary Astor, Edward Everett Horton, Hedda Hopper, Robert Ames and others. Abe Lyman and his orchestra are preparing a new musical melange for presentation on the stage.

Noted Players Cofeatured in 'Manslaughter'

Cofeaturing Claudette Colbert and Fredric March, the screen version of Alice Duer Miller's novel, "Manslaughter," opens today at the Paramount Theater.

Cast as the young society butterfly, gay, rich, desirable, who places herself above the law, Miss Colbert is said to give the most poignantly appealing performance of her screen career. Portraying the district attorney who places duty above love and sends the woman he loves to prison is Fredric March, distinguished stage and screen actor.

The supporting cast includes Emma Dunn, Natalie Moorhead, Richard Tucker, Hilda Vaughn and Stanley Fields. George Abbott directed.

The first of a new series of short subjects will also be seen on the Paramount screen when Eddie Cantor is seen in the "Cockeyed News."

Pantages Offers 'Shadow of Law'

William Powell plays a new type of role in "Shadow of the Law," which begins a week's run at the Pantages Hollywood today. He is given none of the sophisticated superiority of the Philo Vance portrayals, it is said, but is seen as a quiet-living engineer who is drawn into a web of circumstances that land him in prison.

The supporting cast includes Natalie Moorhead, Marion Schilling, Regis Toomey and others. On the stage Fanchon and Marco will present the "Gems and Jams" idea, with Joe and Jane McKenna, Nee Wong, Will Cowan and a chorus.

Theaters—Amusements—Entertainments

Holiday
HAS EVERYTHING
There is drama..the heart throb of a love denied..there is comedy..the smartest dialogue ever written for the talking screen.. there is the sparkle of the ultra-modern.. But with all of this ..there is an intelligent understanding of 'just humans'..people you would like to know, and call your friends "HOLIDAY" is more than gray shadows on the silver screen.. "HOLIDAY" is human . . . "Holiday" is the perfection of entertainment!

MARITIME LIEN ACT ADVOCATED

Federal Statute Planned by Bar Association

Pay for Ship-Damaged Land Structures Sought

Would Give Municipal Ports Means of Redress

BY WALDO DRAKE

The local Harbor Department is in full support of the plan of the American Bar Association to secure Federal legislation to create a maritime lien in Federal courts against vessels for damages they have inflicted upon land structures, it was announced yesterday by Deputy City Attorney Clyde Leach. At present, said Mr. Leach, Los Angeles Harbor and other ports furnishing municipal port pilots have no recourse other than State courts when vessels damage wharves, bridges and piers that are municipally owned.

"The situation has become so serious that the committee on admiralty and maritime law of the American Bar Association has completed a report, wherein need of Federal legislation to aid municipally owned ports in such cases is stressed," said Mr. Leach. "At present, if a vessel, while being navigated by a compulsory pilot, comes into collision, her owners are not liable for any damage which may be attributed to the fault or neglect of the pilot.

"Los Angeles, like many other cities, particularly on the Great Lakes, has invested many millions of dollars in port developments. If a ship damages our properties, we have no access to admiralty court to seek redress, but, on the other hand, the shipowner may compel the owner of the land structure to come into admiralty court and assert his claim for a nonmaritime tort. We have a case on hand at present, wherein we are seeking damages from owners of a tanker that rammed one of our piers. So far the inequalities of this particular law have blocked our efforts."

The bar association has filed the report with the United States Shipping Board, aid of which will be solicited, while it will also be presented at the annual meeting of the association to be held in Chicago on August 20 to 22.

EARLY BUILDING OF NEW TERMINAL URGED

Development of West Basin as the port's most modern terminal area was further urged on the Board of Harbor Commissioners yesterday. The Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, in a communication read at yesterday's commission meeting, urged immediate construction of the $1,300,000 offshore terminals at Berths 144 to 146, for which plans have been completed by Harbor Engineer George F. Nicholson, while John E. Marshall, ship agent and freight forwarder, asked the Harbor Board to build for his use a 1200-foot open dock at Berths 126 and 127 on the West Basin.

Mr. Marshall offered to take a lease of ten years on the new terminal, explaining that his business has developed at such a rate in the past three years that it has outgrown facilities on Terminal Island. The Marshall suggestion was referred to Port Manager Burt Edwards, while that of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce was referred to Harbor Commissioner FitzGerald, who is making an official investigation of the new terminal.

The Coast Guard cutter Algonquin was back in port yesterday after towing the hulk of the burned bark Centennial offshore and blowing it up with demolition bombs. Commander Muller S. Hay, the cutter's skipper, said nothing remains of the old windjammer save scattered bits of debris. The Centennial burned Tuesday morning while doing duty off Long Beach as the Pirate Galleon cafe.

Port revenues for June showed a marked decrease over the same month a year ago. The harbor department announced the totals as $182,370, against $194,472.56 for June, 1929. Principal items last month included wharfage, $87,271; pilotage, $23,353; land rentals, $26,370; harbor belt line, $7516.

Joseph J. Tynan, vice-president of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, arrived from San Francisco yesterday morning aboard the Lassco coastwise liner Harvard, and made a hurried inspection of the local Bethlehem yards with J. Bermingham, sales manager here.

Accompanied by Mrs. Tynan, he left for Coronado yesterday afternoon for a ten-day vacation.

Eight bids were opened by the Harbor Commission yesterday for the salt-water pumping plant equipment to be built at Fish Harbor for cannery fluming purposes. No tenders will be accepted until they have been analyzed by Harbor Engineer Nicholson. Total cost of the project, which includes the pumping plant, a reserve storage tower and a mile-long intake, is estimated at $67,000. Operating cost, estimated at $1000 per month, will be borne by the canners.

Dr. C. F. Aked, pastor of All Souls Congregational Church, Los Angeles, will be among the forty passengers sailing from the port for North Europe tomorrow aboard the Hamburg-American liner Vancouver. Dr. Aked, accompanied by Mrs. Aked, is going to England and will return on the Vancouver.

William P. Montague, Hapag district manager, also announced that the line's motorship Los Angeles will arrive from Hamburg and Antwerp on August 4 with thirty-five passengers and 2500 tons of cargo.

San Pedro Chamber of Commerce was advised from Washington yesterday that the new Coast Guard cutter Shoshone, last of five turbo-electric ships being built for offshore duty, will probably be assigned to duty at this base as relief of the old cutter Algonquin, to be decommissioned.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30. (AP)—Bids for construction of four liners for the Panama Mail Company's intercoastal service are to be opened in Washington next Monday, local officials of the line announced today.

Bids for the job will be submitted by the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation and the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Drydock Company on the Pacific Coast, and by several yards on the Atlantic Coast.

Local shipping observers predicted the contract will be awarded to a west-coast yard.

SEATTLE, July 30. (AP)—Collector of Customs George D. Hubbard today received instructions from the Treasury Department to hold up all shipments of pulpwood from Archangel, Siberia, following President Hoover's announcement yesterday that soviet imports can be banned if in violation of tariff provisions.

It was understood the pulpwood, if any arrived here, would be held to determine if it is a product of convict labor, as charged by northwest lumbermen. Such products are banned by the Tariff Act. No shipments had been received here lately and none were reported on the way.

Dr. L. D. Fricks, Federal medical director for the Northwest, said today that H. A. Spencer, head of the Federal quarantine station at Los Angeles, will become quarantine officer for Puget Sound September 1, with his office here. Duties of this office have been performed by Dr. Fricks.

PORTLAND, July 30.—The McCormick Steamship Company, which recently acquired control of the Columbia River Stevedoring Company, has announced it will continue to operate under that name. H. F. McCormick has been named president of the company; C. G. Gianey, vice-president; H. M. Krebs, secretary, and Hillman Lueddemann, general manager and treasurer.

TACOMA, July 30.—One of the largest single shipments of copper to leave Tacoma—2200 long tons—is being loaded aboard the new French Line motorship Wisconsin, which arrived here Wednesday on its maiden voyage. Thursday the vessel will discharge steel from Dunkirk.

The Norwegian motorship Brageville of the Claveness Line, arrived today from the Orient and is loading flour, lead and lumber for Singapore.

Pulp shipments from this port during July will total more than 6000 tons, it was announced today. The last cargo for the period will be loaded Thursday, consisting of 1000 tons taken by the Lillian Luckenbach for the east coast. Four foreign vessels picked up this product during the month.

Dam Site Will Be Inspected

With everything ready for pouring cement for the foundation of the new $1,000,000 dam being built in Tujunga Canyon, eight miles north of Sunland, members of the Board of Supervisors will inspect the site at noon today.

The Supervisors, accompanied by E. C. Eaton, chief engineer of the flood-control department, will leave the Courthouse at 11 a.m. to go to the canyon and after having lunch at the lodge will make their tour of inspection.

The actual work of pouring the cement for the foundation will commence next week, Eaton declared yesterday.

ASSOCIATION DENIED SPACE AT WHARF

As General Manager Edwards of the Harbor Department reported that no satisfactory arrangement can be reached with the Fisherman's Co-operative Association for space on the municipal fish wharf, the Harbor Commission yesterday voted to deny the association's application for space.
